Dark Smoke

1 Prohibition of dark smoke from chimneys. E+W+S

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, dark smoke shall not be emitted from a chimney of any building, and if, on any day, dark smoke is so emitted, the occupier of the building shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) Emissions of smoke from any chimney lasting for not longer than such periods as may be specified by the Minister by regulations shall, in such classes of case and subject to such limitations as may be so specified, be left out of account for the purposes of this section.
- (3) In any proceedings for an offence under this section, it shall be a defence to prove either—

Status: Point in time view as at 25/09/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Clean Air Act 1956 (repealed 27.8.1993). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) that the contravention complained of was solely due to the lighting up of a furnace which was cold and that all practicable steps had been taken to prevent or minimise the emission of dark smoke; or
- (b) that the contravention complained of was solely due to some failure of a furnace or of apparatus used in connection with a furnace, that that failure could not reasonably have been foreseen, or, if foreseen, could not reasonable have been provided against, and that the contravention could not reasonable have been prevented by action taken after the failure occurred; or
- (c) that the contravention complained of was solely due to the use of unsuitable fuel, that suitable fuel was unobtainable, that the least unsuitable fuel which was available was used and that all practicable steps had been taken to prevent or minimise the emission of dark smoke as the result of the use thereof; or
- (d) that the contravention complained of was due to the combination of two or more of the causes specified in paragraphs (a) to (c) of this subsection and that the other conditions specified in those paragraphs are satisfied in relation to those causes respectively.

(4) This section shall apply in relation to a chimney serving the furnace of any boiler or industrial plant (being a boiler or plant attached to a building or for the time being fixed to or installed on any land) as it applies in relation to a chimney of a building: Provided that in relation to any such chimney as aforesaid which is not a chimney of a building, the reference in this section to the occupier of the building shall be construed as a reference to the person having possession of the boiler or plant.

Smoke from furnaces

3 Requirement that new furnaces shall be so far as practicable smokeless. E+W+S

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, no furnace shall be installed in a building or in any boiler or industrial plant attached to a building or for the time being fixed to or installed on any land unless it is so far as practicable capable of being operated continuously without emitting smoke when burning fuel of a type for which the furnace was designed, and any person who installs a furnace in contravention of this subsection or on whose instructions a furnace is so installed shall be guilty of an offence:
 Provided that this subsection shall not apply to a furnace the installation of which has been begun, or an agreement for the purchase or installation of which has been entered into, before the appointed day.

Status: Point in time view as at 25/09/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Clean Air Act 1956 (repealed 27.8.1993). (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Any furnace installed in accordance with plans and specifications submitted to, and approved for the purposes of this section by, the local authority shall be deemed to comply with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section.
- (3) A furnace to which subsection (1) of this section applies shall not be installed in a building or in any such boiler or plant as is mentioned in the said subsection (1) unless notice of the proposal to install it has been given to the local authority, and any person who installs a furnace in contravention of this subsection or on whose instructions a furnace is so installed shall be guilty of an offence.
- (4) This section shall not apply to furnaces designed solely or mainly for use for domestic purposes, not being furnaces of boilers with a maximum heating capacity of fifty-five thousand or more British thermal units per hour.
- (5) This section shall apply in relation to the attachment to a building of a boiler or industrial plant which already contains a furnace or the fixing to or installation on any land of any such boiler or plant as it applies in relation to the installation of a furnace in any boiler or industrial plant attached to a building or for the time being fixed to or installed on any land.

7 Measurement of grit and dust emitted from furnaces. E+W+S

- (1) If a furnace in a building is used—
- (a) to burn pulverised fuel; or
  - [<sup>F7</sup>(b) to burn, at a rate of 100 pounds or more an hour, any other solid matter; or
  - (c) to burn, at a rate equivalent to 1¼ million or more British thermal units an hour, any liquid or gaseous matter;]
- ... <sup>F8</sup> the local authority may, by notice in writing served on the occupier of the building ... <sup>F8</sup> direct that the provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall apply to the furnace ... <sup>F8</sup> and those provisions shall apply accordingly:
- Provided that the local authority may, by a subsequent notice in writing served on the occupier of the building or land, revoke any direction given under this subsection, without prejudice, however, to their power to give another direction thereunder.
- (2) In the case of a furnace or oven to which this subsection is applied, the occupier of the building ... <sup>F8</sup> shall comply with such requirements as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Minister as to—

