

Petroleum (Consolidation) Act 1928 (repealed)

1928 CHAPTER 32 18 and 19 Geo 5

Licences for Keeping Petroleum-Spirit

1 Petroleum-spirit not to be kept without a licence.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, petroleum-spirit shall not be kept unless a petroleum-spirit licence is in force under this Act authorising the keeping thereof and the petroleum-spirit is kept in accordance with such conditions, if any, as may be attached to the licence:

Provided that the foregoing provision shall not apply to any petroleum-spirit kept either for private use or for sale so long as—

- (a) it is kept in separate glass, earthenware, or metal vessels, securely stopped and containing not more than one pint each; and
 - (b) the aggregate amount kept would not, if the whole contents of the vessels were in bulk, exceed three gallons.
- (2) The occupier of any premises in which petroleum-spirit is kept in contravention of this section shall be [^{F1}guilty of an offence.]
- (3) If any person to whom a petroleum-spirit licence is granted contravenes any condition of the licence, he shall be [^{F1}guilty of an offence.]

2 Provisions as to licences.

(1) The local authority empowered under this Act to grant petroleum-spirit licences shall be—

- [^{F2}(a) in Greater London or a metropolitan county, the fire authority;]
- (c) elsewhere, [^{F3}the county council]:

Provided that in any harbour within the jurisdiction of a harbour authority, whether situate or not within the jurisdiction of any local authority hereinbefore mentioned, the harbour authority shall be the local authority for granting petroleum-spirit licences to the exclusion of any other local authority.

(2) A petroleum-spirit licence may be granted by a local authority so as to be in force for such time, and subject to such provisions as to renewal, as the local authority think necessary.

(3) A local authority may attach to any petroleum-spirit licence such conditions as they think expedient, as to the mode of storage, the nature and situation of the premises in which, and the nature of the goods with which, petroleum-spirit is to be stored, the facilities for the testing of petroleum-spirit from time to time, and generally as to the safe-keeping of petroleum-spirit.

(4) Where conditions to be observed by persons employed are attached to any petroleum-spirit licence, the occupier of the premises to which the licence relates shall cause to be kept posted on the premises, in such form and in such position as to be easily read by the persons employed on the premises, a notice setting out those conditions, and

- (a) if the occupier of any premises fails to comply with the foregoing requirements of this subsection, he shall be [^{F4}guilty of an offence]; and
- (b) if any person pulls down, . . . [^{F5}any notice posted in accordance with the requirements of this subsection, he shall be [^{F4}guilty of an offence]; and
- (c) if any person employed contravenes any condition of which notice has been given in accordance with the requirements of this subsection, he shall be [^{F4}guilty of an offence].

17 Powers of officers of local authorities as to testing petroleum-spirit.

- (1) Any officer authorised by a local authority empowered under this Act to grant petroleum-spirit licences—
 - (a) may purchase samples of any petroleum from any dealer therein or from any person who keeps petroleum for the purposes of any trade or industry, or may on producing a copy of his appointment purporting to be signed by the clerk or secretary of the local authority require the dealer or other person to show him every place and any vessels in which petroleum in his possession is kept and to give him samples of such petroleum on payment of the value thereof; and
 - (b) may test or cause to be tested at any convenient place and at such reasonable time as he may appoint any samples so obtained by him.
- (2) Any such officer shall, before testing or causing to be tested any samples under the last foregoing subsection, give to the dealer or other person from whom they were obtained notice in writing of the place and time at which they are to be tested, and the dealer or other person or any person appointed by him may be present at the testing.
- (3) If it appears to the person testing any samples of petroleum obtained under this section that the petroleum is petroleum-spirit, he may give a certificate in writing to that effect, and a certificate so given shall be received in evidence in any proceedings under this Act against the person from whom the samples were obtained, so, however, that if, after hearing any evidence given by or on behalf of that person, the court before which the proceedings are taken is not satisfied as to the correctness of the certificate, the court may appoint some person skilled in testing petroleum to test the samples to which the certificate relates and to report whether the certificate is correct or not.
- (4) Any expenses incurred in testing any samples of petroleum under this section shall, if the person from whom the samples were obtained is convicted of keeping, sending, conveying, selling, or exposing or offering for sale petroleum-spirit in contravention of this Act, be paid by that person, and shall be recoverable as part of the costs of the proceedings against him, but in every other case shall be paid by the local authority.

