- (a) the person appointed under subsection (1) must notify the Secretary of State of what (if any) reviews under that subsection that person intends to carry out in that year, and
 - (b) the person appointed under subsection (2) must notify the Treasury of what (if any) reviews under that subsection that person intends to carry out in that year.
- (5) Reviews of which notice is given under subsection (4) in a particular year—
- (a) may not relate to any provisions that have not been referred before the giving of the notice, and
 - (b) must be completed during that year or as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of it.
- (6) The person who conducts a review under this section must as soon as reasonably practicable after completing the review send a report on its outcome to—
- (a) the Secretary of State, if the review is under subsection (1), or
 - (b) the Treasury, if the review is under subsection (2).
- (7) On receiving a report under this section the Secretary of State or (as the case may be) the Treasury must lay a copy of it before Parliament.
- (8) The Secretary of State may pay the expenses of a person who conducts a review under subsection (1) and also such allowances as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (9) The Treasury may pay the expenses of a person who conducts a review under subsection (2) and also such allowances as the Treasury may determine.
- (10) For the purposes of this section, regulations are “relevant regulations” if—
- (a) they are regulations under section 1, and
 - (b) they state under section 1(3) at least one purpose which—
 - (i) is not compliance with a UN obligation or other international obligation, and
 - (ii) relates to counter-terrorism.
- (11) A purpose “relates to counter-terrorism” if the report under section 2 in respect of the regulations indicated that, in the opinion of the appropriate Minister making them, the carrying out of that purpose would further the prevention of terrorism in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.
- (12) For the purposes of this section a provision of relevant regulations is an “asset-freeze provision” if and to the extent that it—
- (a) imposes a prohibition or requirement for a purpose mentioned in section 3(1)(a), (b) or (d), or
 - (b) makes provision in connection with such a prohibition or requirement.
- (13) If a provision is referred under this section which contains a designation power, any review under this section of the operation of that provision may not include a review of any decisions to designate under that power.

32 Periodic reports on exercise of power to make regulations under section 1

- (1) The Secretary of State must as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each reporting period lay before Parliament a report which—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) specifies the regulations under section 1, if any, that were made in that reporting period,
 - (b) identifies which, if any, of those regulations—
 - (i) stated a relevant human rights purpose, or
 - (ii) amended or revoked regulations stating such a purpose,
 - (c) specifies any recommendations which in that reporting period were made by a Parliamentary Committee in connection with a relevant independent review, and
 - (d) includes a copy of any response to those recommendations which was made by the government to that Committee in that reporting period.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1)(d) requires a report under this section to contain anything the disclosure of which may, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, damage national security or international relations.
- (3) For the purposes of this section the following are reporting periods—
- (a) the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this Act is passed (“the first reporting period”), and
 - (b) each period of 12 months that ends with an anniversary of the date when the first reporting period ends.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) regulations “state” a purpose if the purpose is stated under section 1(3) in the regulations;
 - (b) a purpose is a “relevant human rights purpose” if, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, carrying out that purpose would provide accountability for or be a deterrent to gross violations of human rights.
- (5) In this section—
- “the government” means the government of the United Kingdom;
 - “gross violation of human rights” has the meaning given by section 1(7);
 - a “Parliamentary Committee” means a committee of the House of Commons or a committee of the House of Lords or a joint committee of both Houses;
 - a “relevant independent review”, in relation to a Parliamentary Committee, means a consideration by that Committee of whether the power to make regulations under section 1 should be exercised in connection with a gross violation of human rights.

Procedure for requests to, and reviews by, appropriate Minister

33 Procedure for requests to, and reviews by, appropriate Minister

- (1) An appropriate Minister may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with a request under section 23, 25, 27 or 29 or a review under section 24, 28 or 30.
- (2) Regulations made under this section in relation to a request under section 23, 25, 27 or 29 must require—

- (a) the decision on any such request to be made as soon as reasonably practicable after the receipt by the appropriate Minister dealing with the request of the information needed for making the decision, and
 - (b) the person who made the request to be informed of the decision and the reasons for it as soon as reasonably practicable after the decision is made.
- (3) The regulations may authorise matters to be excluded from the reasons given for the decision where the appropriate Minister who made the decision considers that those matters should be excluded—
- (a) in the interests of national security or international relations,
 - (b) for reasons connected with the prevention or detection of serious crime in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, or
 - (c) in the interests of justice,
- (but the regulations may not authorise that Minister to provide no reasons).

