

Emergency Laws (Repeal) Act 1959

1959 CHAPTER 19

8 Northern Ireland.

- (1) Nothing in this Act shall restrict the powers of the Parliament of Northern Ireland to make laws with respect to any matter with respect to which that Parliament has power to make laws, and any laws made by that Parliament with respect to any such matters shall have effect notwithstanding anything in any Defence Regulation having effect by virtue of section two of this Act and applicable to Northern Ireland, or in any order or other instrument made under such a Regulation.
- (2) Where a power to make orders under any such Defence Regulation as aforesaid has been delegated in pursuance of paragraph (1) of Regulation 102a of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, to an authority in Northern Ireland, any order made in pursuance of that power, and any order made by virtue of that paragraph by the Governor of Northern Ireland, shall be made by statutory instrument, and the Statutory Instruments Act, 1946, shall apply in like manner as if the order had been made by the Secretary of State; and, in relation to any such delegation, the expression "government department" in section seven of this Act shall be construed as including a department of the Government of Northern Ireland.
