SCHEDULES

FOURTH SCHEDULE

PROVISIONS CORRESPONDING TO CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ACTS, 1931 TO 1934

PART IV

INCIDENTAL PROVISIONS WITH RESPECT TO REVOCATION OF MARKETING SCHEMES

- 1 Where a marketing scheme is revoked by a subsequent scheme, the subsequent scheme may provide for the transfer to the new board of the whole or any part of the property, rights and liabilities of the existing board, for the continuation by or against the new board of any legal proceedings instituted by or against the existing board which are pending at the time of the revocation, and for the dissolution, without winding-up, of the existing board.

In this paragraph the expression " the new board " means the board administering the subsequent scheme, and the expression " the existing board " means the board administering the scheme revoked.
- 2 The Ministers shall by order revoke a marketing scheme if an order is made for the winding-up of the board.
- 3 The board administering a marketing scheme shall not be deemed to be dissolved by reason only that the scheme has been revoked, and (except in a case where the board is dissolved without winding-up under paragraph 1 of this Part of this Schedule) so much of the scheme as relates to the winding-up of the board shall continue in force notwithstanding the revocation.
- 4 Where a marketing scheme or any provision of such a scheme is revoked, subsection (2) of section thirty-eight of the Interpretation Act, 1889, (which relates to the effect of repeals) shall apply as if the revocation of the scheme or of that provision, as the case may be, were the repeal of an enactment by another Act.
