SECOND SCHEDULE

Section 10

PROVISIONS CONSEQUENTIAL ON CHANGES IN COMMISSION OF THE PEACE

Interpretation

- 1 (1) In this Schedule in relation to a time before the coming into force of section ten of this Act—
- (a) the expression " county " includes a riding or division of a county having a separate commission of the peace, the liberty of the Isle of Ely and the Soke of Peterborough, but does not include a county of a city or a town;
 - (b) references to the county in which a borough is situated, in the case of a borough which is a county of a city or a town, refer to the county by which it is surrounded or which it adjoins.
- (2) In this Schedule the expression " Hampshire" means the administrative county of Southampton and the expression " county of Southampton" (except in this subparagraph) means the entire county of Southampton inclusive of the Isle of Wight.
- (3) In this Schedule the expression " borough losing its commission " means any non-county borough which has an existing commission of the peace but is not mentioned in the Third Schedule to this Act or in any order of the Lord Chancellor under section ten of this Act.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Continuance of existing commissions, etc.

- 2 (1) The existing commission of the peace for any county and the supplemental list kept in connection therewith shall have effect for the county within the meaning of subsection (1) of section ten of this Act, and any existing appointment made in connection with the commission (including that of custos rotulorum and of any justice appointed otherwise than by the commission) and any existing appointment made by or in connection with any court of quarter sessions for the county or any division thereof shall have effect accordingly.
- (2) The schedule to any existing commission of the peace for a borough losing its commission, or for the liberty of Ripon, and the supplemental list kept in connection with any such commission shall be treated for the purposes of the foregoing sub-paragraph as having formed part respectively of the schedule to the existing commission of the peace for the county in which the borough or liberty is situated and of the supplemental list kept in connection with that commission.
- (3) The foregoing sub-paragraphs shall apply in relation to East and West Suffolk, to East and West Sussex and to Hampshire and the Isle of Wight as if they had been separate counties for the purposes of justices before the coming into force of section ten of this Act, and as if the existing commissions of the peace for the counties of Suffolk, Sussex and Southampton respectively had been issued separately for each of the two divisions thereof referred to in this sub-paragraph and the supplemental list kept in connection with any of those commissions had been a list for each of the two divisions.
- (4) With respect to any such appointments in the counties of Suffolk, Sussex and Southampton as are referred to in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph the following provisions shall have effect:—
- (a) the appointment of a custos rotulorum shall have effect as if made for each division of the county;
 - (b) any other appointments relating to the whole county shall have effect in Suffolk and Sussex as if made for each division thereof, and in the county of Southampton (subject to the following provisions of this Schedule) as if made for Hampshire;
 - (c) appointments made by the court of quarter sessions for the county of Southampton shall have effect as if made by a court of quarter sessions for the division to which they relate or, if they relate to the whole county, by a court of quarter sessions for Hampshire.
- 3 (1) The existing commission of the peace for any of the cinque ports, other than a borough losing its commission, shall have effect for the borough only exclusive of any part of the members and liberties of the cinque port outside the limits of the borough; and any supplemental list kept in connection therewith, the existing grant of quarter sessions to the borough and any appointment in connection with the commission or grant shall have effect accordingly.
- (2) This paragraph shall apply in relation to the ancient town of Rye as if it were one of the cinque ports.
- 4 A person who has taken the oaths required by law as justice of the peace for any area shall not be required to take any oath on becoming by virtue of any of the foregoing paragraphs a justice of the peace for a different area.

Petty sessional divisions

- 5 (1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph the existing petty sessional divisions of any county shall form petty sessional divisions of the county within the meaning of subsection (1) of section ten of this Act.
- (2) Subject to the next following sub-paragraph the existing petty sessional divisions of Suffolk, and the existing petty sessional divisions of Sussex, shall respectively form petty sessional divisions of East Suffolk or West Suffolk and of East Sussex or West Sussex according to their situation and the existing petty sessional divisions of the county of Southampton, except the Isle of Wight division, shall form petty sessional divisions of Hampshire.
- (3) The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to an existing petty sessional division consisting of, or wholly comprised in, a county borough or a borough losing its commission; and, where any existing petty sessional division of a county includes the whole or part of any such borough in addition to an area not situated in any such borough, the said provisions shall apply to that area as if it were an existing petty sessional division in itself.
- 6 (1) Where by virtue of paragraph 2 of this Schedule the existing justices for a borough become justices for a county, the borough shall become a petty sessional division of that county.
- (2) Each of the existing petty sessional divisions of the liberty of Ripon, exclusive of any part of the borough of Ripon included therein, shall become a petty sessional division of the West Riding of Yorkshire.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall apply to the boroughs of Ryde and Newport in the Isle of Wight, notwithstanding that the Island is not otherwise divided into petty sessional divisions, and the remainder of the Island shall become a separate petty sessional division thereof.
- 7 Where in a county divided into petty sessional divisions any area not included in a borough having a separate commission of the peace does not form part of an existing petty sessional division of the county, and neither of the two last foregoing paragraphs applies to it, it shall, as the Secretary of State may by order direct, become either a petty sessional division of the county or a part of such petty sessional division thereof as may be so directed.

