2023 CHAPTER 50

PART 7

OFCOM'S POWERS AND DUTIES IN RELATION TO REGULATED SERVICES

CHAPTER 6

ENFORCEMENT POWERS

Provisional notices and confirmation decisions

130 Provisional notice of contravention

- (1) OFCOM may give a notice under this section (a “provisional notice of contravention”) relating to a regulated service to the provider of the service if they consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the provider has failed, or is failing, to comply with any enforceable requirement (see section 131) that applies in relation to the service.
- (2) OFCOM may also give a provisional notice of contravention to a person on either of the grounds in subsection (3).
- (3) The grounds are that—
 - (a) the person has been given an information notice and OFCOM consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with either of the duties set out in section 102(8) (duties in relation to information notices), or
 - (b) the person is required by a skilled person appointed under section 104 to give assistance to the skilled person, and OFCOM consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with the duty set out in subsection (7) of that section to give such assistance.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Online Safety Act 2023, Cross Heading: Provisional notices and confirmation decisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) A provisional notice of contravention given to a person must—
 - (a) specify the duty or requirement with which (in OFCOM's opinion) the person has failed, or is failing, to comply, and
 - (b) give OFCOM's reasons for their opinion that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with it.
- (5) A provisional notice of contravention may also contain details as mentioned in subsection (6) or (7), or both.
- (6) A provisional notice of contravention may specify steps that OFCOM consider the person needs to take in order to—
 - (a) comply with the duty or requirement, or
 - (b) remedy the failure to comply with it.
- (7) A provisional notice of contravention may state that OFCOM propose to impose a penalty on the person, and in such a case the notice must—
 - (a) state the reasons why OFCOM propose to impose a penalty,
 - (b) state whether OFCOM propose to impose a penalty of a single amount, a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate, or both penalties (see section 137(1)),
 - (c) indicate the amount of a penalty that OFCOM propose to impose, including (in relation to a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate) the daily rate and how the penalty would be calculated,
 - (d) in relation to a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate, specify or describe the period for which OFCOM propose that the penalty should be payable, and
 - (e) state the reasons for proposing a penalty of that amount, including any aggravating or mitigating factors that OFCOM propose to take into account.
- (8) A provisional notice of contravention given to a person must—
 - (a) state that the person may make representations to OFCOM (with any supporting evidence) about the matters contained in the notice, and
 - (b) specify the period within which such representations may be made.
- (9) A provisional notice of contravention may be given in respect of a failure to comply with more than one enforceable requirement.
- (10) Where a provisional notice of contravention is given in respect of a continuing failure, the notice may be given in respect of any period during which the failure has continued, and must specify that period.
- (11) Where a provisional notice of contravention is given to a person in respect of a failure to comply with a duty or requirement (“the first notice”), a further provisional notice of contravention in respect of a failure to comply with that same duty or requirement may be given to the person only—
 - (a) in respect of a separate instance of the failure after the first notice was given,
 - (b) where a period was specified in the first notice in accordance with subsection (10), in respect of the continuation of the failure after the end of that period, or
 - (c) if the first notice has been withdrawn (without a confirmation decision being given to the person in respect of the failure).

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Online Safety Act 2023, Cross Heading: Provisional notices and confirmation decisions. (See end of Document for details)

132 Confirmation decisions

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) OFCOM have given a provisional notice of contravention to a person in relation to a failure to comply with a duty or requirement (or with duties or requirements), and
 - (b) the period allowed for representations has expired.

A duty or requirement to which the provisional notice of contravention relates is referred to in this section as a “notified requirement”.

