

Marine Insurance Act 1906

1906 CHAPTER 41 6 Edw 7

WARRANTIES, &C.

35 Express warranties.

- (1) An express warranty may be in any form of words from which the intention to warrant is to be inferred.
- (2) An express warranty must be included in, or written upon, the policy, or must be contained in some document incorporated by reference into the policy.
- (3) An express warranty does not exclude an implied warranty, unless it be inconsistent therewith.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Insurance Act 1906, Section 35.