Existing clerks to justices

- 8 (1) The justices' clerk for any existing petty sessional division of a county shall become justices' clerk for any petty sessional division formed out of the first mentioned division or any part thereof under paragraph 5 or sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 6 of this Schedule.
- (2) Where by virtue of paragraph 2 of this Schedule the existing justices for a borough become justices for a county, the existing clerk to those justices shall become justices' clerk for the petty sessional "division consisting of the borough.
- (3) The justices' clerk for each of the existing petty sessional divisions of the liberty of Ripon shall become justices' clerk for the corresponding petty sessional division of the West Riding of Yorkshire.
- (4) Subject to this Act, a person who becomes justices' clerk for a petty sessional division by virtue of this paragraph shall continue to receive remuneration equal to his existing remuneration until otherwise determined in accordance with the provisions applicable to clerks to county justices.

- (5) Where by virtue of this paragraph a person (whether a justices' clerk or employed by a justices' clerk) becomes a contributory employee under a county council instead of a borough council, he shall be entitled to the benefit of subsection (1) of section thirteen of the Local Government Superannuation Act, 1937 (which provides for reckoning previous service under a different authority), without giving the information required by the proviso to that subsection.
- (6) In the case of a person who before the coming into force of section ten of this Act has been a contributory employee by virtue of section twenty of the said Act of 1937, or any corresponding provision of a local Act scheme, any rules made under section one of the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1948 (which relates to national service), so far as they refer to an employment in which he was a contributory employee as aforesaid and which he left before the coming into force of the said section ten, shall have effect as if the said section ten had not been passed.

Coroners

- 9 (1) Any existing coroner appointed under the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, for a borough losing its commission shall become a coroner for the county in which the borough is situated, and any existing appointment of a person as his deputy or assistant deputy shall have effect accordingly.
- (2) A person who becomes a county coroner by virtue of this paragraph shall continue to receive a salary equal to his existing salary, until otherwise determined in accordance with the provisions applicable to county coroners.
- (3) Where a person becomes a county coroner by virtue of this paragraph, his service as coroner of the borough shall count as service as coroner of the county for the purpose of section six of the Coroners (Amendment) Act, 1926 (which relates to superannuation); and if he held office as coroner of the borough at the commencement of that Act that section shall apply to him as county coroner if, but only if, it applied to him as borough coroner.
- (4) The abolition by this Act of the court of quarter sessions of Faversham shall not extend to Faversham the jurisdiction, powers or authority of the coroner of Dover. '
- 10 (1) Where by virtue of the last foregoing paragraph the coroner of a borough becomes coroner of a county, the borough shall become a coroner's district of the county and the district shall be deemed to have been assigned to him.
- (2) The foregoing sub-paragraph shall apply notwithstanding that there are no existing coroners' districts in the county, and in that case the area for which the existing county coroner acted shall also be deemed to be a coroner's district and to have been assigned to him.
- (3) Sections five, nineteen and twenty of the Coroners Act, 1844 (which relate to the assignment of districts to county coroners and to the residence and jurisdiction of the county coroners within districts assigned to them), shall apply to districts formed by virtue of this paragraph and the coroners deemed to have been assigned thereto as they apply in other cases:

Provided that this sub-paragraph shall not require a former borough coroner to change his existing residence.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) The Secretary of State shall not make an order under section twelve of the Coroners (Amendment) Act, 1926 (which relates to the alteration of coroners' districts), so as to affect any district formed by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph so long as the former borough coroner holds office for that district and objects to the order.

Sheriffs

- 11 (1) In the application of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, to any sheriff or under sheriff for a county which includes two counties within the meaning of section ten of this Act, references to a justice of the peace for the county in the following provisions, that is to say—
- (a) section seven and subsection (3) of section twenty-three (which relate to the making of a declaration of office before a justice); and
 - (b) section seventeen (which precludes the sheriff from acting as a justice);
- shall be taken as references to a justice for either of the said two counties, and the reference in subsection (1) of section thirty (which provides for filing the declaration of office) to the clerk of the peace for the county shall be taken as a reference to the clerk of the peace having the custody of the records which include the declarations made before the coming into force of section ten of this Act.
- (2) In the application of the said Act to any sheriff or under sheriff of any borough which is a borough losing its commission, but is a county of a city or a town, the said references shall be taken as references to a justice of the peace or the clerk of the peace, as the case may be, of the county within the meaning of section ten of this Act in which the borough is situated, and in the case of any such borough any jurisdiction conferred by the said Act on the recorder or court of quarter sessions of the borough may be exercised by the court of quarter sessions for the said county.

Jurors

- 12 Any provision of this Act extending or limiting the area in which a court of quarter sessions has jurisdiction shall have effect also for the purpose of jurors to serve at that court.

Special provisions for Hampshire and Isle of Wight

- 13 (1) The court of quarter sessions for the Isle of Wight shall not have jurisdiction to deal—
- (a) with any person committed for trial or sentence before the date of the coming into force of section ten of this Act; or
 - (b) with any appeal brought (whether before that date or not) from a conviction, sentence, order or decision before that date, except an appeal against conviction brought by a person who is sentenced or committed for sentence in pursuance of the conviction after that date;
- and the court of quarter sessions for Hampshire shall have the same jurisdiction to deal with any such person as is mentioned in paragraph (a) of this sub-paragraph and any such appeal as is mentioned in paragraph (b) thereof as if it were a court of quarter sessions for the county of Southampton.
- (2) The justices for the Isle of Wight shall as soon as practicable after the coming into force of the said section ten hold a special sessions at which—
- (a) they shall appoint a chairman of the court of quarter sessions for the Island, unless they determine to apply to the Lord Chancellor for the appointment of a legally qualified chairman under section one of the Administration of Justice (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1938;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) they shall appoint a clerk of the peace for the Island;
- (c) they shall fix the times for holding quarter sessions for the Island in accordance with section twenty-two of the Criminal Justice Act, 1925;
- (d) they shall make such other appointments and transact such other business (being appointments or business which a court of quarter sessions for a county has power to make or transact) as appear to them to be required before the first meeting of the court of quarter sessions for the Island.

