and the schools available for an area shall not be deemed to be sufficient unless they are sufficient in number, character, and equipment to afford for all pupils opportunities for education offering such variety of instruction and training as may be desirable in view of their different ages, abilities, and aptitudes, and of the different periods for which they may be expected to remain at school, including practical instruction and training appropriate to their respective needs.

(2) In fulfilling their duties under this section, a local education authority shall, in particular, have regard—

(a) to the need for securing that primary and secondary education are provided in separate schools;

(b) ^{F12}

[^{F13}(c) to the need for securing that special educational provision is made for pupils who have special educational needs; and]

(d) to the expediency of securing the provision of boarding accommodation, either in boarding schools or otherwise, for pupils for whom education as boarders is considered by their parents and by the authority to be desirable:

Provided that paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not have effect with respect to special schools.

[^{F14}(3) In fulfilling their duty under subsection (1)(b) above a local education authority shall have regard to any facilities for full-time education-

(a) provided for senior pupils by any educational institution maintained or assisted by the authority in exercise of their functions under section 41 of this Act; or

(b) otherwise secured for such pupils by the authority in exercise of those functions.]

10 Requirements as to school premises.

- (1) The [^{F17}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall make regulations prescribing the standards to which the premises of schools maintained by local education authorities [^{F18}and of grant-maintained schools] are to conform, and such regulations may prescribe different standards for such descriptions of schools as may be specified in the regulations.
- (2) Subject as hereinafter provided, it shall be the duty of a local education authority to secure that the premises of every school maintained by them [^{F19}or, in the case of a grant-maintained school, the duty of the governing body of the school to secure that the premises of the school] conform to the standards prescribed for schools of the description to which the school belongs:
 [^{F20}Provided that, if the [^{F17}Secretary of State for Education and Science] is satisfied with respect to any school—
 - (a) that having regard to the nature of the existing site or to any existing buildings thereon or to other special circumstances affecting the school premises it would be unreasonable to require conformity with a requirement of the regulations as to any matter, or
 - (b) where the school is to have an additional or new site that, having regard to shortage of suitable sites it would be unreasonable to require conformity with a requirement of the regulations relating to sites, or 14 Restrictions on discontinuance of voluntary schools by managers and governors.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the . . . ^{F24} governors of a voluntary school shall not discontinue the school except after serving on the [^{F25}Secretary of State for Education and Science] and on the local education authority by whom the school is maintained not less than two years' notice of their intention to do so:

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education Act 1944 (repealed 1.11.1996). (See end of Document for details)

[^{F26}Provided that, except by leave of the [^{F25}Secretary of State for Education and Science], no such notice as aforesaid shall be served by the . . . ^{F24} governors of any voluntary school in respect of the premises of which expenditure has been incurred otherwise than in connection with repairs by the [^{F25}Secretary of State for Education and Science] or by any local education authority or former authority.

If the [^{F25}Secretary of State for Education and Science] grants such leave, he may impose such requirements as he thinks just—

- (a) in regard to the repayment of the whole or any part of the amount of the expenditure so incurred by the [^{F25}Secretary of State for Education and Science];
 - (b) where the [^{F25}Secretary of State for Education and Science] is satisfied that the local education authority will require for any purpose connected with education, any premises which are for the time being used for the purposes of the school in regard to the conveyance of those premises to the authority;
 - (c) in regard to the payment by the local education authority of such part of the value of any premises so conveyed as is just having regard to the extent to which those premises were provided otherwise than at the expense of the authority of a former authority;
 - (d) where any premises for the time being used for the purposes of the school are not to be so conveyed in regard to the payment to the authority by the . . . ^{F24} governors of the school of such part of the value of those premises as is just having regard to the extent to which they were provided at the expense of the authority or a former authority.]
- (2) No such notice as aforesaid shall be withdrawn except with the consent of the local education authority.
- (3) If, while any such notice as aforesaid is in force with respect to a voluntary school, the . . . ^{F24} governors of the school inform the local education authority that they are unable or unwilling to carry on the school until the expiration of the notice, the authority may conduct the school during the whole or any part of the unexpired period of the notice as if it were a county school, and shall be entitled to the use of the school premises, free of charge, for that purpose.
- (4) While any school is being conducted by a local education authority as a county school under the last foregoing subsection, the authority shall keep the school premises in good repair, and, for all purposes relating to the condition of the school premises, the occupation and use thereof, and the making of alterations thereto, any interest in the said premises which is held for the purposes of the school shall be deemed to be vested in the authority:
 Provided that the . . . ^{F24} governors of the school shall be entitled to the use of the school premises or any part thereof when not required for the purposes of the school to the like extent as if they had continued to carry on the school during the unexpired period of the notice.
- (5) Where any school is discontinued in accordance with the provisions of this section, the duty of the local education authority to maintain the school as a voluntary school shall be extinguished.