- (5) If any dealer in petroleum or person who keeps petroleum for the purposes of any trade or industry, by himself or by anyone in his employ or acting by his direction or with his consent, refuses to show to an officer authorised by the local authority any place or vessel in which petroleum in his possession is kept, or to give to such an officer such assistance as he may require for examining any such place or vessel, or to give him samples of such petroleum on payment of the value thereof, or wilfully obstructs the local authority or any officer thereof acting in the execution of this Act, that dealer or other person shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F19}level 2 on the standard scale].

18 Warrants to search for and seize petroleum-spirit.

- (1) If a court of summary jurisdiction is satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that any petroleum-spirit is being kept, sent, conveyed, or exposed or offered for sale within the jurisdiction of the court in contravention of this Act, the court shall grant a search warrant authorising any person named therein to enter and examine any place, ship or vehicle named in the warrant and to search for and take samples of petroleum therein and to seize and remove any petroleum-spirit that he may find therein kept, sent, conveyed, or exposed or offered for sale in contravention of this Act, and the vessel containing any such petroleum-spirit, and to detain such petroleum-spirit and vessel until a court of summary jurisdiction has determined whether or not they are to be forfeited.
- (2) Where any petroleum-spirit or vessel is seized by virtue of a warrant granted under this section—
- proceedings shall be commenced forthwith for determining whether or not it is to be forfeited; and
 - the person seizing it shall not be liable to any proceedings for detaining it or for any loss or damage incurred in respect thereof except where the loss or damage is due to any wilful act or neglect while the petroleum-spirit or vessel is so detained; and
 - in the case of any petroleum-spirit or vessel seized in any ship or vehicle, the person seizing it may for the purposes of the removal thereof use, during twenty-four hours after the seizure, the ship or vehicle in which it was seized, with the tackle, beasts and accoutrements belonging thereto, but if he do so shall pay to the owner of the ship or vehicle reasonable compensation for the use thereof: the amount of such compensation shall, in default of agreement, be assessed by the court of summary jurisdiction before which proceedings are taken for determining whether or not the petroleum-spirit or vessel is to be forfeited, and may be recovered in like manner as fines under this Act may be recovered.
- (3) If any person by himself or by anyone in his employ or acting by his direction or with his consent refuses or fails to admit into any place, ship or vehicle occupied by him

23 Interpretation.

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them (that is to say):—

“Amenities,” in relation to any place, includes any view of or from that place:

“Canal” and “canal company” have respectively the same meanings as in the ^{M5}Regulation of Railways Act 1873:

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Petroleum (Consolidation) Act 1928 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

“Contravention” includes, in relation to any provision, a failure to comply with that provision, and the expression “contravene” shall be construed accordingly:

“Dock” includes any pier, jetty or other place, in or at which ships can ship or unship goods or passengers:

F25

“Harbour” means any harbour, whether natural or artificial, and any port, haven, estuary, tidal or other river, canal or inland navigation navigated by sea-going ships and, subject to the provisions of this Act, any dock:

“Harbour authority” means any person or body of persons in whom are vested by or under any Act of Parliament powers and duties of improving, maintaining or managing a harbour, so, however, that where, as respects any dock within a harbour, such powers and duties are separately vested by or under any Act of Parliament in any person or body of persons, that person or body shall, as respects that dock, be the harbour authority, and the dock shall be deemed to be a separate harbour:

“I.W.G.” means the denominations of standards approved by Order in Council made under the ^{M6}Weights and Measures Act 1878, and dated the twenty-third day of August, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, known as the “Imperial Wire Gauge”:

“Licensed premises” means any premises in respect of which a petroleum-spirit licence is in force under this Act:

“Motor vehicles” includes all mechanically-propelled vehicles intended or adapted for use on roads:

“Petroleum” includes crude petroleum, oil made from petroleum, or from coal, shale, peat or other bituminous substances, and other products of petroleum:

“Petroleum filling station” means any premises or place used or intended to be used by way of trade or for purposes of gain for fuelling motor vehicles with petroleum, and includes any building, advertisement, pump or other apparatus in, or used in connection with, any such premises:

“Petroleum-spirit” means such petroleum as when tested in the manner set forth in Part II of the Second Schedule to this Act gives off an inflammable vapour at a temperature of less than seventy-three degrees Fahrenheit:

“Petroleum-spirit licence” means a licence authorising the keeping of petroleum-spirit granted by a local authority empowered under this Act to grant such a licence or by the Secretary of State [^{F26}or by the Health and Safety Executive]:

“Ship” includes every description of vessel used in navigation, whether propelled by oars or otherwise
