Psychoactive substances

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

2 Meaning of “psychoactive substance” etc

- (1) In this Act “psychoactive substance” means any substance which—
 - (a) is capable of producing a psychoactive effect in a person who consumes it, and
 - (b) is not an exempted substance (see section 3).
- (2) For the purposes of this Act a substance produces a psychoactive effect in a person if, by stimulating or depressing the person's central nervous system, it affects the person's mental functioning or emotional state; and references to a substance's psychoactive effects are to be read accordingly.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act a person consumes a substance if the person causes or allows the substance, or fumes given off by the substance, to enter the person's body in any way.

3 Exempted substances

- (1) In this Act “exempted substance” means a substance listed in Schedule 1.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend Schedule 1 in order to—
 - (a) add or vary any description of substance;
 - (b) remove any description of substance added under paragraph (a).
- (3) Before making any regulations under this section the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the Advisory Council on the Misuse of Drugs, and
 - (b) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (4) The power to make regulations under this section is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

- (a) the person intentionally produces a psychoactive substance,
 - (b) the person knows or suspects that the substance is a psychoactive substance, and
 - (c) the person—
 - (i) intends to consume the psychoactive substance for its psychoactive effects, or
 - (ii) knows, or is reckless as to whether, the psychoactive substance is likely to be consumed by some other person for its psychoactive effects.
- (2) This section is subject to section 11 (exceptions to offences).

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

5 Supplying, or offering to supply, a psychoactive substance

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person intentionally supplies a substance to another person,
 - (b) the substance is a psychoactive substance,
 - (c) the person knows or suspects, or ought to know or suspect, that the substance is a psychoactive substance, and
 - (d) the person knows, or is reckless as to whether, the psychoactive substance is likely to be consumed by the person to whom it is supplied, or by some other person, for its psychoactive effects.
- (2) A person (“P”) commits an offence if—
- (a) P offers to supply a psychoactive substance to another person (“R”), and
 - (b) P knows or is reckless as to whether R, or some other person, would, if P supplied a substance to R in accordance with the offer, be likely to consume the substance for its psychoactive effects.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), the reference to a substance's psychoactive effects includes a reference to the psychoactive effects which the substance would have if it were the substance which P had offered to supply to R.
- (4) This section is subject to section 11 (exceptions to offences).

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

6 Aggravation of offence under section 5

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a court is considering the seriousness of an offence under section 5, and
 - (b) at the time the offence was committed the offender was aged 18 or over.
- (2) If condition A, B or C is met the court—
 - (a) must treat the fact that the condition is met as an aggravating factor (that is to say, a factor that increases the seriousness of the offence), and
 - (b) must state in open court that the offence is so aggravated.
- (3) Condition A is that the offence was committed on or in the vicinity of school premises at a relevant time.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) a “relevant time” is—
 - (a) any time when the school premises are in use by persons under the age of 18;
 - (b) one hour before the start and one hour after the end of any such time.
- (5) In this section—

“school premises” means land used for the purposes of a school, other than any land occupied solely as a dwelling by a person employed at the school;

“school” has the same meaning—

 - (a) in England and Wales, as in section 4 of the Education Act 1996;
 - (b) in Scotland, as in section 135(1) of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980;
 - (c) in Northern Ireland, as in Article 2(2) of the Education and Libraries (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 (S.I. 1986/594 (N.I. 3)).
- (6) Condition B is that in connection with the commission of the offence the offender used a courier who, at the time the offence was committed, was under the age of 18.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6) a person (“P”) uses a courier in connection with an offence under section 5 if P causes or permits another person (the courier)—
 - (a) to deliver a substance to a third person, or
 - (b) to deliver a drug-related consideration to P or a third person.
- (8) A drug-related consideration is a consideration of any description which—
 - (a) is obtained in connection with the supply of a psychoactive substance, or
 - (b) is intended to be used in connection with obtaining a psychoactive substance.
- (9) Condition C is that the offence was committed in a custodial institution.
- (10) In this section—

“custodial institution” means any of the following—

 - (a) a prison;
 - (b) a young offender institution, secure training centre, secure college, young offenders institution, young offenders centre, juvenile justice centre or remand centre;
 - (c) a removal centre, a short-term holding facility or pre-departure accommodation;

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) service custody premises;
“removal centre”, “short-term holding facility” and “pre-departure accommodation” have the meaning given by section 147 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999;
“service custody premises” has the meaning given by section 300(7) of the Armed Forces Act 2006.

