
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the House of Commons Members' Fund Act 2016, Cross Heading: Accounts and reports. (See end of Document for details)

SCHEDULE

HOUSE OF COMMONS MEMBERS' FUND: TRUSTEES' POWERS AND PROCEEDINGS

Accounts and reports

- 9 The trustees shall make arrangements for the maintenance and publication of accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice; and the arrangements must include—
- (a) examination and certification of the accounts by the Comptroller and Auditor-General or another external auditor, and
 - (b) laying of the accounts and the auditor's report before the House of Commons.
- 10 The trustees may ask the Government Actuary to report to the trustees on the position of the Fund; and the trustees shall make such arrangements for the publication of reports as they think proper (which may include laying before the House of Commons).

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the House of Commons Members' Fund Act 2016, Cross Heading: Accounts and reports.