- (4) If at any time while a school attendance order is in force with respect to any child the parent of the child makes application to the local education authority by whom the order was made . . . ^{F67} requesting that the order be revoked on the ground that arrangements have been made for the child to receive efficient full-time education suitable to his age, ability, and aptitude [^{F66}and to any special educational needs he may have] otherwise than at school, the authority shall . . . ^{F69} revoke the order in compliance with the request unless they are of opinion . . . ^{F69} that no satisfactory arrangements have been made for the education of the child otherwise than at school . . . ^{F69}; and if a parent is aggrieved by a refusal of the authority to comply with any such request, he may refer the question to the [^{F70}Secretary of State for Education and Science], who shall give such direction thereon as he thinks fit.
- (5) If any person upon whom a school attendance order is served fails to comply with the requirements of the order, he shall be guilty of an offence against this section unless he proves that he is causing the child to receive efficient full-time education suitable to his age, ability, and aptitude [^{F66}and to any special educational needs he may have] otherwise than at school.
- (6) If in proceedings against any person for a failure to comply with a school attendance order that person is acquitted, the court may direct that the school attendance order shall cease to be in force, but without prejudice to the duty of the local education authority to take further action under this section if at any time the authority are of opinion that having regard to any change of circumstances it is expedient so to do.
- (7) Save as provided by the last foregoing subsection, a school attendance order made with respect to any child shall, subject to any amendment thereof which may be made by the local education authority, continue in force so long as he is of compulsory school age unless revoked by that authority.

39 Duty of parents to secure regular attendance of registered pupils.

- (1) If any child of compulsory school age who is a registered pupil at a school fails to attend regularly thereat, the parent of the child shall be guilty of an offence against this section.
- (2) In any proceedings for an offence against this section in respect of a child who is not a boarder at the school at which he is a registered pupil, the child shall not be deemed to have failed to attend regularly at the school by reason of his absence therefrom with leave or—
 - (a) at any time when he was prevented from attending by reason of sickness or any unavoidable cause;
 - (b) on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs;
 - (c) if the parent proves that the school at which the child is a registered pupil is not within walking distance of the child's home, and that no suitable arrangements have been made by the local education authority either for his transport to and from the school or for boarding accommodation for him at or near the school or for enabling him to become a registered pupil at a school nearer to his home.
- (3) Where in any proceedings for an offence against this section it is proved that the child has no fixed abode, paragraph (c) of the last foregoing subsection shall not apply, but if the parent proves that he is engaged in any trade or business of such a nature as to require him to travel from place to place and that the child has attended at a school at which he was a registered pupil as regularly as the nature of the trade or business of the parent permits, the parent shall be acquitted:
Provided that, in the case of a child who has attained the age of six years, the parent shall not be entitled to be acquitted under this subsection unless he proves that the child has made at least two hundred attendances during the period of twelve months ending with the date on which the proceedings were instituted.
- (4) In any proceedings for an offence against this section in respect of a child who is a boarder at the school at which he is a registered pupil, the child shall be deemed to have failed to attend regularly at the school if he is absent therefrom without leave during any part of the school term at a time when he was not prevented from being present by reason of sickness or any unavoidable cause.
- (5) In this section the expression “leave” in relation to any school means leave granted by any person authorised in that behalf by the . . . ^{F72} governors or proprietor of the school, and the expression “walking distance” means, in relation to a child who has not attained the age of eight years two miles, and in the case of any other child three miles, measured by the nearest available route.

