

Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923

CHAPTER 33

UNIVERSITIES OF OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE ACT 1923

- 1 Establishment of Commissions.
- 2—4
- 5 Duration of Commissions.
- 6 Duties of Commissioners.
- 7 Power of Universities and colleges to alter statutes.
- 8 Statutes relating to trusts and college contributions to University purposes.
- 9
- 10 Application for purposes of the Act of certain provisions of 40 & 41 Vict. c. 48.
- 11 Power to establish superannuation funds for certain university and college employees.
- 12 Short title.

SCHEDULE — Provisions of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877, applied for purposes of this Act

- 2 Interpretation.
- 6 Vacancies among Commissioners.
- 8 Chairmen and meetings of Commissioners.
- 9 Seals of Commissioners.
- 10 Vacancies not to invalidate acts.
- 11 Power for University and Colleges to make statutes.
- 14 Regard to main design of founder.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923. (See end of Document for details)

- 15 Provision for education, religion, &c.
- 20 Power to allow continuance of voluntary payments.
- 30 Distinction of University and College Statutes.
- 31 Communication of proposed statutes for University, &c. to Council, &c.
- 32 Publication of proposed statutes for Colleges and Halls.
- 33 Suspension of elections.
- 34 Saving for existing interest.
- 35 Production of documents, &c.
- 36 Election of Commissioners by College. For Hall, Principal to be Commissioner.
- 37 Notice to College or Hall of meeting.
- 38 Validity of acts as regards Colleges and Hall.
- 45 Submission of statutes to His Majesty in Council.
- 46 Petition against statute.
- 47 Reference to Committee.
- 48 Disallowance by Order in Council, or remitting to Commissioners.
- 49 Statutes not referred, or not disallowed or remitted, to be laid before Houses of Parliament.
- 50 Approval of statutes by Order in Council.
- 51 Statutes to be binding and effectual.
- 52 Power in Cambridge for Chancellor to settle doubts as to meaning of University statutes.
- 56 Statutes awaiting submission to His Majesty in Council, or made before cesser of powers of Commissioners.
- 57 Saving for Tests Act.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923.