CHAPTER 3

TEMPORARY POWERS IN RELATION TO EU SANCTIONS LISTS

34 Temporary powers in relation to EU sanctions lists

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a provision of retained EU sanctions law relates to persons named in any Annex, instrument or other document, or
 - (b) a provision of an instrument made by the Council of the European Union (however expressed) requires or recommends that persons named, or of a description specified, in that instrument or any other document must not or should not be admitted to the United Kingdom (see section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971).
- (2) An Annex, instrument or other document mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) is an “EU sanctions list” for the purposes of this section.
- (3) An appropriate Minister may, in respect of any EU sanctions list—
- (a) direct that a person’s name is to be treated as added to the list with effect from a date specified in the direction, or
 - (b) direct that a person’s name is to be treated as removed from the list with effect from a date specified in the direction.
- (4) The giving of a direction under paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (3) does not prevent the giving of any subsequent direction under either of those paragraphs in respect of the same person.
- (5) The power to give a direction under this section is not exercisable after two years beginning with the day on which this section comes into force.
- (6) In this section “a provision of retained EU sanctions law” means a provision of retained EU law which corresponds to any provision that by virtue of any of sections 3 and 5 to 7 could be made by regulations under section 1 in relation to designated persons.
- (7) Section 35 makes further provision about directions under this section.

35 Directions under section 34: further provision

- (1) An appropriate Minister may not under section 34 direct that a person's name is to be treated as added to an EU sanctions list except where that Minister—
 - (a) has reasonable grounds to suspect that the person is an involved person (see subsections (2) and (3) below), and
 - (b) considers that it is appropriate to give the direction, having regard to—
 - (i) the purpose of the EU provision which relates to persons in that list (see subsections (4) and (5) below), and
 - (ii) the likely significant effects of the direction on the person to whom it relates (as they appear to that Minister to be on the basis of the information that the Minister has).
- (2) In subsection (1)(a) “an involved person” means a person who—
 - (a) is or has been involved in an activity which is specified, by regulations made by an appropriate Minister, in relation to the list in question,
 - (b) is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by a person who is or has been so involved,
 - (c) is acting on behalf of or at the direction of a person who is or has been so involved, or
 - (d) is a member of, or associated with, a person who is or has been so involved.
- (3) An activity may not be specified by regulations under subsection (2)(a) unless the appropriate Minister making the regulations considers that specifying the activity is appropriate having regard to the purpose of the EU provision which relates to persons in the list in question.
- (4) In subsections (1) and (3) any reference to the “purpose” of any EU provision is to such purpose, or purposes, as may be prescribed in relation to that provision by regulations made by an appropriate Minister.
- (5) Any purpose prescribed under subsection (4) must be a purpose that it is reasonable to assume was the purpose (or one of the purposes) of the provision in question.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (2)(a) which specify an activity may also make provision as to the meaning, for the purposes of subsection (2) as it applies in relation to the list in question, of a person's—
 - (a) being involved in the specified activity;
 - (b) being “owned or controlled directly or indirectly by” another person;
 - (c) being “associated with” another person.
- (7) Regulations made by an appropriate Minister may make provision as to the steps to be taken as regards notification and publicity where a direction is given under section 34.
- (8) Regulations made under subsection (7) must, in relation to any case where a direction under section 34 has been given, require the appropriate Minister who gave the direction (“the Minister”) to take without delay such steps as are reasonably practicable—
 - (a) to inform the person to whom it relates that the direction has been given, and
 - (b) where the direction is under section 34(3)(a), to include with that information a brief statement of the matters that the Minister knows, or has reasonable grounds to suspect, in relation to that person which have led the Minister to give the direction.