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

7 Possession of psychoactive substance with intent to supply

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
 - (a) the person is in possession of a psychoactive substance,
 - (b) the person knows or suspects that the substance is a psychoactive substance, and
 - (c) the person intends to supply the psychoactive substance to another person for its consumption, whether by any person to whom it is supplied or by some other person, for its psychoactive effects.
- (2) This section is subject to section 11 (exceptions to offences).

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

8 Importing or exporting a psychoactive substance

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
 - (a) the person intentionally imports a substance,
 - (b) the substance is a psychoactive substance,
 - (c) the person knows or suspects, or ought to know or suspect, that the substance is a psychoactive substance, and
 - (d) the person—
 - (i) intends to consume the psychoactive substance for its psychoactive effects, or
 - (ii) knows, or is reckless as to whether, the psychoactive substance is likely to be consumed by some other person for its psychoactive effects.
- (2) A person commits an offence if—
 - (a) the person intentionally exports a substance,
 - (b) the substance is a psychoactive substance,
 - (c) the person knows or suspects, or ought to know or suspect, that the substance is a psychoactive substance, and
 - (d) the person—
 - (i) intends to consume the psychoactive substance for its psychoactive effects, or 15 Prohibition notices and premises notices: supplementary

- (1) This section applies to the giving of prohibition notices and premises notices.
- (2) A notice must—
 - (a) set out the grounds for giving the notice;
 - (b) explain the possible consequences of not complying with the notice.
- (3) A notice may be withdrawn by a notice to that effect given by—
 - (a) where the notice was given by a senior officer, that officer or another senior officer acting on behalf of the same person as that officer;
 - (b) where the notice was given by a local authority, that local authority.
- (4) The withdrawal of a notice does not prevent the giving of a further notice to the same person.
- (5) For the meaning of “senior officer”, see section 13(7).

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

16 Further provision about giving notices under sections 13 to 15

- (1) This section applies to the giving of notices under sections 13 to 15.
- (2) A notice takes effect when it is given.
- (3) A notice may be given to a person by—
 - (a) handing it to the person,
 - (b) leaving it at the person's proper address,
 - (c) sending it by post to the person at that address, or
 - (d) subject to subsection (9), sending it to the person by electronic means.
- (4) A notice to a body corporate may be given to the secretary or clerk of that body.
- (5) A notice to a partnership may be given to a partner or a person who has the control or management of the partnership business.
- (6) For the purposes of this section and of section 7 of the Interpretation Act 1978 (service of documents by post) in its application to this section, the proper address of a person is—
 - (a) in the case of a body corporate or its secretary or clerk, the address of the body's registered or principal office;
 - (b) in the case of a partnership, a partner or a person having the control or management of the partnership business, the address of the principal office of the partnership;
 - (c) in any other case, the person's last known address.

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

22 Provision that may be made by prohibition orders and premises orders

- (1) A court making a prohibition order or a premises order, or a court varying such an order under or by virtue of any of sections 28 to 31, may by the order impose any prohibitions, restrictions or requirements that the court considers appropriate (in addition to the prohibition referred to in section 17(1) or the requirement referred to in section 20(2) (as the case may be)).
- (2) Subsections (3) to (6) contain examples of the type of provision that may be made under subsection (1), but they do not limit the type of provision that may be so made.
- (3) The prohibitions, restrictions or requirements that may be imposed on a person by a prohibition order or a premises order include prohibitions or restrictions on, or requirements in relation to, the person's business dealings (including the conduct of the person's business over the internet).
- (4) The requirements that may be imposed on a person by a prohibition order include a requirement to hand over for disposal an item belonging to the person that the court is satisfied—
 - (a) is a psychoactive substance, or
 - (b) has been, or is likely to be, used in the carrying on of a prohibited activity.
- (5) An item that is handed over in compliance with a requirement imposed by virtue of subsection (4) may not be disposed of—
 - (a) before the end of the period within which an appeal may be made against the imposition of the requirement (ignoring any power to appeal out of time), or
 - (b) if such an appeal is made, before it is determined or otherwise dealt with.
- (6) The prohibitions that may be imposed on a person by a prohibition order or a premises order include a prohibition prohibiting access to premises owned, occupied, leased, controlled or operated by the person for a specified period (an “access prohibition”).
- (7) The period specified under subsection (6) may not exceed 3 months (but see subsections (3) to (5) of section 28).
- (8) An access prohibition may prohibit access—

(6) In this section “the court” means—

- (a) in a case where the prohibition order or the premises order imposing the access prohibition was made by a court in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, the court that made the order, except where paragraph (b) or (c) applies;
- (b) where the court that made the order was the Court of Appeal, the Crown Court;
- (c) where the court that made the order was a youth court but the person against whom the order was made is aged 18 or over at the time of the application, a magistrates' court or, in Northern Ireland, a court of summary jurisdiction;
- (d) in a case where the prohibition order or the premises order imposing the access prohibition was made by a court in Scotland, the sheriff.