- (2) If, after considering any representations and evidence, OFCOM decide not to give the person a notice under this section, they must inform the person of that fact.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Online Safety Act 2023, Cross Heading: Provisional notices and confirmation decisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) If OFCOM are satisfied that the person has failed, or has been failing, to comply with a notified requirement, OFCOM may give the person a notice under this section (a “confirmation decision”) confirming that that is OFCOM’s opinion.
- (4) A confirmation decision and a notice under section 121(1) may be given in respect of the same failure.
- (5) A confirmation decision given to a person may—
 - (a) require the person to take steps as mentioned in section 133;
 - (b) require the person to pay a penalty as mentioned in section 137;
 - (c) require the person to do both those things (or neither of them).
- (6) See sections 134 and 135 for further provision which a confirmation decision may include in cases of failure to comply with duties about risk assessments or children’s access assessments.

133 Confirmation decisions: requirements to take steps

- (1) A confirmation decision may require the person to whom it is given to take such steps as OFCOM consider appropriate (including steps relating to the use of a system or process) for either or both of the following purposes—
 - (a) complying with a notified requirement;
 - (b) remedying the failure to comply with a notified requirement.
- (2) But see section 136 in relation to OFCOM’s power to include in a confirmation decision requirements as described in subsection (1) relating to the use of proactive technology.
- (3) A confirmation decision may impose requirements as described in subsection (1) only in relation to the design or operation of a regulated service—
 - (a) in the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) as it affects United Kingdom users of the service.
- (4) A confirmation decision that includes requirements as described in subsection (1) must—
 - (a) specify the steps that are required,
 - (b) give OFCOM’s reasons for their decision to impose those requirements,
 - (c) specify which of those requirements (if any) have been designated as CSEA requirements (see subsections (6) and (7)),
 - (d) specify each notified requirement to which the steps relate,
 - (e) specify the period during which the failure to comply with a notified requirement has occurred, and whether the failure is continuing,
 - (f) specify a reasonable period within which each of the steps specified in the decision must be taken or, if a step requires the use of a system or process, a reasonable period within which the system or process must begin to be used (but see subsection (5) in relation to information duties),

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Online Safety Act 2023, Cross Heading: Provisional notices and confirmation decisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (g) (if relevant) specify the period for which a system or process must be used,
 - (h) contain details of the rights of appeal under section 168, and
 - (i) contain information about the consequences of not complying with the requirements included in the decision (including information about the further kinds of enforcement action that it would be open to OFCOM to take).
- (5) A confirmation decision that requires a person to take steps for the purpose of complying with an information duty may require the person to take those steps immediately.
- (6) If the condition in subsection (7) is met in relation to a requirement imposed by a confirmation decision which is of a kind described in subsection (1), OFCOM must designate the requirement as a “CSEA requirement” for the purposes of section 138(3) (offence of failure to comply with confirmation decision).
- (7) The condition referred to in subsection (6) is that the requirement is imposed (whether or not exclusively) in relation to either or both of the following—
- (a) a failure to comply with section 10(2)(a) or (3)(a) in respect of CSEA content, or in respect of priority illegal content which includes CSEA content;
 - (b) a failure to comply with section 10(2)(b) in respect of an offence specified in Schedule 6 (CSEA offences), or in respect of priority offences which include such an offence.

- (10) In this section—
- “CSEA content”, “priority illegal content” and “priority offence” have the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 59);
 - “information duty” means a duty set out in section 102(8);

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) OFCOM are satisfied that a provider of a Part 3 service has failed to comply with a risk assessment duty,
 - (b) based on evidence resulting from OFCOM’s investigation into that failure, OFCOM have identified a risk of serious harm to individuals in the United Kingdom arising from a particular aspect of the service (“the identified risk”), and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Online Safety Act 2023, Cross Heading: Provisional notices and confirmation decisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) OFCOM consider that the identified risk is not effectively mitigated or managed.
- (2) A confirmation decision given to the provider of the service—
 - (a) if the identified risk relates to matters required to be covered by an illegal content risk assessment, may include a determination that the duty set out in section 10(2)(b) or (c) or 27(2) (as the case may be) applies as if an illegal content risk assessment carried out by the provider had identified that risk;
 - (b) if the identified risk relates to matters required to be covered by a children's risk assessment, may include a determination that the duty set out in section 12(2)(a) or 29(2)(a) (as the case may be) applies as if a children's risk assessment carried out by the provider had identified that risk.
- (3) A confirmation decision which includes a determination as mentioned in subsection (2) must—
 - (a) give details of the identified risk,
 - (b) specify the duty to which the determination relates, and
 - (c) specify the date by which measures (at the provider's discretion) to comply with that duty must be taken or must begin to be used.
- (4) A determination as mentioned in subsection (2) ceases to have effect on the date on which the provider of the service complies with the risk assessment duty with which the provider had previously failed to comply (and accordingly, from that date the duty to which the determination relates applies without the modification mentioned in that subsection).
- (5) In this section—
 - “children's risk assessment” has the meaning given by section 11 or 28 (as the case may be);
 - “illegal content risk assessment” has the meaning given by section 9 or 26 (as the case may be);