- (3) The justices for the Isle of Wight shall not be required to hold a court of quarter sessions before the expiration of three months from the coming into force of the said section ten or have power by virtue of anything in paragraph (d) of the last foregoing sub-paragraph to deal at the special sessions required by that sub-paragraph with any person committed for trial or sentence or with any appeal.
- (4) Notwithstanding the general provision of this Schedule limiting to Hampshire any appointments made for the whole county of Southampton by the court of quarter sessions thereof, any committee appointed by that court to act for the purposes of the Licensing (Consolidation) Act, 1910, as compensation or confirming authority for the county of Southampton shall, until the expiration of one year from the beginning of the last Epiphany sessions for the county of Southampton, continue to act as aforesaid as if the county of Southampton remained one county for purposes of justices and as if the justices for Hampshire and the justices for the Isle of Wight were justices for the county of Southampton:

Provided that casual vacancies on any such committee shall be filled by the court of quarter sessions for Hampshire.

- (5) Notwithstanding the general provision referred to in the last foregoing sub-paragraph, the following provisions shall have effect with respect to appointments made under the Lunacy Act, 1890, by the court of quarter sessions for the county of Southampton, namely—
 - (a) any appointment under section ten of that Act of a justice to make reception orders, if at the coming into force of section ten of this Act the justice is resident in the Isle of Wight, shall have effect for the Island as if made by a court of quarter sessions for the Island, and shall not have effect for Hampshire unless the justice is then resident in Hampshire too; and
 - (b) until the expiration of one year from the beginning of the last Michaelmas quarter sessions for the county of Southampton, the visitors of licensed houses appointed under section one hundred and seventy-seven of that Act shall continue to act as such for the whole county of Southampton as if it remained one county for purposes of justices and as if the justices for Hampshire and the justices for the Isle of Wight were justices for the county of Southampton, so, however, that any power or duty of quarter sessions in relation to the visitors shall belong to the court of quarter sessions for Hampshire and any reference to the clerk of the peace in relation to the visitors shall be construed as a reference to the clerk of the peace for Hampshire.
- (6) As at the date when the committee referred to in sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph ceases to act as compensation authority for the county of Southampton, the assets standing to the credit of the accounts of Hampshire and of the Isle of Wight in the compensation fund of the said authority shall respectively become assets of the compensation funds of the compensation authority for Hampshire and of the compensation authority for the Isle of Wight, and any rights or liabilities of the authority for the county of Southampton in respect of their fund shall vest in the authority for Hampshire or the authority for the Isle of Wight accordingly.

- (7) Any buildings which at the coming into force of section ten of this Act are vested in or held in trust for the Hampshire and Isle of Wight county councils jointly and are used in connection with assizes or with quarter sessions shall pass to, vest in and be held in trust for the Hampshire county council alone, and there shall cease to have effect any special provision made in relation to quarter sessions by the order constituting the Isle of Wight a separate county and confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Order Confirmation (No. 2) Act, 1889.
- (8) In determining the costs of assizes for the purposes of the said order, the expenses of the Hampshire county council in respect of any buildings which besides being used in connection with assizes are used in connection with the Hampshire quarter sessions or for administrative purposes of that council shall be treated as costs of assizes so far only as may be determined by agreement between the Hampshire and Isle of Wight county councils or, in default of agreement, by arbitration.
- (9) There shall also be determined as aforesaid any other question arising between those councils with respect to their property and liabilities in consequence of the coming into force of section ten of this Act.

Property and liabilities

- 14 (1) Where by virtue of paragraph 2 of this Schedule the existing justices for a borough become justices for a county, the borough council shall continue to provide, on such terms as may be agreed between them and the county council or, in default of agreement, may be determined by the Secretary of State, the accommodation and other things required for the due transaction of the business, and convenient keeping of the records and documents, of the justices for the petty sessional division consisting of the borough.
- (2) This paragraph shall apply until the coming into force of section twenty-five of this Act and, unless otherwise agreed between the county and borough councils with the approval of the magistrates' courts committee acting for the county, until the expiration of one year thereafter.
- 15 (1) Where by virtue of paragraph 9 of this Schedule, the existing coroner for a borough becomes coroner for a county, the borough council shall continue, on such terms as may be agreed between them and the county council or, in default of agreement, may be determined by the Secretary of State, to allow the coroner the use of any accommodation of which they allowed him the use as borough coroner.
- (2) Unless otherwise agreed between the county and borough councils, this paragraph shall apply until the expiration of one year from its coming into force.
- 16 Subject to the three last foregoing paragraphs His Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision with respect to the apportionment and transfer of property and liabilities, and with respect to the making or revision of any equitable adjustment between county and borough councils, as appears to Him to be necessary or expedient in consequence of the abolition by this Act of any commission of the peace or grant of quarter sessions, or of any change made by this Act in the area in which any court of quarter sessions or justices have jurisdiction.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Power to make supplementary provisions