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

25 Access prohibitions: exemption from liability

- (1) Neither an authorised person, nor the person under whose direction or control the authorised person acts, is to be liable in damages for anything done, or omitted to be done, by the authorised person in the exercise or purported exercise of a power under section 23.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an act or omission shown to have been in bad faith.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply so as to prevent an award of damages made in respect of an act or omission on the ground that the act or omission was unlawful by virtue of section 6(1) of the Human Rights Act 1998.
- (4) This section does not affect any other exemption from liability (whether at common law or otherwise).
- (5) In this section “authorised person” has the same meaning as in section 23.

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

26 Offence of failing to comply with a prohibition order or premises order

- (1) A person against whom a prohibition order or a premises order is made commits an offence by failing to comply with the order.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales—
 - (i) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months (or 6 months, if the offence was committed before the commencement of section 154(1) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003), or

28 Variation and discharge on application

- (1) The court may vary or discharge a prohibition order or a premises order on the application of—
 - (a) the person who applied for the order (if any),
 - (b) the person against whom the order was made, or
 - (c) any other person who is significantly adversely affected by the order.
- (2) Where a prohibition order is made under section 19, the court may also vary or discharge the order on the application of—
 - (a) in the case of an order made in England and Wales, the chief officer of police for a police area or the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force;
 - (b) in the case of an order made in Scotland, the Lord Advocate or a procurator fiscal;
 - (c) in the case of an order made in Northern Ireland, the chief constable of the Police Service of Northern Ireland;
 - (d) in the case of an order made in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, the Director General of the National Crime Agency;
 - (e) in the case of an order made in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, the Secretary of State by whom general customs functions are exercisable.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies where—
 - (a) a prohibition order or a premises order imposes an access prohibition (see section 22(6)), and
 - (b) an application for the variation of the order is made by the person who applied for the order, or by a person mentioned in subsection (2), before the expiry of the period for which the access prohibition has effect.
- (4) Where this subsection applies, the court may vary the order by extending (or further extending) the period for which the access prohibition has effect.
- (5) The period for which an access prohibition has effect may not be extended so that it has effect for more than 6 months.
- (6) In this section “the court” means—
 - (a) the court that made the order, except where paragraph (b) or (c) applies;
 - (b) where—
 - (i) the order was made under section 19 on an appeal in relation to a person's conviction or sentence for an offence, or
 - (ii) the order was made by a court under that section against a person committed or remitted to that court for sentencing for an offence, the court by or before which the person was convicted (but see subsection (7));
 - (c) where the court that made the order was a youth court but the person against whom the order was made is aged 18 or over at the time of the application, a magistrates' court or, in Northern Ireland, a court of summary jurisdiction.
- (7) Where the person mentioned in subsection (6)(b)—
 - (a) was convicted by a youth court, but

- (b) is aged 18 or over at the time of the application,
the reference in subsection (6)(b) to the court by or before which the person was convicted is to be read as a reference to a magistrates' court or, in Northern Ireland, a court of summary jurisdiction.
- (8) An order that has been varied under this section remains an order of the court that first made it for the purposes of—
- (a) section 24;
 - (b) any further application under this section.

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

29 Variation following conviction

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a court is dealing with a person who has been convicted of a relevant offence and against whom a prohibition order or a premises order has previously been made, or
 - (b) a court is dealing with a person who has been convicted of an offence under section 26 of failing to comply with a prohibition order or a premises order.
- (2) The court may vary the prohibition order or (as the case may be) the premises order.
- (3) An order that has been varied under subsection (2) remains an order of the court that first made it for the purposes of sections 24 and 28.
- (4) An order may not be varied under this section except—
- (a) in addition to a sentence imposed in respect of the offence concerned, or
 - (b) in addition to an order discharging the person conditionally or, in Scotland, discharging the person absolutely.
- (5) In this section “relevant offence” has the same meaning as in section 19.

