

Land Settlement (Scotland) Act 1919

1919 CHAPTER 97

PART I

PROVISIONS AS TO THE ACQUISITION OF LAND

2 Acquisition of land for reclamation or drainage

With the consent of the Secretary for Scotland and the Treasury, the Board may, during the period of two years after the passing of this Act, acquire land, by agreement or compulsorily, for reclamation or drainage, and subsection (4) of section one and section three of the Small Holding Colonies Act, 1916 (which relate to the acquisition of land by agreement under that Act) shall apply for the purposes of this section.