9 Grit and dust from outdoor furnaces, &c. E+W+S

The four last preceding sections shall apply in relation to the furnace of any boiler or industrial plant (being a boiler or plant attached to a building or for the time being fixed to or installed on any land) as they apply in relation to a furnace in a building: Provided that—

- (a) in relation to a furnace which is not in a building, the references in those sections to the occupier of the building shall be construed as references to the person having possession of the boiler or plant; and
- (b) in relation to a furnace which is already contained in any such boiler or industrial plant, the references in subsection (2) of section six of this Act to the installation and to the purchase of a furnace shall be construed as references to attaching the boiler or plant to the building or fixing it to or installing it on any land and to purchasing it respectively.

10 Height of chimneys. E+W+S

- (1) Where plans for the erection or extension of a building outside <sup>F11</sup>Greater London or in an outer London borough] other than a building used or to be used wholly for one or more of the following purposes, that is to say as a residence or residences, a shop or shops or an office or offices, are in accordance with building <sup>F12</sup>regulations] deposited with the local authority and the plans show that it is proposed to construct a chimney for carrying smoke, grit, dust or gases from the building, the local authority shall reject the plans unless they are satisfied that the height of the chimney as shown on the plans will be sufficient to prevent, so far as practicable, the smoke, grit, dust or gases from becoming prejudicial to health or a nuisance having regard to—
  - (a) the purpose of the chimney;
  - (b) the position and description of buildings near thereto;
  - (c) the levels of the neighbouring ground; and
  - (d) any other matters requiring consideration in the circumstances.
- (2) If a local authority reject plans under the authority of this section, the notice given under <sup>F13</sup>subsection (2) of section sixty-four of the <sup>M1</sup>public Health Act 1936]<sup>F13</sup>section 16(6) of the Building Act 1984], shall specify that the plans have been so rejected.
- (3) Where plans are rejected under the authority of this section, any person interested in the building may appeal to the Minister and the Minister may confirm or cancel the rejection and, where he cancels the rejection, may, if he thinks it necessary, direct that the time for rejecting the plans otherwise than under the authority of this section shall be extended so as to run from the date on which his decision is notified to the local authority.
- (4) ..... <sup>F14</sup>

- <sup>F15</sup>(5) In the application of subsection (1) above to Scotland—
  - (a) any reference to plans deposited in accordance with building regulations shall be construed as a reference to the plans, specifications and other information

Smoke control areas

11 Smoke control areas. E+W+S

- (1) Any local authority may, by order . . . <sup>F17</sup>, declare the whole of the district of the local authority or any part thereof to be a smoke control area.
- (2) Subject to any exemptions and limitations for the time being in force under this section, if, on any day, smoke is emitted from a chimney of any building within a smoke control area, the occupier of that building shall be guilty of an offence:
Provided that in proceedings for an offence under this subsection, it shall be a defence to prove that the emission of smoke was not caused by the use of any fuel other than an authorised fuel.
- (3) An order made by the local authority under this section—
  - (a) may make different provision for different parts of the smoke control area;
  - (b) may limit the operation of this section to specified classes of building in the area;
  - (c) may exempt specified buildings or classes of building or specified fireplaces or classes of fireplace in the area from the operation of this section, upon such conditions as may be specified in the order.
- (4) The Minister may from time to time by order exempt any class of fireplace, upon such conditions as he may specify in the order, from the provisions of this section, if he is satisfied that such fireplaces can be used for burning fuel other than authorised fuels without producing any smoke or a substantial quantity of smoke.

- (5) An order made . . . <sup>F18</sup> under this section may be revoked or varied by a subsequent order so made . . . <sup>F18</sup>.
- (6) The provisions of the First Schedule to this Act shall apply to the . . . <sup>F19</sup> coming into operation of orders made by local authorities under this section.
- (7) If at any time it appears to the Minister necessary or expedient so to do, he may by order suspend or relax the operation of this section in relation to the whole or any part of a smoke control area:
Provided that before making an order under this subsection the Minister shall consult with the local authority unless he is satisfied that, on account of urgency, such consultation is impracticable.
- (8) Any order of the Minister under this section may be revoked or varied by a subsequent order of the Minister and the proviso to subsection (7) of this section shall apply to the revocation or variation of an order made thereunder.
- (9) As soon as practicable after the making of an order under subsection (7) of this section or an order revoking or varying such an order, the local authority shall take such steps as appear to them suitable for bringing the effect of the order to the notice of persons affected.
- (10) This section shall apply in relation to a chimney serving the furnace of any boiler or industrial plant (being a boiler or plant attached to a building or for the time being fixed to or installed on any land) as it applies in relation to a chimney of a building:
Provided that in relation to any such chimney as aforesaid which is not a chimney of a building, for the references in this section to buildings or to the occupier of the building there shall be substituted references respectively to boilers or plant or to the person having possession of the boiler or plant.