- 17 (1) His Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision as appears to Him necessary or expedient to avoid interruption or inconvenience in the administration of justice or the discharge of other functions of justices (including recorders) in consequence of the establishment or abolition by this Act of any commission of the peace or court of quarter sessions, or of any change made by this Act in the area in which any court of quarter sessions or justices have jurisdiction.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing sub-paragraph, any Order in Council made thereunder may include provision—
- (a) as to the exercise of any jurisdiction conferred on any justices in or out of quarter sessions (including a recorder) by any Act or other instrument;
 - (b) as to the effect of process issued, orders made, appeals brought, cases stated, licences granted and other things done before the establishment, abolition or change;
 - (c) as to the preservation and custody of writs, process, records and documents;
 - (d) where a borough ceases to have a recorder, as to the person who is to take his place as judge of any court for the trial of civil actions.
- (3) Where it appears to His Majesty that any court with respect to which He has power to make provision as mentioned in paragraph (d) of the last foregoing sub-paragraph is disused, the Order in Council may provide for the abolition of the court instead of for the appointment of a judge thereto.
- (4) An Order in Council under this paragraph may provide for enabling any recorder or justices to continue for such period as may be specified in the Order to act, either generally or in the exercise of a particular jurisdiction or to such other extent as may be so specified, as if this Act had not been passed, and may make incidental and supplementary provision for that purpose, including provision for continuing the appointment, powers and duties of any officer and for adapting enactments relating to the payment of expenses (including the remuneration of a recorder or of any officer) or to the filling of casual vacancies on any committee or body consisting of or including justices.

Savings on separation of counties and county boroughs

- 18 (1) Where any existing enactment contains, in relation to justices of the peace, a reference to a particular county which at the passing of this Act is treated for purposes of justices as including any county borough, His Majesty may by Order in Council direct that the enactment shall apply in relation to the county borough as it applies in relation to the county, if it appears to Him expedient so to do for the purpose of giving effect to the intention of that enactment.
- (2) An Order in Council made under the foregoing sub-paragraph with respect to any enactment may direct, that notwithstanding paragraph 2 of this Schedule, any existing appointment for the county made under or for the purposes of the enactment shall have effect for the county borough as well as for the county.
- 19 For the purpose of the jurisdiction of the chancellor, vice-chancellor and deputy vice-chancellor of the University of Oxford as justices of the peace for the county of Oxford, and of that of any other justices for that county sitting with them or any of them at a courthouse appointed under the Oxford University (Justices) Act, 1886, the county borough of Oxford shall continue to be treated as forming part of the county of Oxford.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Saving for Soke of Peterborough

- 20 The justices for the Soke of Peterborough shall, by virtue of the commission of the peace and without any further commission, have within the county the same jurisdiction as before the coming into force of section ten of this Act the justices for the liberty had within the liberty by virtue of the commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery customarily issued to those justices, but as respects any matters within their competence as justices of the peace shall act as such and not as justices of oyer and terminer or justices of gaol delivery.

Saving for Romney Marsh

- 21 Nothing in this Act shall affect the election, appointment or functions of any member or officer of the reputed corporation of the bailiff, jurats and commonalty of Romney Marsh, or of the reputed corporation of the lords, bailiff and jurats of Romney Marsh, except that no person shall by virtue of any such election or appointment be a justice of the peace for Romney Marsh or exercise any functions attached by charter or otherwise to the office of such a justice and for the purpose of any such functions the liberty of Romney Marsh shall merge in the county of Kent and for the purpose of coroners become part of the Hythe coroner's district.

CONSTITUTION ETC, OF MAGISTRATES' COURTS COMMITTEES

Constitution, establishment etc. of committees

- 1 (1) Subject to the next following sub-paragraph, a magistrates' courts committee shall be composed of magistrates for the county or borough for which the committee acts or, in the case of a committee for a joint committee area, each such county or borough.
- (2) The custos rotulorum of a county shall by virtue of his office be a member of any magistrates' courts committee acting for the county or any division thereof.
- (3) The chairman of the court of quarter sessions for a county or a quarter sessions division of a county shall by virtue of his office be a member of the magistrates' courts committee acting for the county or division:
- Provided that, if the chairman is unwilling to be a member the deputy chairman or, if there are two or more deputy chairmen, one of them nominated by the chairman shall, if willing, be a member in the place of the chairman.
- (4) The magistrates' courts committee for a county divided into petty sessional divisions, or for a joint committee area including such a county, shall consist (in addition to the ex officio members and, in the case of a joint committee area, to the members from other parts of the area) of one magistrate chosen from amongst themselves by the magistrates for each of the petty sessional divisions of the county and one magistrate chosen from amongst themselves by the magistrates for each of the non-county boroughs (if any) in the county which have a separate commission of the peace but no separate magistrates' courts committee.
- (5) The magistrates' courts committee for a county not divided into petty sessional divisions or for a borough shall consist (in addition, in the case of a county, to the ex officio members) of such number of magistrates chosen by the magistrates of the county or borough as they may determine.
- (6) The magistrates' courts committee for a joint committee area which includes a county not divided into petty sessional divisions or a county borough shall consist (in addition to the ex officio members from any such county included in the area and to the members from other parts of the area) of such number of magistrates chosen from amongst themselves by the magistrates for the county or borough as may for the time being determined by or in accordance with the order directing that the area shall be a joint committee area.