- (4) A police or customs officer may require—
 - (a) any person travelling in a vehicle, or
 - (b) the registered keeper of a vehicle,to afford such facilities and assistance with respect to matters under that person's control as the officer considers would facilitate the exercise of any power conferred by this section.
- (5) The powers conferred by this section may be exercised in any place to which the officer lawfully has access (whether or not it is a place to which the public has access).
- (6) In this section “vehicle” does not include any vessel or aircraft.
- (7) For provision conferring additional powers to enter and search vehicles, see section 39.

38 Power to board and search vessels or aircraft

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a police or customs officer has reasonable grounds to believe that there is relevant evidence in or on any vessel or aircraft, and
 - (b) the vessel or aircraft is not a dwelling.
- (2) The officer may at any time—
 - (a) board the vessel or aircraft, and
 - (b) search it for relevant evidence.
- (3) For the purposes of exercising the power conferred by subsection (2), the officer may require a vessel or aircraft—
 - (a) to stop, or
 - (b) to do anything else that will facilitate the boarding of that or any other vessel or aircraft.
- (4) A police or customs officer who has boarded a vessel or aircraft may, for the purposes of disembarking from the vessel or aircraft, require that or any other vessel or aircraft—
 - (a) to stop, or
 - (b) to do anything else that will enable the officer to disembark from the vessel or aircraft.
- (5) A police or customs officer may require any person on board a vessel or aircraft to afford such facilities and assistance with respect to matters under that person's control as the officer considers would facilitate the exercise of any power conferred by this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) For provision conferring additional powers to enter and search vessels and aircraft, see section 39.

39 Power to enter and search premises

- (1) Where a justice is satisfied that the requirements in subsection (4) are met in relation to any premises, the justice may issue a warrant (a “search warrant”) authorising a relevant enforcement officer—
- (a) to enter the premises, and
 - (b) to search them for relevant evidence.
- (2) A search warrant may be issued only on the application of—
- (a) a relevant enforcement officer, in England and Wales or Northern Ireland;
 - (b) a relevant enforcement officer or a procurator fiscal, in Scotland.
- (3) A search warrant may be either—
- (a) a warrant that relates only to premises specified in the warrant (a “specific-premises warrant”), or
 - (b) in the case of a warrant issued in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, a warrant that relates to any premises occupied or controlled by a person specified in the warrant (an “all-premises warrant”).
- (4) The requirements of this subsection are met in relation to premises if there are reasonable grounds to suspect that—
- (a) there are items on the premises that are relevant evidence, and
 - (b) in a case where the premises are specified in the application, any of the conditions in subsection (5) is met.
- (5) The conditions referred to in subsection (4)(b) are—
- (a) that it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises;
 - (b) that it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant access to the items;
 - (c) that entry to the premises is unlikely to be granted unless a warrant is produced;
 - (d) that the purpose of entry may be frustrated or seriously prejudiced unless a relevant enforcement officer arriving at the premises can secure immediate entry to them.
- (6) In this Act “relevant enforcement officer” means—
- (a) a police or customs officer (see section 36(4)), or
 - (b) an officer of a local authority.

40 Further provision about search warrants

- (1) An application for a search warrant may be made without notice being given to persons who might be affected by the warrant.
- (2) The application must be supported—
- (a) in England and Wales, by an information in writing;
 - (b) in Scotland, by evidence on oath;

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

(c) in Northern Ireland, by a complaint on oath.

(3) A person applying for a search warrant must answer on oath any question that the justice hearing the application asks the person.

In the case of an application made by a procurator fiscal, that requirement may be met by a relevant enforcement officer.

(4) A search warrant may be executed by any relevant enforcement officer.

(5) A search warrant may authorise persons to accompany any relevant enforcement officer who is executing it.

(6) A person authorised under subsection (5) to accompany a relevant enforcement officer may exercise any power conferred by sections 39 to 45 which the officer may exercise as a result of the warrant.

But the person may exercise such a power only in the company of, and under the supervision of, a relevant enforcement officer.

(7) Schedule 3 contains further provision about—

- (a) applications for search warrants made in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, and
- (b) search warrants issued in England and Wales or Northern Ireland.

(8) An entry on or search of premises under a search warrant issued in England and Wales or Northern Ireland is unlawful unless it complies with the provisions of Part 3 of that Schedule (execution of search warrants).

41 Powers of examination, etc

(1) This section applies where a relevant enforcement officer is exercising a power of search conferred by section 37, 38 or 39 in relation to any premises.

(2) The officer may examine anything that is in or on the premises.

(3) The officer may carry out any measurement or test of anything which the officer has power under this section to examine.