Further Education

[^{F76}41 Functions of local education authorities with respect to further education.

- (1) It shall be the duty of every local education authority to secure the provision for their area of adequate facilities for further education.
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, in this Act “further education” means—
 - (a) full-time and part-time education for persons over compulsory school age (including vocational, social, physical and recreational training); and
 - (b) organized leisure-time occupation provided in connection with the provision of such education.
- (3) In this Act “further education” does not include higher education.
- (4) Full-time education suitable to the requirements of senior pupils over compulsory school age shall not be regarded for the purposes of this Act as further education if it is or is to be provided by an institution which does not provide part-time senior education or post-school age education to a significant extent.
- (5) In this Act—
 - (a) “part-time senior education” means part-time education for senior pupils over compulsory school age; and
 - (b) “post-school age education” means full-time or part-time education for persons of or over nineteen years of age.
- (6) The duty of a local education authority under subsection (1) above extends, in the case of further education of a vocational kind, to the provision of facilities for continuing education for persons already in employment or already engaged in a vocation as well as to the provision of facilities for education with a view to entry into any employment or vocation.
- (7) In subsection (2)(b) above “organized leisure time occupation” means leisure-time occupation, in such organized cultural training and recreative activities as are suited to their requirements, for any persons over compulsory school age who are able and willing to profit by facilities provided for that purpose.
- (8) A local education authority shall have power to secure the provision of further education for persons living outside their area.
- (9) In fulfilling their duty under subsection (1) above a local education authority shall have regard to any educational facilities provided by universities, institutions within the PCFC funding sector and other bodies which are provided for, or available for use by persons living in, their area.
- (10) In fulfilling that duty a local education authority shall also have regard to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age who have learning difficulties.
- (11) Subject to subsection (12) below, for the purposes of subsection (10) above a person has a “learning difficulty” if-
 - (a) he has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of persons of his age; or
 - (b) he has a disability which either prevents or hinders him from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided by the local education authority

54 Power to ensure cleanliness.

- (1) A local education authority may, by directions in writing issued with respect to all schools maintained by them or with respect to any of such schools named in the directions, authorise a medical officer of the authority to cause examinations of the persons and clothing of pupils in attendance at such school to be made whenever in his opinion such examinations are necessary in the interests of cleanliness . . . ^{F100}.
- (2) Any such examination as aforesaid shall be made by a person authorised by the local education authority to make such examinations, and if the person or clothing of any pupil is found upon such an examination to be infested with vermin or in a foul condition, any officer of the authority may serve upon the parent of the pupil . . . ^{F100} a notice requiring him to cause the person and clothing of the pupil to be cleansed.
- (3) A notice served under the last foregoing subsection shall inform the person upon whom it is served that unless within the period limited by the notice, not being less than twenty-four hours after the service thereof, the person and clothing of the pupil to whom the notice relates are cleansed to the satisfaction of such person as may be specified in the notice the cleansing thereof will be carried out under arrangements made by the local education authority; and if, upon a report being made to him by that person at the expiration of that period, a medical officer of the authority is not satisfied that the person and clothing of the pupil have been properly cleansed, the medical officer may issue an order directing that the person and clothing of the pupil be cleansed under such arrangements.
- (4) It shall be the duty of the local education authority to make arrangements for securing that any person or clothing required under this section to be cleansed may be cleansed (whether at the request of a parent . . . ^{F100} or in pursuance of an order issued under this section) at suitable premises by suitable persons and with suitable appliances; and where [^{F101}the council of any . . . ^{F102}district in the area of the authority][^{F101}the council of any inner London borough or the Common Council of the City of London] are entitled to the use of any premises or appliances for cleansing the person or clothing of persons infested with vermin, the authority may require the council to permit the authority to use those premises or appliances for such purposes upon such terms as may be determined by agreement between the authority and the council or, in default of such agreement, by the [^{F103}Secretary of State for Social Services].
- (5) Where an order has been issued by a medical officer under this section directing that the person and clothing of a pupil be cleansed under arrangements made by a local education authority, the order shall be sufficient to authorise any officer of the authority to cause the person and clothing of the pupil in the order to be cleansed in accordance with arrangements made under the last foregoing subsection, and for that purpose to convey him to, and detain him at, any premises provided in accordance with such arrangements.
- (6) If, after the cleansing of the person or clothing of any pupil has been carried out under this section, his person or clothing is again found to be infested with vermin or in a foul condition at any time while he is in attendance at a school maintained by a local education authority . . . ^{F100}, and it is proved that the condition of his person or clothing is due to neglect on the part of his parent . . . ^{F100}, the parent . . . ^{F100} shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F104}level 1 on the standard scale.]

