3 Scottish Valuation Advisory Council.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall constitute a Scottish Valuation Advisory Council (hereinafter referred to as “the Advisory Council”) consisting of fifteen members appointed by the Secretary of State, of whom not less than [<sup>F7</sup>six] and not more than ten shall be appointed from a panel of persons (other than assessors) nominated by such associations as appear to the Secretary of State to represent valuation authorities, and the remainder shall include persons experienced in law or in valuation appointed after consultation with such persons as the Secretary of State may think fit.
- (2) The Secretary of State shall appoint a chairman and a deputy chairman from among the members of the Advisory Council.
- (3) A member of the Advisory Council shall hold office for such period as may be determined by the terms of his appointment, and shall be eligible for re-appointment.
- (4) The functions of the Advisory Council shall include—
  - (a) advising the Secretary of State on any matter relating to valuation which he may refer to them;
  - (b) receiving from the assessors annual reports to be made by them on the progress of valuation or revaluation in their respective areas, and reviewing such progress;
  - (c) .....<sup>F8</sup>
  - (d) considering arrangements to be made by the assessors to secure in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained the valuation or revaluation once in every five years of all lands and heritages in their respective areas and informing the Secretary of State of any modifications in such arrangements which the Advisory Council think advisable;
  - (e) making representations and recommendations to the Secretary of State on any matter relating to valuation.
- (5) The Secretary of State shall appoint such officers of the Advisory Council as may be necessary for the purpose of the exercise by that Council of their functions under this Act.
- (6) The Secretary of State may pay—
  - (a) to the members of the Advisory Council such allowances in respect of loss of earnings or travelling or subsistence or other expenses necessarily suffered or incurred in the performance of their duties;
  - (b) to the officers of the Advisory Council such remuneration (whether by way of salary or fees) and such allowances in respect of travelling or subsistence; and
  - (c) such other expenditure incurred by the Advisory Council or the members or officers thereof for the purpose of their respective functions under this Act, as he may, with the approval of the Treasury, determine.
- (7) The Advisory Council shall submit to the Secretary of State an annual report of their proceedings, which report shall include a statement of expenditure incurred in the

6 Ascertainment of gross annual value, net annual value and rateable value of lands and heritages.

(1) For the purpose of making up any valuation roll for the year 1961–62 or any subsequent year . . . <sup>F11</sup>, the net annual value and the rateable value of any lands and heritages shall, subject to [<sup>F12</sup>sections 7 to 7B]of this Act, be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) ..... <sup>F13</sup>

(8) Subject to the provisions of Part III of this Act, the net annual value of any lands and heritages, . . . <sup>F14</sup>shall be the rent at which the lands and heritages might reasonably be expected to let from year to year if no grassum or consideration other than the rent were payable in respect of the lease and if the tenant undertook to pay all rates and to bear the cost of the repairs and insurance and the other expenses, if any, necessary to maintain the lands and heritages in a state to command that rent.

[<sup>F15</sup>(8A) The Secretary of State may by regulations made under this subsection prescribe—

- (a) the manner in which and the principles, rules and considerations by reference to which the net annual value of lands and heritages is to be arrived at under subsection (8) above;
- (b) that the principles, rules and considerations referred to in paragraph (a) above or any of them shall be such as are determined in accordance with the regulations.

(8B) Regulations made under subsection (8A) above—

- (a) may be made so as to apply differently to different areas or in relation to different cases or classes of case;
- (b) may include such supplementary, incidental, consequential or transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient; and
- (c) shall be made by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”]

[<sup>F16</sup>(8C) For the purposes of subsection (8B) above, cases may be defined, described or classified by reference to such factors as the Secretary of State thinks fit.

(8D) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (8C) above, a case may be defined, described or classified by reference to one or more of the following factors—

- (a) the physical characteristics of lands and heritages;
- (b) the fact that lands and heritages are unoccupied or are occupied for purposes prescribed by the regulations or by persons of descriptions so prescribed.]

(9) The rateable value of any lands and heritages shall, . . . <sup>F17</sup>, be the net annual value thereof as ascertained . . . <sup>F18</sup> or subsection (8) of this section, . . . <sup>F18</sup>.

(10) Where the amount of the net annual value and of the rateable value in a case where those values are the same, or in any other case the amount of the rateable value, includes a fraction of a pound, the amount of both those values or of the rateable value, as the case may be, shall be increased or reduced, as the case may be, to the nearest complete pound, or if the fraction is ten shillings, the fraction shall be disregarded.

- (2) This section applies to—
  - (a) lands and heritages (other than dwelling–houses) used solely for or in connection with fish farming; and
  - (b) lands and heritages consisting of—
    - (i) one or more buildings (other than dwelling–houses) used solely for or in connection with fish farming; or
    - (ii) any land occupied together with and used solely in connection with the use of such building or buildings.
- (3) No lands and heritages to which this section applies shall be entered in the valuation roll, and any reference in any enactment to the person appearing from the valuation roll to be the owner or the occupier of any lands and heritages shall on and after the first day of April nineteen hundred and eighty–one, have effect in the case of lands and heritages to which this section applies as if the reference to the valuation roll were omitted.
- (4) . . . . . <sup>F31</sup>
- (5) Where part of lands and heritages consists of one or more buildings or one or more parts of buildings (being a part of lands and heritages which is used for such a purpose that if it were in separate occupation it would be lands and heritages to which this section applies), then that part of the lands and heritages and the remainder shall each be treated as respects the year 1981–82 and subsequent years for the purposes of the Valuation Acts as if it were lands and heritages in separate occupation.
- (6) In subsection (5) above, any reference to a building or part of a building shall be construed as including a reference to land occupied together with and used solely in connection with the use of such building or part.
- (7) In determining for the purposes of this section whether during any year a building used for or in connection with fish farming is solely so used, no account shall be taken of any time in that year during which it is used in any other way, if that time does not amount to a substantial part of that year.

