3 General provisions as to service departments records.

- (1) All such registers and copies of entries in registers or records as have been duly transmitted to the Registrar General for England and Wales, the Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages in Scotland or the Registrar General for Northern Ireland in pursuance of this Act, or of section two of the ^{M4}Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Army) Act 1879 or of section thirty-seven of the ^{M5}Births and Deaths Registration Act 1874, shall be known as “the Service Departments Registers”.
- (2) The enactments relating to the registration of births and deaths and marriages in England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland (which contain provisions authorising the admission in evidence of, and of extracts from, certified copies of registers and duplicate registers) shall have effect as if the Service Departments Registers were certified copies or duplicate registers transmitted to the Registrar General in accordance with those enactments.
- (3) An error of fact or substance in any register or other record kept in pursuance of this Act or of section two of the ^{M6}Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Army) Act 1879 or of section thirty-seven of the ^{M7}Births and Deaths Registration Act 1874, may be corrected by an entry in the margin (without any alteration of the original entry) by such officer as may be specified in an Order in Council under this Act upon production to him of a statutory declaration setting forth the nature of the error and the true facts of the case made [^{F1}either] by two credible persons having knowledge of the truth of the case, [^{F1}or, where it applies, in accordance with section 3A of this Act] and Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide for the correction of clerical errors in any such register or other record.

[^{F2}3A Alternative procedure for certain corrections.

- (1) This section applies where, in an entry relating to a birth or death in a register or other record to which section 3(3) of this Act applies, a person is wrongly shown as the father of the person to whose birth or death the entry relates.
- (2) Where this section applies, the statutory declaration required by section 3(3) of this Act may be made by one credible person having knowledge of the truth of the case.
- (3) Such a statutory declaration must be accompanied by documentary evidence of a finding that the person shown as the father was not the father.

- (4) But subsection (5) applies if it appears to the officer specified in accordance with subsection (3) of section 3 of this Act that the only evidence on which the finding was made was that of the person making the statutory declaration.
- (5) In that case, the officer may correct the error only if satisfied that another person, who is a credible person having knowledge of the truth of the case, has (whether before or since the making of the declaration) confirmed the material facts stated in the declaration.
- (6) “Finding” means a finding made expressly in judicial proceedings in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.]

Act, legitimated by the subsequent marriage of his parents, the said Registrar General may authorise at any time the re-registration or, as the case may be, the registration of that person's birth, and the re-registration or registration shall be effected in such manner and at such place as may be provided by an Order in Council under this Act: Provided that, except where—

- (i) the paternity of the legitimated person has been established by an affiliation order or otherwise by a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, or
- (ii) a declaration of the legitimacy of the legitimated person has been made by a court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom, the said Registrar General shall not authorise re-registration or registration unless information with a view to obtaining it is furnished by both parents.

- (2) In this section “the appropriate Registrar General” means, in relation to a person whose father was at the time of the marriage domiciled in Scotland, the Registrar General of Births, Deaths and Marriages in Scotland, in relation to a person whose father was at the time of the marriage domiciled in Northern Ireland, the Registrar General for Northern Ireland, and in any other case the Registrar General for England and Wales.

6 Provisions as to Orders in Council.

- (1) Any power of making an Order in Council under this Act shall include a power of varying or revoking such an Order.
- (2) An Order in Council under section one or section two of this Act may include provisions with respect to deaths or births occurring, and marriages solemnised, before the commencement of this Act.
- (3) Any power conferred by this Act to make provision by Order in Council shall include power to make that provision for specified classes of cases and to make different provision for different classes of cases.

7 Short title, etc.

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Special Provisions) Act 1957.
- (2) Section two of the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Army) Act, 1879, and section thirty-seven of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, are hereby repealed.
- (3) It is hereby declared that the provisions of this Act affecting the Acts relating to the registration of births, deaths and marriages extend to Northern Ireland.
- (4) This Act shall come into force on such date as Her Majesty may by Order in Council appoint.
