Court of Session Act 1825

1825 CHAPTER 120

L   Powers to the Judges of the Court of Session and Jury Court to make Regulations.

And in order to carry into further Execution the Provisions of this Act, and the more effectually to accomplish the Object of it; be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act the Court of Session, together with the Chief Commissioner of the Jury Court, assembled by the Lord President of the Court of Session, shall be and they are hereby empowered and required accordingly to make such Orders and Regulations concerning the Forms of Process, and such Arrangements in respect of Attendance and Hours of doing Business, and generally for regulating the Proceedings both of the Court of Session and of the Jury Court, as may most effectually carry into Execution the Purposes of this Act, and remove any Difficulties which may in the Details of Practice be found to arise in expediting the Business before the said Courts, and of the Court of the Lords Commissioners for Plantation of Kirks and Valuation of Teinds, provided the same be not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act; and the said Judges assembled as above shall also have Power to make such Regulations and Arrangements in respect of the Time and Rotation of the Business in the said Courts, and before Lords Ordinary, as may most effectually secure the due Performance of the respective Duties of the said Courts, and of the Judges thereof; and the said Judges, assembled as before, shall have Power and are hereby required to make such Regulations and Orders relative to the Forms of Proceeding in the High Court of Admiralty, Court of the Commissaries of Edinburgh, and Inferior Courts, as may be best calculated to carry into Execution the Purposes of this Act; and It is hereby provided, that, the said Judges assembled as above may meet for the above Purposes during Vacation, as well as during Session, and that they may alter and amend such Regulations from Time to Time.