- (3) OFCOM may vary a confirmation decision which includes a requirement as mentioned in subsection (2) to extend the deadline for completion of a children's access assessment.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if, based on evidence that OFCOM have about a service resulting from their investigation into compliance with a duty set out in section 36, OFCOM consider that—
 - (a) it is possible for children to access the service or a part of it, and
 - (b) the child user condition is met in relation to—
 - (i) the service, or
 - (ii) a part of the service that it is possible for children to access.
- (5) OFCOM may include in the confirmation decision given to the provider of the service—
 - (a) a determination that the duties set out in sections 11 and 12, or (as the case may be) sections 28 and 29, must be complied with—
 - (i) from the date of the confirmation decision, or

136 Confirmation decisions: proactive technology

- (1) This section sets out what powers OFCOM have to include in a confirmation decision a requirement to take steps to use a kind, or one of the kinds, of proactive technology specified in the decision (a “proactive technology requirement”).
- (2) A proactive technology requirement may be imposed in a confirmation decision if—
 - (a) the decision is given to the provider of an internet service within section 80(2), and
 - (b) the decision is imposed for the purpose of complying with, or remedying the failure to comply with, the duty set out in section 81(2) (provider pornographic content).
- (3) The following provisions of this section set out constraints on OFCOM's power to include a proactive technology requirement in a confirmation decision in any case not within subsection (2).
- (4) A proactive technology requirement may be imposed in a confirmation decision only if the decision is given to the provider of a Part 3 service.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Online Safety Act 2023, Cross Heading: Provisional notices and confirmation decisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) A proactive technology requirement may be imposed in a confirmation decision only for the purpose of complying with, or remedying the failure to comply with, any of the duties set out in—

 - (c) section 27(2) or (3) (illegal content),
 - (d) section 29(2) or (3) (children's online safety), or
 - (e) section 38(1) or 39(1) (fraudulent advertising).
- (6) Proactive technology may be required to be used on or in relation to any Part 3 service or any part of such a service, but if and to the extent that the technology operates (or may operate) by analysing content that is user-generated content in relation to the service, or metadata relating to such content, the technology may not be required to be used except to analyse—
- (a) user-generated content communicated publicly, and
 - (b) metadata relating to user-generated content communicated publicly.
- (7) Before imposing a proactive technology requirement in relation to a service in a confirmation decision, OFCOM must particularly consider the matters mentioned in subsection (8), so far as they are relevant.
- (8) The matters are as follows—
- (a) the kind of service it is;
 - (b) the functionalities of the service;
 - (c) the user base of the service;

 - (i) whether the use of any less intrusive measures than the proactive technology specified in the decision would be likely to result in compliance with, or would be likely to effectively remedy the failure to comply with, the duty in question.
- (9) A confirmation decision that imposes a proactive technology requirement on a provider may also impose requirements about review of the technology by the provider.
- (10) A confirmation decision relating to a service which requires the use of technology of a kind mentioned in subsection (6) must identify the content, or parts of the service

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Online Safety Act 2023, Cross Heading: Provisional notices and confirmation decisions. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The period specified under subsection (5)(e) for the payment of a single penalty must be at least 28 days beginning with the day on which the confirmation decision is given.
