

Factories Act 1961

1961 CHAPTER 34

PART VI

EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN AND YOUNG PERSONS

Exceptions

105 Exception as to continuous employment of male young persons employed with men

The provisions of this Part of this Act forbidding the continuous employment of a young person for a spell of more than four and a half hours without an interval of at least half an hour shall, in the case of male young persons who have attained the age of sixteen and are employed with men and whose continuous employment is necessary to enable the men to carry on their work, have effect, as respects any spell commencing in the morning, as if five hours were substituted for four and a half hours as the length of the spell for which they may be employed continuously.