him seven-tenths of that expenditure and may, if they think fit, also repay to him the whole or any part of the remainder of that expenditure:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to any expenditure unless—

- (a) it either is incurred before the coming into operation of the order and with the approval of the local authority given for the purposes of this subsection or is reasonably incurred in carrying out adaptations required by a notice given under subsection (2) of this section; and
- (b) the adaptations in question are carried out to the satisfaction of the local authority.

and where the expenditure is incurred by the occupier of a private dwelling who is not an owner thereof, and the adaptations consist of or include the provision of any cooking or heating appliance which can be readily removed from the dwelling without injury to itself or the fabric of the dwelling, the following provisions shall have effect as respects so much of the expenditure as represents the cost of the appliance, that is to say—

- (i) not more than seven-twentieths of that part of that expenditure shall be repaid until two years from the coming into operation of the order; and
- (ii) any further repayment of that part of that expenditure shall be made only if the appliance has not by then been removed from the dwelling and, if made, shall be made to the person who is the occupier of the dwelling at the end of the two years.

(2) The local authority may, by notice in writing served on the occupier or owner of a private dwelling which is, or when an order made . . . <sup>F21</sup> as aforesaid comes into operation will be, within a smoke control area, require the carrying out of adaptations in or in connection with the dwelling to avoid contraventions of the last preceding section, and the provisions of Part XII of the <sup>M3</sup>Public Health Act 1936, with respect to appeals against, and the enforcement of, notices requiring the execution of works shall apply in relation to any notice under this subsection, subject, however, to the modification that any reference in the said provisions to the expenses reasonably incurred in executing the works shall be construed as a reference to three-tenths of those expenses or such smaller fraction thereof as the local authority may in any particular case determine.

(3) In the application of this section to Scotland—

- (a) subsection (2) of this section shall have effect as if the words from “and the provisions of Part XII” to the end of the subsection were omitted; and
- (b) [<sup>F22</sup>section [<sup>F23</sup>27][<sup>F23</sup>111] of the Housing (Scotland) Act [<sup>F23</sup>1974][<sup>F23</sup>1987]] (which provides for an appeal to the sheriff against certain notices requiring the execution of works under that Act) shall apply in relation to a notice under the said subsection (2) as it applies in relation to any such notice as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of that section; and
- (c) subject to any such right of appeal as aforesaid, if any person on whom a notice under the said subsection (2) is served fails to execute the works required by the notice within the time thereby limited, the local authority may themselves execute the works and may recover from that person three-tenths, or such smaller fraction as the local authority may in any particular case determine, of the expenses reasonably incurred by them in so doing.

13 Exchequer contributions. E+W+S

- (1) The Minister may, out of moneys provided by Parliament, make a contribution towards the following expenses of any local authority, that is to say—
- any expenses of the local authority in making . . . <sup>F24</sup> payments under subsection (1) of the last preceding section . . . <sup>F24</sup>;
  - any expenses incurred by them in making, in or in connection with private dwellings owned by them or under their control, not being new dwellings, adaptations to avoid contraventions of section eleven of this Act; and
  - any expenses incurred by them in carrying out adaptations required by notices under subsection (2) of the last preceding section in or in connection with dwellings which are not new dwellings:

Provided that no expenses shall be taken into account under this subsection unless they are approved by the Minister.

- (2) A contribution under subsection (1) of this section in respect of any expenses shall be a single payment equal, in the case of expenses mentioned in paragraph (a) of that subsection, to four-sevenths, and, in the case of other expenses, to two-fifths, of the amount of the expenses.

