

Court of Session Act 1825

1825 CHAPTER 120 6 Geo 4

13 Of proceeding to the further disposal of the cause. Cases to be adjudged on admission of parties.

After the record of the averments and pleas shall have been adjusted and closed as herein-before directed, and when it shall appear that the parties have respectively admitted on the record all the facts requisite to the decision of the cause, so as to render any trial of the facts unnecessary, the lord ordinary may proceed to decide the cause with or without further argument, or he may take the cause to report to the inner house in the form herein-after appointed.
