

Cities and Local Government Devolution Act 2016

2016 CHAPTER 1

Reports about local devolution

1 Devolution: annual report

- (1) The Secretary of State must lay before each House of Parliament an annual report about devolution for all areas within England pursuant to the provisions of this Act [^{F1}or Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the Levelling-up and Regeneration Act 2023].
- (2) The annual report must include information on—
 - (a) the areas of the country where agreements have been reached,
 - (b) the areas of the country where proposals have been received by the Secretary of State and negotiations have taken place but agreement has not yet been reached,
 - (c) functions exercisable by a Minister of the Crown that have been devolved as a result of agreements so as to become exercisable by a mayor for the area of a combined authority [^{F2}or a combined county authority] (including information as to any such functions that remain exercisable by a Minister of the Crown as a result of an agreement providing for functions to be exercisable jointly or concurrently),
 - (d) additional financial resources and public functions (so far as not falling within paragraph (c)) which have been devolved as a result of agreements, and
 - (e) the extent to which consideration has been given by a Minister of the Crown to the principle that powers should be devolved to combined authorities [^{F3}, combined county authorities] or the most appropriate local level except where those powers can more effectively be exercised by central government.
- (3) The annual report must be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as practicable after 31 March each year.
- (4) In this section—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Cities and Local Government Devolution Act 2016, Cross Heading: Reports about local devolution. (See end of Document for details)

“combined authority” means a combined authority established under section 103 of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009;

[^{F4}“combined county authority” means a combined county authority established under section 9(1) of the Levelling-up and Regeneration Act 2023;]

“Minister of the Crown” has the same meaning as in the Ministers of the Crown Act 1975.