14 Interpretation of two last preceding sections. E+W+S

(1) In the two last preceding sections, references to adaptations in or in connection with a dwelling to avoid contraventions of section eleven of this Act shall be construed as references to the execution of any of the following works (whether in or outside the dwelling), that is to say—

- (a) adapting or converting any fireplace; or
- (b) replacing any fireplace by another fireplace or by some other means of heating or cooking; or
- (c) altering any . . . <sup>F25</sup> chimney which serves any fireplace; or
- [<sup>F26</sup>(cc) providing gas ignition, electric ignition or any other special means of ignition; or]

(d) carrying out any operation incidental to any of the operations aforesaid, being works which are reasonably necessary in order to make what is in all the circumstances suitable provision for heating and cooking without contraventions of the said section eleven:

Provided that, except for the purposes of subsection (2) of section twelve of this Act, works which make such suitable provision as aforesaid shall not be deemed to be other than adaptations to avoid contraventions of the said section eleven by reason that they go beyond what is reasonably necessary for that purpose, but any expenditure incurred in executing them in excess of the expenditure which would have been reasonably incurred in doing what was reasonably necessary shall be left out of account.

(2) In the two last preceding sections, references to expenses incurred in the execution of works include references to the cost of any fixed cooking or heating appliance installed by means of the execution of the works, notwithstanding that the appliance can be readily removed from the dwelling without injury to itself or the fabric of the dwelling; and for the purposes of the two last preceding sections, a person who enters into [<sup>F27</sup>either—

- (i) a conditional sale agreement for the sale to him, or
- (ii) a hire-purchase agreement for the bailment or (in Scotland) hiring to him,] of a cooking or heating appliance shall be treated as having incurred on the date of the agreement expenditure of an amount equal to the price which would have been payable therefor if he had purchased it for cash on that date.

- (2) This section applies to any premises or part of any premises which fall within one or more of the following paragraphs, that is to say—
- (a) any place of public religious worship, being, in the case of a place in England or Wales, a place which belongs to the Church of England or to the Church in Wales (within the meaning of the <sup>M4</sup>Welsh Church Act 1914) or which is for the time being certified as required by law as a place of religious worship;
  - (b) any church hall, chapel hall or similar premises used in connection with any such place of public religious worship, and so used for the purposes of the organisation responsible for the conduct of public religious worship in that place;
  - (c) any premises or part of any premises occupied for the purposes of an organisation (whether corporate or unincorporate) which is not established or conducted for profit and whose main objects are charitable or are otherwise concerned with the advancement of religion, education or social welfare.

22 Crown premises, &c. E+W+S

- (1) It shall be part of the functions of the local authority, in cases where it seems to them proper so to do, to report to the responsible Minister any cases of—
  - (a) emissions of dark smoke, or of grit or dust, from any premises which are under the control of any Government department and are occupied for the public service of the Crown or for any of the purposes of any Government department; or
  - (b) emissions of smoke, whether dark smoke or not, from any such premises which are within a smoke control area; or
  - (c) emissions of smoke, whether dark smoke or not, from any such premises which appear to them to constitute a nuisance to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood; or
  - (d) emissions of dark smoke from any vessel of Her Majesty's navy, or any Government ship in the service of the <sup>[F44]</sup>Secretary of State] while employed for the purposes of Her Majesty's navy, which appear to them to constitute such a nuisance as aforesaid, and on receiving any such report the said Minister shall inquire into the circumstances and, if his inquiry reveals that there is cause for complaint, shall employ all practicable means for preventing or minimising the emission of the smoke, grit or dust or for abating the nuisance and preventing a recurrence thereof, as the case may be.

This subsection shall apply to premises occupied for the purposes of the Duchy of Lancaster or the Duchy of Cornwall as it applies to premises occupied for the public service of the Crown which are under the control of a Government department, with the substitution, in the case of the Duchy of Cornwall, for references to the responsible Minister of references to such person as the Duke of Cornwall or the possessor for the time being of the Duchy of Cornwall appoints.

- (2) The fact that there subsists in any premises an interest belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Crown or of the Duchy of Lancaster, or to the Duchy of Cornwall, or belonging to a Government department or held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of a Government department, shall not affect the application of this Act to those premises so long as that interest is not the interest of the occupier of the premises, and this Act shall have effect accordingly in relation to the premises and that and all other interests therein.
- (3) Section twenty of this Act shall, with the omission of the reference in subsection (1) thereof to the owner, apply to vessels owned by the Crown, except that it shall not apply to vessels of Her Majesty's navy or to Government ships in the service of the [<sup>F44</sup>Secretary of State] while employed for the purposes of Her Majesty's navy.
- (4) This Act shall have effect in relation to premises occupied for the service of a visiting force as if the premises were premises occupied for the public service of the Crown and were under the control of the Government department by arrangement with whom the premises are occupied.