(4) The power conferred by subsection (3) includes power to take a sample from any live plant.

(5) For the purpose of exercising—

- (a) a power of search conferred by section 37, 38 or 39, or
- (b) any power conferred by this section,

the officer may, so far as is reasonably necessary for that purpose, break open any container or other locked thing.

(6) The officer may require any person in or on the premises to afford such facilities and assistance with respect to matters under that person's control as the officer considers would facilitate the exercise of—

- (a) a power of search conferred by section 37, 38 or 39, or
- (b) any power conferred by this section.

(7) Nothing in this section confers any power to search a person.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

42 Power to require production of documents, etc

- (1) This section applies where a relevant enforcement officer is exercising a power of search conferred by section 37, 38 or 39 in relation to any premises.
- (2) The officer may require any person in or on the premises to produce any document or record that is in the person's possession or control.
- (3) A reference in this section to the production of a document includes a reference to the production of—
 - (a) a hard copy of information recorded otherwise than in hard copy form, or
 - (b) information in a form from which a hard copy can be readily obtained.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) information is recorded in hard copy form if it is recorded in a paper copy or similar form capable of being read (and references to hard copy have a corresponding meaning);
 - (b) information can be read only if—
 - (i) it can be read with the naked eye, or
 - (ii) to the extent that it consists of images (for example photographs, pictures, maps, plans or drawings), it can be seen with the naked eye.

43 Powers of seizure, etc

- (1) A police or customs officer who is exercising the power of search conferred by section 36 may seize and detain anything found in the course of the search.
- (2) This subsection applies where a relevant enforcement officer—
 - (a) is exercising a power of search conferred by section 37, 38 or 39 in relation to any premises, or
 - (b) is otherwise lawfully on premises.
- (3) Where subsection (2) applies, the officer may—
 - (a) seize and detain or remove any item found on the premises;
 - (b) take copies of or extracts from any document or record found on the premises.
- (4) A relevant enforcement officer to whom any document or record has been produced in accordance with a requirement imposed under section 42 may—
 - (a) seize and detain or remove that document or record;
 - (b) take copies of or extracts from that document or record.

In this subsection “document” includes anything falling within paragraph (a) or (b) of section 42(3).
- (5) The powers under this section may only be exercised—
 - (a) for the purposes of determining whether an offence under any of sections 4 to 9 or section 26 has been committed, or
 - (b) in relation to an item which a relevant enforcement officer reasonably believes to be—
 - (i) relevant evidence, or
 - (ii) a psychoactive substance (whether or not it is relevant evidence).

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Nothing in this section confers power on a relevant enforcement officer to seize an item which is an excluded item (see section 44).

44 Excluded items

- (1) This section defines what is meant by “excluded items” for the purposes of section 43.
- (2) In England and Wales “excluded items” means—
- (a) items subject to legal privilege, within the meaning of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (see section 10 of that Act);
 - (b) excluded material, within the meaning of that Act (see section 11 of that Act);
 - (c) special procedure material, within the meaning of that Act (see section 14 of that Act).
- (3) In Scotland “excluded items” means items in respect of which a claim to confidentiality of communications could be maintained in legal proceedings.
- (4) In Northern Ireland “excluded items” means—
- (a) items subject to legal privilege, within the meaning of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (S.I. 1989/1341 (N.I. 12)) (see Article 12 of that Order);
 - (b) excluded material, within the meaning of that Order (see Article 13 of that Order);
 - (c) special procedure material, within the meaning of that Order (see Article 16 of that Order).

45 Further provision about seizure under section 43

- (1) Where—
- (a) any items which a relevant enforcement officer wishes to seize and remove are in a container, and
 - (b) the officer reasonably considers that it would facilitate the seizure and removal of the items if they remained in the container for that purpose,
- any power to seize and remove the items conferred by section 43 includes power to seize and remove the container.
- (2) If a container is seized under this section, reasonable efforts must be made to return it to—
- (a) the person from whom it was seized, or
 - (b) (if different) a person to whom it belongs.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply—
- (a) if the container appears to be of negligible value,
 - (b) if it is not practicable for the container to be returned, or
 - (c) while the container is or may be needed for use as evidence at a trial for an offence.
- (4) If, in the opinion of a relevant enforcement officer, it is not for the time being practicable for the officer to seize and remove any item, the officer may require—
- (a) the person from whom the item is being seized, or

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

(b) where the officer is exercising a power of search conferred by section 37, 38 or 39 in relation to any premises, any person in or on the premises, to secure that the item is not removed or otherwise interfered with until such time as the officer may seize and remove it.

