

Parliamentary Elections (Ireland) Act 1823

1823 CHAPTER 55

XXVII Penalty on Persons making Grants as Freehold, to induce Lessees to register them as Freeholds, having only a Term of Years therein.

And be it further enacted, That if such Grantor shall be possessed only of a Term of Years therein, and shall demise the same, or any Part thereof, for a Life or Lives, with Intent to induce the Lessee therein to register such as a Freehold for any County of a City or County of a Town, or to vote as a Freeholder thereout, he shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person who shall sue for the same, by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Law.