23 Provisions as to the rates payable by charitable and other organisations.

(1) A rating authority shall have power to reduce or remit any rate leviable in the year 1956–57 or in any subsequent year in respect of—

- (a) any lands or heritages occupied for the purposes of an organisation (whether corporate or unincorporate) which is not established or conducted for profit and whose main objects are charitable or are otherwise concerned with the advancement of religion, education or social welfare, or are concerned exclusively with science, literature or the fine arts; or
- (b) any lands and heritages held on trust for use as an almshouse ; or
- (c) any lands and heritages consisting of a playing field (that is to say, land used exclusively or mainly for the purposes of open–air games or of open–air athletic sports) occupied for the purposes of a club, society or other organisation which is not established or conducted for profit and does not (except on special occasions) make any charge for the admission of spectators to the playing field :

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to any lands and heritages to which paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) of the last foregoing section applies or to lands and heritages occupied by a local authority or by any body to whom section two hundred and seventy of the Act of 1947 applies.

(2) The Scientific Societies Act, 1843, shall cease to have effect except in relation to lands and heritages in respect of which, at the passing of this Act and by virtue of section one of the said Act of 1843, the person occupying was not liable to be assessed or rated, and which continue to be occupied by that person.

(3) In this section the expression “rate” does not include a domestic water rate.

4 (1) For [<sup>F98</sup>the basic year and] each year subsequent to the basic year each Gas Board’s basic rateable valuation shall be adjusted in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph, and such basic rateable valuation as so adjusted shall be the rateable valuation of that Board’s undertaking for that year.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Valuation and Rating (Scotland) Act 1956. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) For each such year each Gas Board shall—
- (a) estimate and certify the total number of therms supplied by the Board to consumers in [<sup>F99</sup>Scotland] during the twelve months ending with the thirty-first day of March falling within the immediately preceding year, and
  - (b) calculate and certify the amount by which that total exceeds, or falls short of, the Board's standard number of therms;
- and the Board's basic rateable valuation shall be adjusted for that year by multiplying it by the fraction of which—
- (i) the numerator is the Board's standard number of therms increased by one-fifth of the said excess, or, as the case may be, decreased by one-fifth of the said deficiency, and
  - (ii) the denominator is the Board's standard number of therms.

- 5 (1) Each Gas Board's rateable valuation for any year shall be apportioned in respect of that year among all separately rated areas in which any therms were supplied by the Board to consumers, or manufactured by the Board, during the twelve months ending with the thirty-first day of March falling within the immediately preceding year, and the proportion of the rateable valuation to be allocated to any one of those areas shall be ascertained by multiplying the rateable valuation by the fraction of which—
- (a) the numerator is the number of therms supplied by the Board to consumers in that area during the said twelve months, as estimated and certified by the Board, plus nine-tenths of the number of therms (if any) manufactured in that area by the Board during the said twelve months, as so estimated and certified, and
  - (b) the denominator is the total number of therms supplied by the Board to consumers in [<sup>F100</sup>Scotland] during the said twelve months, as estimated and certified by the Board, plus nine-tenths of the total number of therms manufactured by the Board during the said twelve months, as so estimated and certified.
- (2) For the purpose of the apportionment in respect of any year of a Gas Board's rateable valuation for that year among separately rated areas, all such areas which are in existence at the commencement of the said year shall be deemed to have existed during the twelve months ending with the thirty-first day of March falling within the immediately preceding year and to have had the same boundaries during the said twelve months as they have at the commencement of the first-mentioned year.

- 11 (1) The provisions of this paragraph shall have effect in the case of a Gas Board where gas is manufactured by the Board in a gasworks which is situated partly in one separately rated area and partly in one or more other separately rated areas.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of section twenty-four of this Act, the Gas Board shall be treated as manufacturing gas in each of the areas in which a part of the gasworks is situated, notwithstanding that no gas is actually manufactured in one or more of those areas.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph 5 of this Schedule, the gas manufactured in the gasworks in any year shall be treated as apportioned between all the separately rated areas in which parts of the gasworks are situated in such proportions as may be agreed between the rating authorities of those areas and the Gas Board:
 Provided that if any apportionment required by this sub-paragraph for the purpose of apportioning the Board’s rateable valuation for any year has not been agreed between the [<sup>F106</sup>local authorities] and the Board before the first day of April falling within the immediately preceding year, the apportionment required by this sub-paragraph shall be made by the Secretary of State and notified by him to the [<sup>F106</sup>local authorities] and to the Board as soon as may be after the said first day of April.
- (4) In this paragraph “gasworks” means any group of premises within one curtilage which is occupied by the Gas Board for the purposes of the manufacture of gas:
 Provided that a group of premises shall not be treated as being otherwise than within one curtilage by reason only that it is traversed by a public right of way.
