

Small Holdings and Allotments Act 1908

1908 CHAPTER 36 8 Edw 7

PART III

GENERAL

Acquisition of Land

43 Compensation for loss of employment by labourers.

Where a labourer, who has been regularly employed on any land acquired by a county council for small holdings, proves to the satisfaction of the county council that the effect of the acquisition was to deprive him of his employment, and that there was no employment of an equally beneficial character available to him in the same locality, the county council [<sup>F1</sup>shall] pay to him such compensation as they think just for his loss of employment or for his expenses in moving to another locality, and any sum so paid shall be treated as part of the expenses of the acquisition of the land.
