

---

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Wellington Museum Act 1947, Cross Heading: Portions of Apsley House to be used as museum. (See end of Document for details)

---

SCHEDULES

SECOND SCHEDULE U.K.

PART I U.K.

Portions of Apsley House to be used as museum

The portions of the ground and first floors of Apsley House and of the basement of Apsley House, shown in red on the plan in the possession of the Treasury Solicitor, identified by the signatures of the Treasury Solicitor on behalf of the Crown and of C. D. Webb, Esquire on behalf of His Grace the seventh Duke of Wellington, as being the plan indicating the portions of Apsley House which are to be used for the Wellington Museum.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Wellington Museum Act 1947, Cross
Heading: Portions of Apsley House to be used as museum.