

Teachers (Superannuation) Act 1956

1956 CHAPTER 53 4 and 5 Eliz 2

PART II

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO SCOTLAND

37 Amendment of the Education (Scotland) (War Service Superannuation) Act, 1939.

Where, under section three of the ^{M1}Education (Scotland) (War Service Superannuation) Act 1939, contributions in respect of the whole or part of the period of war service of a person who was, or was deemed to be, a teacher are recoverable by the Secretary of State either directly from him or by deduction from any sum payable to him or to his personal representatives, and where the whole or any part of the said contributions have not been recovered before the commencement of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State, on an application by the said person made within twelve months from the commencement of this Act or within such longer period as the Secretary of State may allow in any particular case, to direct that the unrecovered contributions and any interest due thereon shall not be recovered and to delete from the record of service of the said person the period of war service in respect of which the said contributions were payable, and the said person and his personal representatives shall thereupon cease to be liable for the said contributions and interest and shall not be entitled to any benefit under the Teachers Superannuation Scheme in respect of the said period of war service.