- (7) The Secretary of State may by statutory instrument make general regulations (subject, except as hereinafter mentioned, to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph) about the constitution and quorum of magistrates' courts committees.
- (8) The regulations may—
- (a) lay down upper and lower limits for the number of members of which the committee for a county not divided into petty sessional divisions or for a borough may be composed; and
 - (b) direct that where, in a county divided into petty sessional divisions, the total number of the divisions and of the boroughs referred to in sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph is less than that specified in the regulations, there shall from each division or borough be such number of members on any magistrates' courts committee acting for the county as may be so specified (the number being the same for all the divisions and boroughs).
- (9) The Secretary of State may give general or special directions with respect to summoning the first meetings of magistrates' courts committees.
- 2 (1) There shall be a single magistrates' courts committee for a joint committee area if, but only if, the area is for the time being directed by an order of the Secretary of State to be a joint committee area.
- (2) No order directing that an area shall be a joint committee area shall be made except on the application of the magistrates for each county or county borough included in the area.
- 3 (1) There shall be a separate magistrates' courts committee for a non-county borough having a separate commission of the peace and a population at the time of the establishment of the committee of sixty-five thousand or over, if, but only if, it is for the time being so directed by an order of the Secretary of State.
- (2) No order directing that there shall be, or shall cease to be, a separate magistrates' courts committee for such a borough shall be made except on the application of the magistrates for the borough.
- 4 (1) A quarter sessions division of a county shall be treated for the purpose of the establishment and functions of a magistrates' courts committee as a separate county if, but only if, it is for the time being directed to be so treated by an order of the Secretary of State.
- (2) No order directing that a quarter sessions division of a county shall be, or shall cease to be, treated as a separate county shall be made except on the application of the magistrates for each division of the county.
- 5 (1) Subject to the following sub-paragraphs, the magistrates for a county or a quarter sessions division of a county shall act for the purpose of any of the foregoing paragraphs at quarter sessions.
- (2) Where a county is divided into quarter sessions divisions and those divisions are not for the time being directed to be treated as separate counties, the magistrates for the county shall act for the purposes of paragraph 2 of this Schedule at a joint sessions for the whole county held for the purpose.

- (3) The Secretary of State may give such directions as he thinks fit for removing any difficulties as to the summoning of a sessions required by the last foregoing sub-paragraph, and a sessions summoned in accordance with his directions shall be deemed to have been duly summoned.
- 6 Any order of the Secretary of State under paragraph 2, 3 or 4 of this Schedule may, if it relates to an area for which a magistrates' courts committee is already acting, contain such consequential and transitional provisions for the preservation of rights and liabilities of that committee or otherwise as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient.

Proceedings etc., of Committees

- 7 A magistrates' courts committee shall be a body corporate.
- 8 The proceedings of a magistrates' courts committee shall not be invalidated by reason of any vacancy therein or of any defect in the appointment of a member.
- 9 (1) A magistrates' courts committee shall appoint one of the members to be chairman of the committee and, subject to the following sub-paragraph, shall also appoint a clerk to the committee and may appoint such other officers (if any) as the Secretary of State may approve.
- (2) Where there is a separate magistrates' courts committee for a borough or for a county not divided into petty sessional divisions, the clerk to the borough or county justices shall by virtue of his office be the clerk to the committee.
- 10 A magistrates' courts committee may act through subcommittees appointed by them.
- 11 Subject to the provisions of this Act a magistrates' courts committee shall have power to regulate its own procedure including quorum.

FIFTH SCHEDULE

Section 22.

MODIFICATIONS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT SUPERANNUATION
ACT, 1937, IN RELATION TO JUSTICES' CLERKS AND THEIR STAFF

PART I

GENERAL MODIFICATIONS

- 1 (1) Paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section three of the 1937 Act (which relates to the servants and part time officers who are to be contributory employees) shall not apply, but a justices' clerk who is a part time officer shall be a contributory employee if—
- (a) he is a justices' clerk of any such class or description as may be specified for the purposes of this paragraph by order of the Secretary of State; or
 - (b) the magistrates' courts committee appointing him determine, with the prior approval of the council, that he shall be a contributory employee.
- (2) A statutory instrument containing an order made for the purposes of this paragraph shall be subject to annulment by resolution of either House of Parliament.

