

Valuation and Rating (Scotland) Act 1956

1956 CHAPTER 60 4 and 5 Eliz 2

PART I

VALUATION

1 †Valuation areas and authorities and appointment of assessors and staff.

- (1)^{F1}
- (5) The Secretary of State shall make regulations prescribing the qualifications required to be possessed by any person appointed to the office of assessor, or by any person appointed under [^{F2}section 116 (2) of the ^{M1}Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973] to act as depute assessor, and, except as otherwise provided in such regulations,—
- (a) a person shall not be appointed . . .^{F3} to the office of assessor; and
 - (b) a person shall not be appointed to act as depute assessor, nor, on or after the sixteenth day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty–seven, shall any person act as depute assessor;
- unless he possesses the qualifications so prescribed.
- (6)^{F4}
- (7) An assessor . . .^{F5} shall hold his office during the pleasure of the valuation authority so, however, that he shall not be removed from office or required to resign as an alternative thereto except—
- (a) by a resolution of such authority passed by not less than two–thirds of the members present at a meeting of the authority the notice of which specifies as an item of business the consideration of the removal from office of the assessor or his being required to resign, and
 - (b) with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Before deciding whether or not to give such consent the Secretary of State shall give the authority and the assessor an opportunity of being heard by a person appointed by the Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Valuation and Rating (Scotland) Act 1956, Part I. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) The power to make regulations conferred on the Secretary of State by this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

6 Ascertainment of gross annual value, net annual value and rateable value of lands and heritages.

(1) For the purpose of making up any valuation roll for the year 1961–62 or any subsequent year . . . ^{F11}, the net annual value and the rateable value of any lands and heritages shall, subject to [^{F12}sections 7 to 7B]of this Act, be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) ^{F13}

(8) Subject to the provisions of Part III of this Act, the net annual value of any lands and heritages, . . . ^{F14}shall be the rent at which the lands and heritages might reasonably be expected to let from year to year if no grassum or consideration other than the rent were payable in respect of the lease and if the tenant undertook to pay all rates and to bear the cost of the repairs and insurance and the other expenses, if any, necessary to maintain the lands and heritages in a state to command that rent.

[^{F15}(8A) The Secretary of State may by regulations made under this subsection prescribe—

- (a) the manner in which and the principles, rules and considerations by reference to which the net annual value of lands and heritages is to be arrived at under subsection (8) above;
- (b) that the principles, rules and considerations referred to in paragraph (a) above or any of them shall be such as are determined in accordance with the regulations.

(8B) Regulations made under subsection (8A) above—

- (a) may be made so as to apply differently to different areas or in relation to different cases or classes of case;
- (b) may include such supplementary, incidental, consequential or transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient; and
- (c) shall be made by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”]

[^{F16}(8C) For the purposes of subsection (8B) above, cases may be defined, described or classified by reference to such factors as the Secretary of State thinks fit.

(8D) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (8C) above, a case may be defined, described or classified by reference to one or more of the following factors—

- (a) the physical characteristics of lands and heritages;
- (b) the fact that lands and heritages are unoccupied or are occupied for purposes prescribed by the regulations or by persons of descriptions so prescribed.]

(9) The rateable value of any lands and heritages shall, . . . ^{F17}, be the net annual value thereof as ascertained . . . ^{F18} or subsection (8) of this section, . . . ^{F18}.

(10) Where the amount of the net annual value and of the rateable value in a case where those values are the same, or in any other case the amount of the rateable value, includes a fraction of a pound, the amount of both those values or of the rateable value, as the case may be, shall be increased or reduced, as the case may be, to the nearest complete pound, or if the fraction is ten shillings, the fraction shall be disregarded.

7 Ascertainment of gross annual value, net annual value and rateable value of lands and heritages.

- (1) For the purpose of making up any valuation roll for the year 1961–62 or any subsequent year the following provisions of this section shall have effect regarding agricultural lands and heritages . . . ^{F21}.

- (2) In this section—

“agricultural lands and heritages” means any lands and heritages used for agricultural or pastoral purposes only or as woodlands, market gardens, orchards [^{F22} reed beds], allotments or allotment gardens and any lands exceeding [^{F23} one tenth of a hectare] used for the purpose of poultry farming, but does not include any buildings thereon other than agricultural buildings, or any garden, yard, garage, outhouse or pertinent belonging to and occupied along with a dwelling–house, or any land kept or preserved mainly or exclusively for sporting purposes;

“agricultural buildings” means buildings (other than dwelling–houses) occupied together with agricultural lands and heritages, or being or forming part of a market garden, and in either case used solely in connection with agricultural operations thereon; and “pertinent” [^{F24} in relation to a dwelling house shall be taken to include all land occupied therewith and used for the purposes thereof.]

[^{F25}(2A) In determining for the purposes of the last foregoing subsection whether during any year a building used in any way is solely so used or is used for agricultural purposes only, no account shall be taken of any time in that year during which it is used in any other way or, as the case may be, for any other purpose, if that time does not amount to a substantial part of that year.

- (2B) In determining for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section whether any lands and heritages (other than a building) are used for agricultural or pastoral purposes only, there shall be disregarded any use of those lands and heritages for the purpose of the breeding, rearing, grazing or exercising of horses (within the meaning of section 6(4) of the ^{M2}Riding Establishments Act 1964), if the only other use of the lands and heritages is a substantial use for agricultural or pastoral purposes.]

- (3) No agricultural lands and heritages shall be entered in the valuation roll, and any reference in any enactment to the person appearing from the valuation roll to be the owner or the occupier of any lands and heritages shall on and after the sixteenth
