

India (Consequential Provision) Act 1949

1949 CHAPTER 92 12 13 and 14 Geo 6

1 Operation of existing law in relation to India in view of India's becoming a Republic.

- (1) On and after the date of India's becoming a Republic, all existing law, that is to say, all law which, whether being a rule of law or a provision of an Act of Parliament or of any other enactment or instrument whatsoever, is in force on that date or has been passed or made before that date and comes into force thereafter, shall, until provision to the contrary is made by the authority having power to alter that law . . . <sup>F1</sup>, have the same operation in relation to India, and to person and things in any way belonging to or connected with India, as it would have had if India had not become a Republic.
- (2) This Act extends to law of, or of any part of, the United Kingdom, a colony, a protectorate or a United Kingdom trust territory, and also, but so far only as concerns law which cannot be amended by a law of the legislature thereof, to law of Southern Rhodesia or of any part thereof.

The references in this subsection to a colony, to a protectorate and to a United Kingdom trust territory shall be construed as if they were references contained in the <sup>M1</sup>British Nationality Act 1948.

- (3) . . . . . <sup>F2</sup>