46 Notices and records in relation to seized items

- (1) This section applies where a relevant enforcement officer, or a person accompanying a relevant enforcement officer, seizes any item under section 43.
- (2) When the item is seized, the officer must make reasonable efforts to give written notice to each of the following persons—
 - (a) in the case of an item seized from a person, the person from whom the item was seized;
 - (b) in the case of an item seized from premises, any person who appears to the officer to be the occupier of the premises or otherwise to be in charge of the premises;
 - (c) if the officer thinks that the item may belong to any person not falling within paragraph (a) or (b), that other person.

A person falling within any of paragraphs (a) to (c) is referred to in this section as an “affected person”.

- (3) If—
 - (a) the item is seized from premises, and
 - (b) at the time of the seizure it is not reasonably practicable to give a notice to any affected person, the officer must leave a copy of the notice in a prominent place on the premises.
- (4) The notice must—
 - (a) state what has been seized and the reason for its seizure;
 - (b) specify any offence which the officer believes has been committed;
 - (c) explain the effect of sections 49 to 51 and 53.
- (5) The officer must make a record of what has been seized.
- (6) If a person who appears to a relevant enforcement officer to be an affected person asks for a copy of that record, the officer must, within a reasonable time, provide a copy of that record to that person.

47 Powers of entry, search and seizure: supplementary provision

- (1) A relevant enforcement officer may use reasonable force, if necessary, for the purpose of exercising any power conferred by sections 36 to 45.
- (2) A person authorised under section 40(5) to accompany a relevant enforcement officer may use reasonable force, if necessary, for the purpose of exercising any power conferred by sections 39 to 45.
- (3) The powers conferred on a relevant enforcement officer by any of sections 36 to 45 do not affect any powers exercisable by the officer apart from that section.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

48 Offences in relation to enforcement officers

- (1) A person commits an offence if, without reasonable excuse, the person intentionally obstructs a relevant enforcement officer in the performance of any of the officer's functions under sections 36 to 45.
- (2) A person commits an offence if—
 - (a) the person fails without reasonable excuse to comply with a requirement reasonably made, or a direction reasonably given, by a relevant enforcement officer in the exercise of any power conferred by sections 37 to 45, or
 - (b) the person prevents any other person from complying with any such requirement or direction.
- (3) In this section any reference to a relevant enforcement officer includes a reference to a person authorised under section 40(5) to accompany a relevant enforcement officer.
- (4) A person who is guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to either or both of the following—
 - (i) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 51 weeks (or 6 months, if the offence was committed before the commencement of section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003);
 - (ii) a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, to either or both of the following—
 - (i) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months;
 - (ii) a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale;
 - (c) on summary conviction in Northern Ireland, to either or both of the following—
 - (i) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months;
 - (ii) a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

Retention and disposal of items

49 Retention of seized items

- (1) This section applies to any item seized under section 43.
- (2) The item may be retained so long as is necessary in all the circumstances and in particular—
 - (a) for use as evidence at a trial for an offence under this Act, or
 - (b) for forensic examination or for investigation in connection with an offence under this Act.
- (3) No item may be retained for either of the purposes mentioned in subsection (2) if a photograph or a copy would be sufficient for that purpose.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

50 Power of police, etc to dispose of seized psychoactive substances

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a police or customs officer has seized an item found during the course of a search under section 36, 37 or 38,
 - (b) the search was carried out in a place to which the officer lawfully had access without a warrant (whether issued under this Act or under any other enactment),
 - (c) the officer reasonably believes that the item—
 - (i) is a psychoactive substance which, if it had not been seized, was likely to be consumed by an individual for its psychoactive effects, but
 - (ii) is not evidence of any offence under this Act, and
 - (d) the officer has no reason to believe that, at the time of the seizure, the item was being used for the purposes of, or in connection with, an exempted activity carried on by a person entitled to the item.
- (2) The officer may dispose of the item in whatever way the officer thinks is suitable.
- (3) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) an activity is an “exempted activity” in relation to a person if the carrying on of the activity by that person would not be an offence under this Act by virtue of section 11;
 - (b) the persons “entitled” to an item are—
 - (i) the person from whom it was seized;
 - (ii) (if different) any person to whom it belongs.
- (4) In this section “enactment” includes—
 - (a) an enactment contained in subordinate legislation;
 - (b) an enactment contained in, or in an instrument made under, an Act of the Scottish Parliament;
 - (c) an enactment contained in, or in an instrument made under, a Measure or Act of the National Assembly for Wales;
 - (d) an enactment contained in, or in an instrument made under, Northern Ireland legislation.

