

Whaling Industry (Regulation) Act 1934

CHAPTER 49

WHALING INDUSTRY (REGULATION) ACT 1934

- 1 Description of whales to which the Act applies
- 2 Prohibition of catching or treating whales within United Kingdom waters
- 3 Protection for certain classes of whales
- 4 Whaling ships and whale-oil factories to be licensed
- 5 Grant of licences
- 6 Conditions attached to licences
- 7 Permits to take and treat whales for scientific purposes
- 8 Powers of whale fishery inspectors
- 9 Forgery of documents
- 10 Legal proceedings
- 11 Application to non-British ships registered in colonies, and c
- 12 Exemption of whaling operations carried on in coastal waters of certain British possessions, and c
- 13 Extension to British possessions, and c
- 14 Exercise of Board of Trade's powers by other persons
- 15 Powers of certain Dominions and India to legislate extra-territorially as respects their ships
- 16 Expenses, and application of fees and fines
- 17 Interpretation and saving for certain enactments
- 18 Incidental provision as to regulations and orders
- 19 Short title and commencement

SCHEDULE — Names of Whales
PART I

Right Whales

PART II

Blue Whales

PART III

Fin Whales