

Public Records (Scotland) Act 1937

1937 CHAPTER 43

PART III

GENERAL

15 Repeal of obsolete provisions

The following provisions of the Public Records (Scotland) Act, 1809, that is to say, sections one to three, section eight, section eleven (so far as not already repealed), and section thirteen, and the following provisions of the Court of Session (Records) Act, 1815, that is to say, sections three and four, all of which provisions have, by lapse of time or otherwise, become unnecessary or obsolete, are hereby repealed.
