

Domestic Gas and Electricity (Tariff Cap) Act 2018

2018 CHAPTER 21

Consequential modification of conditions

10 Consequential modification of standard supply licence conditions

(1) The Authority may make such modifications of any standard supply licence conditions as it considers necessary or expedient in consequence of the tariff cap conditions ceasing to have effect [<sup>F1</sup>, in the case of all supply licences,] as provided by section 8.

[<sup>F2</sup>(1A) The Authority may make such modifications of any standard conditions incorporated in supply licences by virtue of section 8 of the Gas Act 1986 as it considers necessary or expedient in consequence of tariff cap conditions ceasing to have effect as provided by section 8 in the case only of supply licences for the supply of gas.

(1B) The Authority may make such modifications of any standard conditions incorporated in supply licences by virtue of section 8A of the Electricity Act 1989 as it considers necessary or expedient in consequence of tariff cap conditions ceasing to have effect as provided by section 8 in the case only of supply licences for the supply of electricity.]

(2) The Authority must—

- (a) publish [<sup>F3</sup>modifications made under this section] in such manner as it considers appropriate for the purpose of bringing them to the attention of persons likely to be affected by them, and
- (b) state the effect of the modifications.

(3) Each modification [<sup>F4</sup>made under this section] has effect from the day specified by the Authority in relation to it.