- 2 The appropriate superannuation fund in relation to any employment shall be that in the benefits of which contributory employees of the council are entitled to participate, and subsections (1) and (2) of section four of the 1937 Act shall not apply.
- 3 (1) There shall be paid by the council—
- (a) the equivalent contributions of the employing authority under subsection (2) of section six of the 1937 Act and any payment required from the employing authority under that subsection by virtue of any scheme under section twenty-two of that Act;
 - (b) the sums required by subsection (4) of section eight of the 1937 Act to be repaid to the appropriate superannuation fund in respect of any resolution of the magistrates' courts committee under subsection (2) of that section increasing a person's superannuation allowance;
 - (c) any gratuity granted by the magistrates' courts committee under section eleven of the 1937 Act;
- and references to the employing authority in those sections and in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section twenty-one of the 1937 Act shall be construed accordingly.
- (2) The council may make the same deductions (if any) under subsection (3) of section six of the 1937 Act from a person's remuneration for any employment as if they were the employing authority.
- (3) Subsection (4) of section six of the 1937 Act (which requires an employee to deliver a statement of remuneration received from outside sources) shall not apply.
- (4) Any regulations under subsection (6) of section thirty-six of the 1937 Act with respect to the administrative action to be taken by local authorities may provide for anything to be done by or to the council where apart from this provision they could provide for it to be done by or to the magistrates' courts committee.
- 4 (1) Where a justices' clerk on attaining the age of sixty-five years has not completed forty years' service, then (in relation to his employment as justices' clerk) for any reference to that age in the 1937 Act, except in subsection (1) of section eight (which relates to eligibility for pension whether on voluntary or compulsory retirement), there shall be substituted a reference to the age of seventy or the age at which he completes forty years' service, whichever is the earlier.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph, one half only of any non-contributing service shall be taken into account.
- 5 No gratuity shall be granted by a magistrates' courts committee under subsection (1) of section eleven of the 1937 Act to an employee on his ceasing to be employed by them in an employment in respect of which he was not immediately before he ceased to be employed therein a contributory employee.
- 6 A person's remuneration for any employment where he has more than one and does not receive separate remuneration for that employment, shall be taken to be that part of his entire remuneration which is paid by the council or, where the remuneration for more than one employment is paid by the same council, such part of that remuneration as may be agreed between him and the council or as, in default of agreement, may be determined by the Secretary of State.
- 7 (1) Any action taken by a magistrates' courts committee in increasing a person's superannuation allowance under the proviso to paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section eight of the 1937 Act, or in directing any sum to be paid out of the appropriate superannuation fund in respect of a person's contributions thereto under subsection (4) of section ten of the 1937 Act, or in granting a gratuity under section eleven of the 1937 Act, shall forthwith be reported by them to the council.

- (2) If the council is dissatisfied with the action they may appeal against it to the Secretary of State whose decision shall be final.

8 Any provisions of a local Act which amend the 1937 Act may be adapted by order of the Minister of Health.

9 In this Part of this Schedule the expression " the council" in relation to any employment means the council paying a person's remuneration for that employment.

PART II

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

10 Where under the proviso to subsection (1) of section twenty of the 1937 Act notice was given by a justices' clerk excluding the application of that Act in relation to his clerkship, the notice shall have the same effect to exclude the 1937 Act as applied by this Act.

11 An existing clerk or employee shall be entitled to the benefit of subsection (1) of section thirteen of the 1937 Act on becoming by virtue of subsection (1) of section twenty-three of this Act a contributory employee of a magistrates' courts committee without giving the information required by the proviso to that subsection.

12 (1) In relation to an existing clerk or employee, subsections (2) and (3) of section seven of the 1937 Act (which relate to extensions of service after the retiring age) shall have effect with the substitution for any reference to the appointed day in subsection (2) of a reference to the date of the coming into force of section nineteen of this Act and with the omission of any such reference in subsection (3):

Provided that if, in the case of a justices' clerk who is a part time officer, it is not possible to determine on the said date whether he then becomes a contributory employee of the magistrates' courts committee by virtue of any order of the Secretary of State under paragraph 1 of this Schedule (whether because his salary under section nineteen of this Act has not then been fixed or because the order gives him an option exercisable after that date or for similar reasons), the reference to be substituted in the said subsection (2) shall be a reference to the date on which it becomes possible to determine that question.

(2) In relation to an existing clerk or employee who immediately before the coming into force of section nineteen of this Act has attained the age of sixty-five years and is not a contributory employee by virtue of section twenty of the 1937 Act, subsection (5) of section eight of that Act (which relates to the remuneration to be taken into account in fixing the rate of pension) shall have effect with the following modifications:—

(a) the expression " service " in that subsection shall include any service rendered after attaining the said age which it would have included if rendered before attaining it; and

(b) for any reference to the appointed day in proviso (a) to that subsection there shall be substituted a reference to the date of the coming into force of section nineteen of this Act.

- 13 (1) In relation to an existing or former clerk or employee, the expression " service " shall include, in addition to any service within the meaning assigned to that expression by Part III of the 1937 Act or which he is otherwise entitled to reckon apart from this paragraph, any service rendered after attaining the age of eighteen years and before attaining the age of sixty-five years, being either—
- (a) service as a justices' clerk; or
 - (b) service in the employment of a justices' clerk or clerks during which he devoted substantially the whole of his time to assisting the justices' clerk or clerks in the performance of the duties appertaining to his or their clerkship or clerkships or partly to that and partly to duties under a local authority; or
 - (c) service as collecting officer or in the employment of a collecting officer or officers during which he devoted substantially the whole of his time to performing or assisting in the performance of the duties of collecting officer or partly to that and partly to duties under a local authority:

Provided that—

- (i) paragraph 4 of this Schedule shall apply to the reference in this sub-paragraph to the age of sixty-five years as it applies to references to that age in the 1937 Act (except subsection (1) of section eight); and
 - (ii) paragraph (c) of this sub-paragraph shall apply only in the case of an existing clerk or employee.
- (2) Where this paragraph has applied to a person, and he is at any time a contributory employee otherwise than in the capacity in which it applied to him, the expression " service " shall include any service which it included in relation to him in that capacity.
- (3) Where a person is entitled to reckon any period as service by virtue only of proviso (i) to sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, he shall be entitled to reckon that period as contributing service if—
- (a) he would have been required to pay contributions in respect of that period had he not attained the age of sixty-five years; and
 - (b) within three months after the date of the coming into force of section nineteen of this Act he pays to the council to whom he pays contributions immediately after that date a sum equal to the contributions which he would have been required to pay as aforesaid;
- and, where he does so, the sum shall be deemed to be contributions in respect of that period.
- (4) In this and the two next following paragraphs, references to a justices' clerk include a clerk to the justices of a liberty.