- (9) The regulations may authorise the statement required by virtue of subsection (8)(b) to exclude matters where the Minister considers that they should be excluded—
- (a) in the interests of national security or international relations,
 - (b) for reasons connected with the prevention or detection of serious crime in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, or
 - (c) in the interests of justice,
- (but the regulations may not authorise the Minister to provide no such statement).
- (10) The regulations need not require a person to be notified of an intention to make a direction under section 34.
- (11) In this section—
- “EU sanctions list” has the same meaning as in section 34;
- “EU provision” means—
- (a) a provision of retained EU sanctions law (within the meaning of section 34), or
 - (b) a provision of an instrument made by the Council of the European Union.

36 Rights of person on EU sanctions list

- (1) A person whose name is included, or treated as included, in an EU sanctions list may make a request for a direction under section 34(3)(b) that the person’s name be treated as removed from the list.
- This is subject to section 37 (UN-named persons).
- (2) Any request under this section must be made—
- (a) if the person is treated as included in the list by virtue of a direction under section 34(3)(a), to the appropriate Minister who gave that direction;
 - (b) in any other case, to an appropriate Minister.
- (3) Where a request under this section has been made for a direction in respect of a person and a list, no further request may be made under this section in respect of that person and that list unless the grounds on which the further request is made are or include that there is a significant matter which has not previously been considered.
- (4) On a request under this section the appropriate Minister to whom the request is made must decide whether or not to comply with the request.
- (5) An appropriate Minister may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with a request under this section or section 37.
- (6) Regulations made under subsection (5) in relation to a request under this section or section 37 must require—
- (a) the decision on any such request to be made as soon as reasonably practicable after the receipt by the appropriate Minister dealing with the request of the information needed for making the decision, and
 - (b) the person who made the request to be informed of the decision and the reasons for it as soon as reasonably practicable after the decision is made.
- (7) The regulations may authorise matters to be excluded from the reasons given for the decision where the appropriate Minister who made the decision considers that those matters should be excluded—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) in the interests of national security or international relations,
 - (b) for reasons connected with the prevention or detection of serious crime in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, or
 - (c) in the interests of justice,
- (but the regulations may not authorise that Minister to provide no reasons).
- (8) In this section “EU sanctions list” has the same meaning as in section 34.

37 Rights of UN-named person on EU sanctions list

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a person whose name is included or treated as included in an EU sanctions list is a person in relation to whom, by virtue of a UN Security Council Resolution (“the Resolution”), the United Kingdom has an obligation to take particular measures, and
 - (b) that obligation is met by—
 - (i) provision mentioned in section 34(1)(a) which relates to that EU sanctions list, or
 - (ii) the application to the person, by virtue of that EU sanctions list, of any provision of section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971.
- (2) The person—
- (a) may not make a request under section 36 in respect of the EU sanctions list concerned, but
 - (b) may at any relevant time make a request under this section for the Secretary of State to use the Secretary of State’s best endeavours to secure that the person’s name is removed from the relevant UN list.
- (3) Where a person has made a request under this section by virtue of being on an EU sanctions list, the person may make no further request under this section by virtue of being on that list unless the grounds on which the further request is made are or include that there is a significant matter which has not previously been considered by the Secretary of State.
- (4) On a request under this section the Secretary of State must decide whether or not to comply with the request.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a person’s name is “removed from the relevant UN list” if the person ceases to be named (by the Security Council or a subsidiary organ of the Security Council) for the purposes of the Resolution so far as it provides for the taking of the measures in question.
- (6) In subsection (2) a “relevant time” means a time when no provision of regulations under section 1 has been made the purpose (or a purpose) of which is compliance with the United Kingdom’s obligation to take the measures in question.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (3) a person is “on” an EU sanctions list if the person’s name is included or treated as included in that list.
- (8) In this section “EU sanctions list” has the same meaning as in section 34.

