

Patents, Designs, Copyright and Trade Marks (Emergency) Act

1939 CHAPTER 107 2 and 3 Geo 6

8 Persons to be heard before making of orders.

Before deciding as to the making of any order under this Act, the comptroller shall, unless having regard to the circumstances he considers it inexpedient or impossible so to do, give to any person who appears to the comptroller to be interested such opportunity of being heard as appears to him to be just.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Patents, Designs, Copyright and Trade Marks (Emergency) Act, Section 8.