14 Where an existing or former clerk or employee has been collecting officer of any court, or employed by the collecting officer of any court to assist him in the performance of his duties as such the time devoted by him thereto and his remuneration in respect thereof during any period when he was clerk of that court, or was employed by that clerk to assist him in the duties appertaining to his clerkship, shall be treated in reckoning his service under the last foregoing paragraph and the remuneration in respect of that service as time devoted to and remuneration in respect of the duties of the clerkship or the employment by the clerk in connection with those duties, as the case may be.

15 A person's remuneration as justices' clerk for any period for which he is not or was not paid a salary determined in accordance with section twenty-six of this Act, and a person's remuneration as collecting officer for any period, shall be taken to be or

- have been the salary and other payments paid or made to him as such and retained by him for his own use, after deducting the amount of any salaries or other sums paid by him to persons employed by him in connection with his duties as clerk or collecting officer, and after deducting the amount of his office expenses (if any).
- 16 In relation to an existing clerk or employee, paragraph (A) of Part III of the Second Schedule to the 1937 Act (which confers special rights on persons superannuable before that Act) shall continue to apply if it applied in relation to him immediately before he ceased to be a contributory employee by virtue of section twenty of that Act.
- 17 (1) Every administering authority maintaining a superannuation fund to which employees of any relevant council contribute shall obtain from an actuary a certificate as to the amount necessary to be paid by the council into the fund annually during a period not exceeding twenty years on account of the burden imposed on the fund by this Act in respect of existing clerks or employees who become by virtue of subsection (1), (5) or (6) of section twenty-three thereof contributory employees of the magistrates' courts committee set up to act for the area of the council.
- (2) The certificate shall be obtained as soon as may be after the date on which section nineteen of this Act comes into force and the period of twenty years shall run from that date.
- (3) In certifying the said amount the actuary shall take into account any transfer values payable in respect of any of the existing clerks or employees who were previously liable to contribute to some other fund and make a corresponding allowance in respect of those who were previously liable to contribute to the same fund.
- (4) The amount certified shall be paid to the fund by the council.
- (5) The relevant councils for the purposes of this paragraph are the councils of any county, any county borough and any borough named in the Third Schedule to this Act.
- 18 In this Part of this Schedule the expression "existing or former clerk or employee" means any such person as is mentioned in subsection (8) of section twenty-three of this Act and the expression "existing clerk or employee" means any such person as aforesaid who by virtue of subsection (1), (5) or (6) of that section becomes a contributory employee of a magistrates' courts committee.

SIXTH SCHEDULE

Section 30.

CONSEQUENTIAL PROVISIONS AS TO LOCAL ACT STIPENDIARIES

PART I

Staffordshire stipendiaries

- 1 (1) A magistrate appointed under the Staffordshire Potteries Stipendiary Justice Acts, 1839 to 1895, shall be by virtue of his office a justice of the peace for the county borough of Stoke-upon-Trent and for any non-county borough having for the time being a separate commission of the peace and magistrates' courts committee which is situated wholly or partly within the area for which he acts.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) The place of the magistrate as a justice for any such borough shall not be supplied by another justice for the county of Stafford (as provided by section twenty of the Staffordshire Potteries Stipendiary Justice Act, 1871) but may when requisite be supplied by another justice for the borough.
- 2 The place of a magistrate appointed under the South Staffordshire Stipendiary Justice Act, 1899, when acting as a justice for the county borough of West Bromwich or for any non-county borough having for the time being a separate commission of the peace and magistrates' courts committee shall not be supplied by justices for the county of Stafford (as provided by section one hundred and one of the Wolverhampton Corporation Act, 1936) but, subject to section thirteen of this Act, may when requisite be supplied by two or more (but not exceeding five) justices for the borough.
- 3 (1) A magistrate appointed under the Staffordshire Potteries Stipendiary Justice Acts, 1839 to 1895, or under the South Staffordshire Stipendiary Justice Act, 1899, may exercise his jurisdiction as a county justice though sitting in a county borough or a borough having a separate commission of the peace and magistrates' courts committee, and may exercise his jurisdiction as justice for any such borough though not sitting in that borough.
- (2) The foregoing sub-paragraph shall apply to a county or borough justice taking the place of either of the said magistrates as it applies to the magistrate.
- 4 (1) Any provision of the Staffordshire Potteries Stipendiary Justice Acts, 1839 to 1895, or of the South Staffordshire Stipendiary Justice Act, 1899, as to a clerk of accounts appointed by the commissioners thereunder shall cease to have effect, and any functions which would apart from this provision be discharged by such a clerk shall be discharged instead by the clerk to the stipendiary magistrate.
- (2) The amount of the salary to be paid to the clerk to the stipendiary magistrate under any of the said Acts shall, notwithstanding anything in those Acts, be such as may from time to time be determined by the commissioners with the approval of the Secretary of State:
- Provided that, until otherwise determined under this sub-paragraph, a clerk in office at the coming into force thereof shall continue to receive the salary to which he is then entitled.
- (3) The clerk to the stipendiary magistrate under any of the said Acts shall be deemed, for the purposes of the Local Government Superannuation Act, 1937, to be employed in that office by the commissioners paying his salary, and in the case of a clerk in office at the coming into force of this sub-paragraph to have been so employed since his appointment to that office, and paragraph 4 of the Fifth Schedule to this Act shall apply to the clerk to any such magistrate as it applies to a justices' clerk.
- 5 (1) If at any time the area in which the stipendiary magistrate under the Staffordshire Potteries Stipendiary Justice Acts, 1839 to 1895, or the South Staffordshire Stipendiary Justice Act, 1899, has jurisdiction (so far as not included in a county borough or borough having a separate commission of the peace and magistrates' courts committee) consists of one or more petty sessional divisions of the county of Stafford, and the commissioners agree to the making of an order under this sub-paragraph, the Secretary of State may by statutory instrument make an order directing that the provisions of the said Acts or Act, as the case may be, so far as they relate to a clerk to the stipendiary magistrate shall cease to have effect, and the order may include provision for the payment to any person of compensation for loss of office or employment or loss or diminution of emoluments in consequence of the order and for any other consequential or transitional matters and any such provision may be varied or revoked by a subsequent order made in the same manner.

