

Entail Provisions Act 1824

1824 CHAPTER 87

V Provision settled in Consideration of Marriage, Death of Children before Grantor not to affect the Provision.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Child to whom any such Provision as aforesaid may be granted shall marry, and that such Provision, or any Part thereof, shall, with the Consent of the Grantor of the same, be settled in the Contract made in Consideration of the Marriage of such Child, and such Child so marrying shall die before the Grantor of such Provision, then and in all such Cases the Provision, or any Part thereof, so settled in Consideration of such Marriage, shall remain and be effectual, as if such Child had survived the Grantor.