CHAPTER 4

 - (c) in relation to a decision within subsection (1)(c), the person who made the request.
- (4) In determining whether the decision should be set aside, the court must apply the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.
- (5) If the court decides that a decision should be set aside it may make any such order, or give any such relief, as could in the absence of this section be made or given in proceedings for judicial review of the decision; but this is subject to section 39(1) to (4).
- (6) In this section and section 39 “a ship specification” means a specification of a ship made under a power contained in regulations under section 1 by virtue of section 14.

 - (iii) a corrective direction is given under section 34(3)(b) without such an application being made,any proceedings on a relevant claim.
- (2) If the court would, in the absence of this subsection, have power to award damages, the court may not award damages unless—
- (a) the reason (or one of the reasons) that the court would have that power is that it is satisfied that the tort of negligence was committed, or, in Scotland, that there has been negligence, or
 - (b) the court is satisfied that the decision concerned was made in bad faith.
- (3) In subsection (1)(c)—
- a “corrective direction” means a direction given in respect of a person and a list following the giving of a direction under section 34(3)(a) in respect of that person and list;

- (1) Sections 66 to 68 of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 (supplementary provisions relating to rules of court and special advocates) apply in relation to proceedings—
 - (a) on an application under section 38 (court review of decisions), or
 - (b) on a claim arising from any matter to which such an application relates,as they apply in relation to financial restrictions proceedings within the meaning of section 65 of that Act, but with the following modification.
- (2) That modification is that any reference in those sections to the Treasury is to be read, in relation to proceedings on an application under section 38 of this Act in respect of a decision of the Secretary of State or a claim arising from any matter to which such an application relates, as a reference to the Secretary of State.

- (9) In calculating a period of 28 days for the purposes of subsection (8), no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (10) If rules cease to have effect in accordance with subsection (8)(b)—
 - (a) that does not affect anything done under the rules, and

CHAPTER 5

MISCELLANEOUS

41 Procedure for dealing with goods etc seized from ships

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the procedure to be followed in connection with goods seized under a power conferred by regulations under section 1 by virtue of section 19 or 20.
- (2) Regulations under this section relating to goods seized on suspicion of being prohibited goods or relevant goods may include provision—
- (a) requiring prescribed persons to be notified of the seizure of the goods;
 - (b) requiring the Secretary of State to determine whether the seized goods were, at the time of their seizure, prohibited goods (where the goods were seized under a power conferred by virtue of section 19) or relevant goods (where the goods were seized under a power conferred by virtue of section 20);
 - (c) enabling the making of a claim by prescribed persons in relation to the seized goods;
 - (d) about the determination by a prescribed court of any such claim;
 - (e) about the publicity to be given to any such determination by a court;
 - (f) for and about the return of seized goods to prescribed persons before or after any such determination of a claim by a court;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (g) about the treatment of seized goods not so returned (including, in prescribed circumstances, their destruction or sale);
- (h) for and about the payment of compensation by the Secretary of State following a determination by a court that the goods were not, at the time of their seizure, prohibited goods (where the goods were seized under a power conferred by virtue of section 19) or relevant goods (where the goods were seized under a power conferred by virtue of section 20).

(3) In this section—

“goods” has the same meaning as in sections 19 and 20 (see subsections (13) of those sections);

“prohibited goods” has the same meaning as in section 19 (see subsection (13) of that section);

“relevant goods” has the same meaning as in section 20 (see subsection (11) of that section).

42 Suspension of prohibitions and requirements

(1) An appropriate Minister may make regulations (“suspending regulations”) providing that—

- (a) while the suspending regulations have effect, or
- (b) for a specified period,

a specified prohibition or requirement of regulations under section 1 is not to have effect.

(2) In this section “specified” means specified in the suspending regulations.

(3) A period specified under subsection (1)(b) may be expressed in any way, including, for example, being expressed in a way such that—

- (a) the period begins, or ends, when a specified condition is met, or
- (b) the period begins when a specified condition is met and lasts for so long as the suspending regulations or a specified provision of those regulations has effect.

43 Guidance about regulations under section 1

(1) Where regulations are made under section 1, the appropriate Minister who made the regulations must issue guidance about any prohibitions and requirements imposed by the regulations.