- (2) If it appears to the Secretary of State that the area within which either of the magistrates referred to in the foregoing sub-paragraph has jurisdiction can conveniently be adjusted so as to enable an order to be made under that sub-paragraph, and the commissioners agree to the making of an order under this sub-paragraph, the Secretary of State may by statutory instrument make an order adjusting the boundaries of that area accordingly.
 - (3) If after the making of an order under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph with respect to the clerk to either of the said magistrates any alteration is made under the Acts referred to in that sub-paragraph in the area in which the magistrate has jurisdiction, and as the result of the alteration that area (so far as not included in a county borough or borough having a separate commission of the peace and magistrates' courts committee) does not consist of one or more petty sessional divisions of the county of Stafford, the Secretary of State shall by statutory instrument make an order constituting the area (so far as not included as aforesaid) a petty sessional division or divisions of that county and making consequential provisions as to the remainder of the county, and subsections (4), (6) and (7) of section eighteen of this Act shall apply as if the order were an order under that section.
- 6 (1) If the commissioners under the South Staffordshire Stipendiary Justice Act, 1899, pass a statutory resolution under the Local Government Superannuation Act, 1937, specifying as a contributory employee a person holding at the coming into force of this paragraph any of the posts designated or purporting to have been designated by or under the admission agreement with Wolverhampton, then with the consent of that person and of the Wolverhampton borough council the resolution may direct that as respects that person it shall be deemed to have had effect at all times since the appointed day within the meaning of the said Act of 1937 at which he held any such post.
- (2) The reference in the foregoing sub-paragraph to the admission agreement with Wolverhampton refers to the admission agreement between the said commissioners and the said council dated the seventh day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven (being an agreement which was entered into under the Local Government and other Officers' Superannuation Act, 1922, and became inoperative under the Local Government Superannuation Act, 1937).
- 7 Nothing in this Act shall be taken as imposing on any county or borough council any duties in relation to the provision of accommodation or other things for magistrates appointed under the Acts mentioned in this Part of this Schedule, or as affecting any power or duty in that behalf of the respective commissioners under those Acts.

PART II

South Wales stipendiaries

- 8 (1) The Merthyr Tydfil Stipendiary Justice Acts, 1843 to 1907, so far as they relate to clerks shall cease to have effect, and any clerk previously appointed thereunder shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as clerk to the justices for the petty sessional divisions of Caerphilly Higher and Miskin Higher of the county of Glamorgan and as clerk to the justices of the county borough of Merthyr Tydfil and any assistant or deputy clerk so appointed shall be treated for those purposes as a person employed by the clerk to assist him in the duties appertaining to his clerkships.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) The Glamorgan county council and the Merthyr Tydfil county borough council shall provide any accommodation and other things required for the stipendiary magistrate under the said Acts and for the said clerk under the powers of this Act and any provision in that behalf of the said Acts shall cease to have effect.
 - (3) The stipendiary magistrate under the said Acts shall be by virtue of his office a justice of the peace for any non-county borough having for the time being a separate commission of the peace and magistrates' courts committee which is situated wholly or partly within the area for which he acts.
 - (4) If under section three of the Merthyr Tydfil Stipendiary Justice Act, 1907, any alteration is made in the area for which the stipendiary magistrate acts, and as the result of the alteration that area (exclusive of any county borough and any such non-county borough as aforesaid) does not consist of one or more petty sessional divisions of the county of Glamorgan, the Secretary of State shall by statutory instrument make an order constituting the area (exclusive of any such borough) a petty sessional division or divisions of that county and making consequential provisions as to the remainder of the county, and subsections (4), (6) and (7) of section eighteen of this Act shall apply as if the order were an order under that section.
- (1) The provisions of the Pontypridd Stipendiary Magistrate Act, 1920, so far as they relate to clerks shall cease to have effect, and any clerk previously appointed thereunder shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as clerk to the justices for the Lower Miskin petty sessional division of the county of Glamorgan, and any assistant clerk so appointed shall be treated for this purpose as a person employed by the clerk to assist him in the duties appertaining to his clerkship.
 - (2) The Glamorgan county council shall provide any accommodation and other things required for the magistrate under the said Act of 1920 or for the said clerk under the powers of this Act, and any provision in that behalf of the said Act of 1920 shall cease to have effect.

PART III

Salford stipendiary

- 10
- Part II of the Manchester Division and Borough of Salford (Stipendiary Justices) Act, 1878, so far as it relates to the clerk for borough business shall cease to have effect, and any such clerk previously appointed shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as clerk to the justices for the county borough of Salford, notwithstanding that in that Act he is described as clerk to the stipendiary magistrate.