In this subsection "visiting force" means any such body, contingent or detachment of the forces of any country as is a visiting force for the purposes of any of the provisions of the <sup>M13</sup>Visiting Forces Act 1952.

- (5) In this section "Government ship" has the same meaning as in section eighty of the <sup>M14</sup>Merchant Shipping Act 1906.

31 Application of Public Health Act 1936, &c. E+W+S

- (1) Parts I and XII of the <sup>M18</sup>Public Health Act 1936 (which contain provisions relating to local administration and general and supplemental provisions) shall, so far as applicable and subject to the modifications and supplementary provisions contained in Part I of the Third Schedule to this Act, have effect in relation to this Act as if the provisions of this Act [<sup>F63</sup>(other than the provisions amending the <sup>M19</sup>Alkali, &c. Works Regulation Act 1906)] were provisions of the first mentioned Act.
- (2) Any order made or having effect as if made under the Public Health Act 1936, which confers or imposes functions, rights or liabilities on a port health authority, being an order in force immediately before the appointed day, shall, as from the appointed day, have effect as if any references therein to, or which are to be construed as references to, functions, rights or liabilities of a local authority under all or any of the provisions of sections one hundred and one to one hundred and six of that Act included references to the functions, rights or liabilities of a local authority under this Act.
- (3) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, any two or more local authorities may combine for the purpose of declaring an area to be a smoke control area and in that event—
  - (a) the smoke control area may be the whole of the districts of those authorities or any part thereof;
  - (b) the references in section eleven of this Act and the first Schedule to this Act, and the first reference in subsection (1) of section twelve of this Act, to the local authority shall be construed as references to the local authorities acting jointly;
  - (c) the reference in paragraph 2 of the said First Schedule to a place in the district of the local authority shall be construed as a reference to a place in each of the districts of the local authorities; but
  - (d) save as aforesaid the references in this Act to the local authority shall, in relation to a building or dwelling, or to a boiler or industrial plant, in the smoke control area, be construed as references to that one of the local authorities within whose district the building, dwelling, boiler or plant is situated.

includes flues] and references to a chimney of a building include references to a chimney which serves the whole or a part of a building but is structurally separate therefrom;

[<sup>F73</sup>“conditional sale agreement” means an agreement for the sale of goods under which the purchase price or part of it is payable by instalments, and the property in the goods is to remain in the seller (notwithstanding that the buyer is to be in possession of the goods) until such conditions as to the payment of instalments or otherwise as may be specified in the agreement are fulfilled;]

“day” (except in the expression “the appointed day”) means a period of twenty-four hours beginning at midnight;

“fireplace” includes any furnace, grate or stove, whether open or closed;

[<sup>F74</sup>“fumes” means any airborne solid matter smaller than dust]

“Heating” in relation to a dwelling includes the heating of water;

[<sup>F75</sup>“hire-purchase agreement” means an agreement, other than a conditional sale agreement under which—

- (a) goods are bailed or (in Scotland) hired in return for periodical payments by the person to whom they are bailed or hired, and
- (b) the property in the goods will pass to that person if the terms of the agreement are complied with and one or more of the following occurs—
  - (i) the exercise of an option to purchase by that person,
  - (ii) the doing of any other specified act by any party to the agreement,
  - (iii) the happening of any other specified event;]

“industrial plant” includes any still, melting pot or other plant used for any industrial or trade purposes, and also any incinerator used for or in connection with any such purposes;

“local authority”, as respects Scotland, means [<sup>F76</sup>an islands or district council];

“the Minister” means, as respects England and Wales, [<sup>F77</sup>the Secretary of State] and, as respects Scotland, the Secretary of State;

“owner”, as respects Scotland, has the like meaning as in the <sup>M26</sup>Public Health (Scotland) Act 1897;

“port health authority” means, as respects Scotland, a port local authority constituted under Part X of the <sup>M27</sup>Public Health (Scotland) Act 1897;

“practicable” means reasonably practicable having regard, amongst other things, to local conditions and circumstances, to the financial implications and to the current state of technical knowledge, and “practicable means” includes the provision and maintenance of plant and the proper use thereof;

“smoke” includes soot, ash, grit and gritty particles emitted in smoke.

