

Fireworks Act 1951

1951 CHAPTER 58 14 and 15 Geo 6

3 Standard by which fireworks to be judged dangerous.

In deciding under either of the foregoing sections whether any fireworks would be dangerous when in the possession of the public it shall be assumed that a reasonable standard of care is maintained in handling and using the fireworks.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Fireworks Act 1951, Section 3.