51 Forfeiture of seized items by court on application

- (1) A relevant enforcement officer may apply to the appropriate court for the forfeiture of an item retained under section 49.
- (2) Where an application for the forfeiture of an item is made under this section, the item is to be retained while proceedings on the application are in progress.
- (3) If the court is satisfied that—
 - (a) the item is a psychoactive substance which, if it had not been seized, was likely to be consumed by an individual for its psychoactive effects, and
 - (b) at the time of its seizure, the item was not being used for the purposes of, or in connection with, an exempted activity (see subsection (12)) carried on by a person entitled to the item,the court must order the forfeiture of the item.

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) If the item is not a psychoactive substance, the court may order the forfeiture of the item if satisfied that it has been used in the commission of an offence under this Act.
- (5) Where an order for forfeiture of an item is made under subsection (3) or (4), the item may be disposed of in whatever way the officer who applied for the order, or another relevant enforcement officer acting on behalf of the same person as that officer, thinks is suitable.
- (6) But the item may not be disposed of under subsection (5)—
- (a) before the end of the period within which an appeal under section 52 may be made against the order, or
 - (b) if such an appeal is made, before it is determined or otherwise dealt with.
- (7) If either subsection (8) or (9) applies in relation to an item, the court must order the item to be returned to a person entitled to it.
- (For provision enabling an application for an order under this subsection to be made, see section 53.)
- (8) This subsection applies in relation to an item if the court is not satisfied that the item—
- (a) is a psychoactive substance, or
 - (b) has been used in the commission of an offence under this Act.
- (9) This subsection applies in relation to an item if—
- (a) the item is a psychoactive substance, and
 - (b) the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) if the item had not been seized, it was not likely to be consumed by any individual for its psychoactive effects, or
 - (ii) at the time of its seizure, the item was being used for the purposes of, or in connection with, an exempted activity carried on by a person entitled to the item.
- (10) Where an order for the return of an item is made under subsection (7), the item may nevertheless be retained—
- (a) until the end of the period within which an appeal under section 52 may be made against the order, or
 - (b) if such an appeal is made, until the time when it is determined or otherwise dealt with.
- But if it is decided before the end of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) that there is to be no appeal, the item must be returned as soon as possible after that decision is made.
- (11) In this section “the appropriate court” means—
- (a) in relation to England and Wales—
 - (i) where the person in respect of whom the application is made is an individual who is under the age of 18, a youth court, and
 - (ii) in any other case, a magistrates' court;
 - (b) in relation to Scotland, the sheriff;
 - (c) in relation to Northern Ireland—

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

(i) where the person in respect of whom the application is made is an individual who is under the age of 18, a youth court, and

(ii) in any other case, a court of summary jurisdiction.

(12) For the purposes of this section—

(a) an activity is an “exempted activity” in relation to a person if the carrying on of the activity by that person would not be an offence under this Act by virtue of section 11;

(b) the persons “entitled” to an item are—

(i) the person from whom it was seized;

(ii) (if different) any person to whom it belongs.

52 Appeal against decision under section 51

(1) Where an order has been made under section 51, each of the following persons may appeal against the order—

(a) any party to the proceedings in which the order was made;

(b) any other person entitled to the item to which the order relates.

(2) Where—

(a) a relevant enforcement officer brings an appeal under this section, and

(b) no person entitled to the item in question was a party to the original proceedings, the officer must make reasonable efforts to give notice of the appeal to every person who the officer thinks is or may be entitled to the item.

(3) An appeal under this section is to—

(a) the Crown Court, in England and Wales;

(b) the Sheriff Appeal Court, in Scotland;

(c) a county court, in Northern Ireland.

(4) An appeal under this section against an order must be made before the end of the period of 28 days starting with the date of the order.

(5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), the court hearing the appeal may make any order the court thinks appropriate.

(6) If an appeal against an order for the return of an item is allowed—

(a) the court must order the item to be forfeited, and

(b) subsections (5) and (6) of section 51 apply with the necessary adaptations.

(7) If an appeal against an order forfeiting an item is allowed—

(a) the court must order the item to be returned to a person entitled to it, and

(b) subsection (10) of section 51 applies with the necessary adaptations.

(8) The persons “entitled” to an item for the purposes of this section are—

(a) the person from whom it was seized;

(b) (if different) any person to whom it belongs.