- (2) In this Act “dark smoke” means smoke which, if compared in the appropriate manner with a chart of the type known at the date of the passing of this Act as the Ringelmann Chart, would appear to be as dark as or darker than shade 2 on the chart.

For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that, in proceedings brought under or by virtue of section one or section sixteen of this Act, the court may be satisfied that smoke is or is not dark smoke as hereinbefore defined notwithstanding that there has been no actual comparison thereof with a chart of the said type; and, in particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the preceding provisions of this subsection, if the Minister by regulations prescribes any method of ascertaining whether smoke is dark smoke as so defined, proof in any such proceedings that that method was properly applied, and that the smoke was thereby ascertained to be or not to be dark smoke as so defined, shall be accepted as sufficient.

- (3) Any reference in this Act to the occupier of a building shall, in relation to any building different parts of which are occupied by different persons, be construed as a reference to the occupier or other person in control of the part of the building in which the relevant fireplace is situated.
- (4) In this Act, except so far as the context otherwise requires, “private dwelling” means any building or part of a building used or intended to be used as such, and a building or part of a building shall not be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be used or intended to be used otherwise than as a private dwelling by reason that a person who resides or is to reside therein is or is to be required or permitted to reside therein in consequence of his employment or of holding an office; and “dwelling” shall be construed accordingly.
- (5) ..... F79
- (6) In considering for the purposes of this Act whether any and, if so, what works are reasonably necessary in order to make suitable provision for heating and cooking in the case of a dwelling or are reasonably necessary in order to enable a building to be used for a purpose without contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, regard shall be had to any difficulty there may be in obtaining, or in obtaining otherwise than at a high price, any fuels which would have to be used but for the execution of the works.
- (7) Any furnaces which are in the occupation of the same person and are served by a single chimney shall, for the purposes of sections six to eight of this Act, be taken to be one furnace.
- (8) Any reference in this Act to any enactment shall, except so far as the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to that enactment as amended by or under any subsequent enactment (including this Act).

SCHEDULES

COMING INTO OPERATION OF ORDERS OF LOCAL AUTHORITIES UNDER SECTION ELEVEN

Textual Amendments

F83 Sch. 1 substituted by Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 \(c. 65, SIF 81:1, 2\), s. 1(2), Sch. 2 para. 5 (with effect for the purpose mentioned in s. 1(2)) except in application—) to orders made after the passing of Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 which revoke or vary orders made before its passing

- 1 Before making an order under section 11 of this Act the local authority shall publish in the London Gazette and once at least in each of two successive weeks in some newspaper circulating in the area to which the order will relate a notice-
  - (a) stating that the local authority propose to make the order, and its general effect;
  - (b) specifying a place in the district of the local authority where a copy of the order and of any map or plan referred to in it may be inspected by any person free of charge at all reasonable times during a period of not less than six weeks from the date of the last publication of the notice; and
  - (c) stating that within the said period any person who will be affected by the order may by notice in writing to the local authority object to the making of the order.

- 2 Besides publishing such a notice, the local authority shall post, and keep posted throughout the said period, copies of the notice in such number of conspicuous places within the area to which the order will relate as appear to them necessary for the purpose of bringing the proposal to make the order to the notice of persons who will be affected.

- 3 If an objection is duly made to the local authority within the said period, and is not withdrawn, the local authority shall not make the order without first considering the objection.

- 4 Subject to paragraphs 5 and 6 below, an order shall come into operation on such date not less than six months after it is made as may be specified in it.

Status: Point in time view as at 25/09/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Clean Air Act 1956 (repealed 27.8.1993). (See end of Document for details)

- 5 An order varying a previous order so as to exempt specified buildings or classes of building or specified fireplaces or classes of fireplace from the operation of section 11 of this Act may come into operation on, or at any time after, the date on which it is made.
- 6 If, before the date on which the order is to come into operation, the local authority—
- (a) pass a resolution postponing its coming into operation; and
  - (b) publish a notice stating the effect of the resolution in the London Gazette and once at least in each of two successive weeks in some newspaper circulating in the area to which the order will relate,
- the order shall, unless its coming into operation is again postponed under this paragraph, come into operation on the date specified in the resolution.
- 7 In the application of this Schedule to Scotland, for any reference to the London Gazette there shall be substituted a reference to the Edinburgh Gazette.
