

Road Traffic Act 1930

1930 CHAPTER 43

PART III

AMENDMENT OF LAW RELATING TO HIGHWAYS.

55 Power of certain authorities as to refuges and subways.

The council of an urban district as respects any road in their area (subject, however, in the case of a county road not vested in them, to the consent of the county council) and a highway authority as respects any road vested in them may, for the purpose of protecting traffic along the road from danger or of making the crossing of any road less dangerous to foot passengers, erect, light, maintain, alter and remove places of refuge in the road, and construct, light, maintain, alter, remove and temporarily close subways under the road for the use of foot passengers.