53 Return of item to person entitled to it, or disposal if return impracticable

(1) Where the retention of an item has been, but is no longer, authorised under this Act—

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the item must be returned to a person entitled to it (but see subsection (4));
 - (b) the appropriate court must, if asked to do so by a person entitled to the item, order it to be returned to that person.
- (2) A person who claims to be entitled to an item retained under this Act may apply to the appropriate court for an order under subsection (1)(b) or section 51(7) (as appropriate).
- (3) Where—
- (a) a court makes an order under this Act requiring an item to be returned to a particular person, and
 - (b) reasonable efforts have been made, without success, to find that person, or it is for some other reason impracticable to return the item to that person,
- the order has effect as if it required the item to be returned to any person entitled to it.
- (4) Where—
- (a) an item is required by a provision of this Act, or an order made under this Act, to be returned to a person entitled to it, and
 - (b) reasonable efforts have been made, without success, to find a person entitled to the item, or it is for some other reason impracticable to return the item to a person entitled to it,
- a relevant enforcement officer may dispose of the item in whatever way the officer thinks is suitable.
- (5) In this section “the appropriate court” means—
- (a) in relation to England and Wales—
 - (i) where the person making the application is an individual who is under the age of 18, a youth court, and
 - (ii) in any other case, a magistrates' court;
 - (b) in relation to Scotland, the sheriff;
 - (c) in relation to Northern Ireland—
 - (i) where the person making the application is an individual who is under the age of 18, a youth court, and
 - (ii) in any other case, a court of summary jurisdiction.
- (6) The persons “entitled” to an item for the purposes of this section are—
- (a) the person from whom it was seized;
 - (b) (if different) any person to whom it belongs.

54 Forfeiture by court following conviction

- (1) This section applies where a person is convicted of—
- (a) an offence under any of sections 4 to 9 and 26, or
 - (b) an ancillary offence (see subsection (11)).
- (2) In this section “the court” means—
- (a) the court by or before which the person is convicted of the offence, except where paragraph (b) or (c) applies;
 - (b) if the person is committed to the Crown Court to be dealt with for that offence, the Crown Court;

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) if the person is remitted to the High Court of Justiciary to be dealt with for that offence, the High Court of Justiciary.
- (3) The court must make an order for the forfeiture of any psychoactive substance in respect of which the offence was committed.
- (4) The court may also make an order for the forfeiture of any other item that was used in the commission of the offence.
- (5) An order under subsection (3) or (4) is referred to in this section as a “forfeiture order”.
- (6) Before making a forfeiture order under subsection (4) in relation to any item, the court must give an opportunity to make representations to any person (in addition to the convicted person) who claims to be the owner of the item or otherwise to have an interest in it.
- (7) A forfeiture order may not be made so as to come into force at any time before there is no further possibility (ignoring any power to appeal out of time) of the order being varied or set aside on appeal.
- (8) Where the court makes a forfeiture order, it may also make such other provision as it considers to be necessary for giving effect to the forfeiture.
- (9) That provision may, in particular, include provision relating to the retention, handling, destruction or other disposal of the item.
- (10) Provision made by virtue of this section may be varied at any time by the court that made it.
- (11) In this section “ancillary offence” means—
- (a) an offence of attempting or conspiring to commit an offence under any of sections 4 to 9 and 26;
 - (b) an offence under Part 2 of the Serious Crime Act 2007 in relation to an offence under any of sections 4 to 9 and 26;
 - (c) an offence of inciting a person to commit an offence under any of sections 4 to 9 and 26;
 - (d) an offence of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of an offence under any of sections 4 to 9 and 26.

Supplementary and final provisions

VALID FROM 26/05/2016

55 Application of Customs and Excise Management Act 1979

- (1) Section 164 of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 (power to search persons) applies in relation to a psychoactive substance as it applies in relation to an article with respect to the importation or exportation of which any prohibition or restriction is for the time being in force under or by virtue of any enactment.
- (2) A psychoactive substance is liable to forfeiture under the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 if—

Status: Point in time view as at 28/01/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the psychoactive substance—
 - (i) is imported or exported, or
 - (ii) is entered for exportation or brought to any place in the United Kingdom for exportation,
 - (b) the psychoactive substance is likely to be consumed by any individual for its psychoactive effects, and
 - (c) the importation or (as the case may be) exportation of the psychoactive substance is not an exempted activity.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) the importation or exportation of a psychoactive substance is an “exempted activity” if it would not be an offence under this Act by virtue of section 11.