(2) The guidance may include guidance about—

- (a) best practice for complying with the prohibitions and requirements;
- (b) the enforcement of the prohibitions and requirements;
- (c) circumstances where the prohibitions and requirements do not apply.

44 Protection for acts done for purposes of compliance

(1) This section applies to an act done in the reasonable belief that the act is in compliance with—

- (a) regulations under section 1, or
- (b) directions given by virtue of section 6 or 7.

- (2) A person is not liable to any civil proceedings to which that person would, in the absence of this section, have been liable in respect of the act.
- (3) In this section “act” includes an omission.

45 Revocation and amendment of regulations under section 1

- (1) Section 1 includes a power, by further regulations under that section (“new regulations”)—
 - (a) to revoke any regulations under that section, or
 - (b) to amend any regulations under that section where the condition in subsection (2) below is met.
- (2) The condition referred to in subsection (1)(b) is that the appropriate Minister making the new regulations—
 - (a) considers that the regulations being amended will, as amended, be sanctions regulations within the meaning given by section 1(5) that are appropriate for the purpose stated in them under section 1(3), and
 - (b) if any purpose stated in the regulations being amended is a purpose other than compliance with a UN obligation or other international obligation, considers in respect of each such purpose—
 - (i) that carrying out that purpose would meet one or more of the conditions in paragraphs (a) to (i) of section 1(2),
 - (ii) that there are good reasons to pursue that purpose, and
 - (iii) that the imposition of sanctions is a reasonable course of action for that purpose.
- (3) In subsection (2)(b)(iii) “sanctions” means prohibitions and requirements of the kinds imposed by the amended regulations for the purpose in question (or both for that purpose and for another purpose of those regulations).

In this subsection “the amended regulations” means the regulations being amended as those regulations will be when amended.

- (4) Except as permitted by subsection (5), the purpose stated under section 1(3) in any regulations under section 1 may not be amended (but this does not prevent regulations under that section from being revoked and replaced by regulations with a purpose that is to any extent different from that of the revoked regulations).
- (5) Where the purpose stated under section 1(3) in any regulations under section 1 is or includes compliance with a specified UN obligation or other international obligation, regulations made by virtue of this section may amend that purpose so as to—
 - (a) add a reference to a UN obligation, or other international obligation, to which the United Kingdom is for the time being subject,
 - (b) substitute such a reference for another reference to a UN obligation or other international obligation, or
 - (c) remove a reference to a UN obligation, or other international obligation, to which the United Kingdom is no longer subject.
- (6) The requirements of section 1(1) and (3), section 2 and section 30 do not apply in relation to regulations made by virtue of this section.

- (7) In relation to section 1, this section has effect in place of section 14 of the Interpretation Act 1978 (implied power to revoke and amend).

46 Report where regulations for a purpose within section 1(2) are amended

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) by virtue of section 45 regulations under section 1 are amended by further regulations under section 1 (“new regulations”), and
 - (b) the regulations being amended state under section 1(3) a purpose other than compliance with a UN obligation or other international obligation.
- (2) The appropriate Minister making the new regulations must at the required time lay before Parliament a report which explains why that Minister is of the opinion mentioned in section 45(2)(b).
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) requires the report to contain anything the disclosure of which may in the opinion of that Minister damage national security or international relations.
- (4) In subsection (2) “the required time” means—
- (a) where the new regulations are contained in a statutory instrument which is laid before Parliament after being made, the same time as the instrument is laid before Parliament;
 - (b) where a draft of a statutory instrument containing the new regulations is laid before Parliament, the same time as the draft is laid.

47 Power to amend Part 1 so as to authorise additional sanctions

- (1) An appropriate Minister may by regulations amend this Part so as to authorise regulations under section 1 to impose prohibitions or requirements of kinds—
- (a) which are not for the time being authorised by Chapter 1 (ignoring section 8), but
 - (b) which are kinds of prohibition or requirement that the United Kingdom—
 - (i) has any UN obligation or other international obligation to impose, or
 - (ii) has at any time had any UN obligation or other international obligation to impose.
