

Children and Young Persons (Scotland) Act 1937

1937 CHAPTER 37

PART IV

PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS IN RELATION TO CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

Refractory Children and Young Person

68 Power of parent or guardian to bring child or young person before juvenile court

Where the parent or guardian of a child or young person proves to a juvenile court that he is unable to control the child or young person, the court, if satisfied—

- (a) that it is expedient so to deal with the child or young person; and
- (b) that the parent, or guardian understands the results which will follow from and consents to the making of the order, may order the child or young person to be sent to an approved school, or may order him to be placed for a specified period, not exceeding three years, under the supervision of a probation officer or of some other person appointed for the purpose by the court :

Provided that an order that the child or young person be sent to an approved school shall not be made unless the education authority within whose area he is resident agree.

69 Power of poor law authority to bring child or young person before juvenile court

Where a poor law authority satisfy a juvenile court that any child or young person maintained in or boarded out from a school or other institution belonging to the authority is refractory, and that it is expedient that he should be sent to an approved school, the court may order him to be sent to such a school.
