Commencement Information

- I1 Act wholly in force at 1.10.1962, see s. 9\(3\).

1 Power to promote adequate use of records.

- (1) A local authority may do all such things as appear to it necessary or expedient for enabling adequate use to be made of records under its control, and in relation to such records may in particular—
- make provision for enabling persons, with or without charge and subject to such conditions as the authority may determine, to inspect the records and to make or obtain copies thereof;
 - prepare, or procure or assist in the preparation of, indexes and guides to and calendars and summaries of the records;
 - publish, or procure or assist in the publication of, the records or any index or guide to or calendar or summary of the records;
 - hold exhibitions of the records and arrange for the delivery of explanatory lectures, with or without charging for admission to such exhibitions or lectures;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government (Records) Act 1962. (See end of Document for details)

- (e) direct that the records be temporarily entrusted to other persons for exhibition or study.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) above shall be taken to authorise the doing of any act which infringes copyright or contravenes conditions subject to which records are under the control of a local authority.

2 Acquisition and deposit of records.

- (1) A local authority to which this subsection applies may—
 - (a) by agreement acquire by way of purchase records which, or (in the case of a collection) the majority of which, appear to the authority to be of local interest;
 - (b) accept the gift of records which, or (in the case of a collection) the majority of which, appear to the authority to be of general or local interest.
- (2) A local authority to which this subsection applies may accept the deposit of records—
 - (a) which appear to the authority to be of general or local interest; or
 - (b) which are the subject of an arrangement made under subsection (4) below.
- (3) A local authority may accept the deposit of records authorised to be deposited with it by any enactment other than this section.
- (4) A local authority other than a parish council or parish meeting may arrange to deposit any records under its control with an authority to which subsections (1) and (2) above apply or, if [^{F1}the Secretary of State] consents, with any other person.
- (5) Where by virtue of this section records are under the control of a local authority in relation to which a provision of the following sections applies, namely, [^{F2}section two hundred and twenty four of the ^{M1}Local Government Act 1972], ^{F3}... (which sections regulate the custody of certain records) that provision shall apply as respects those records notwithstanding that apart from this subsection it would not so apply.
- [^{F4}(6) Subsections (1) and (2) above apply to the council of every country, [^{F5}county borough,] metropolitan district or London borough [^{F6}to the Common Council of the City of London,][^{F7}to the London Fire Commissioner,]^{F8}... ^{F9}..., to a joint authority established by Part IV of the Local Government Act 1985 [^{F10}, to an authority established under section 10 of that Act (waste regulation and disposal authorities)][^{F11}, to an economic prosperity board established under section 88 of the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009, to a combined authority established under section 103 of that Act [^{F12}, to a combined county authority established under section 9(1) of the Levelling-up and Regeneration Act 2023]] and to the council of any non-metropolitan district specified in an order made in that behalf by the Secretary of State.]
- [^{F13}(7) In the application of this section to the Common Council of the City of London 'local interest' shall be construed as if the area of the Council included the whole of Greater London.]