- (2) Upon a complaint being referred to an Independent Schools Tribunal, the tribunal shall, after affording to all parties concerned an opportunity of being heard, and after considering such evidence as may be tendered by them or on their behalf, have power—
- (a) to order that the complaint be annulled:
 - (b) to order that the school in respect of which the notice of complaint was served be struck off the register:
 - (c) to order that the school be so struck off unless the requirements of the notice, subject to such modifications, if any, as may be specified in the order are complied with to the satisfaction of the [^{F148}Secretary of State for Education and Science] before the expiration of such time as may be specified in the order:
 - (d) if satisfied that the premises alleged by the notice of complaint to be unsuitable for use as a school or any part of such premises are in fact unsuitable for such use, by order to disqualify the premises or part from being so used, or, if satisfied that the accommodation provided at the school premises is inadequate or unsuitable having regard to the number, ages and sex of the pupils attending the school, by order to disqualify the premises from being used as a school for pupils exceeding such number or of such age or sex as may be specified in the order:
 - (e) if satisfied that any person alleged by the notice of complaint to be a person who is not proper to be the proprietor of an independent school or to be a teacher in any school is in fact such a person, by order to disqualify that person from being the proprietor of any independent school or from being a teacher in any school, as the case may be.
- (3) Where a notice of complaint has been served under this Act on the proprietor of any school and the complaint is not referred by him to an Independent School Tribunal within the time limited in that behalf by the notice, the [^{F148}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall have power to make any order which such a tribunal would have had power to make if the complaint had been so referred:
 Provided that, if it was alleged by the notice of complaint that any person employed as a teacher at the school is not a proper person to be a teacher in any school and that person has, within the time limited in that behalf by the copy of the notice served upon him, referred the complaint to an Independent Schools Tribunal, the [^{F148}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall not have power to make an order requiring his dismissal or disqualifying him from being a teacher in any school.
- (4) Where by virtue of an order made by an Independent Schools Tribunal or by the [^{F148}Secretary of State for Education and Science] any person is disqualified either from being the proprietor of an independent school or from being a teacher in any school, then, unless the order otherwise directs, that person shall, by virtue of the order, be disqualified both from being the proprietor of an independent school and from being a teacher in any school.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

77 Inspection of educational establishments.

- (1) In this section the expression “educational establishment” means a school, [^{F156}an institution within the PCFC funding sector or an institution which is maintained or assisted by a local education authority and provides higher education or further education (or both)]; and if the persons responsible for the management of any institution which is not an educational establishment within the foregoing definition request the [^{F157}Secretary of State] or any local education authority to cause an inspection of that institution to be made under the powers conferred by this section, the institution shall, for the purposes of that inspection, be deemed to be also included within that definition.
- (2) It shall be the duty of the [^{F157}Secretary of State for Education and Science] to cause inspections to be made of every educational establishment at such intervals as appear to him to be appropriate, and to cause a special inspection of any such establishment to be made whenever he considers such an inspection to be desirable; and for the purpose of enabling such inspections to be made on behalf of the [^{F157}Secretary of State for Education and Science], inspectors may be appointed by His Majesty on the recommendation of the [^{F157}Secretary of State for Education and Science], and persons may be authorised by the [^{F157}Secretary of State for Education and Science] to assist such inspectors and to act as additional inspectors:
Provided that the [^{F157}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall not be required by virtue of this subsection to cause inspections to be made of any educational establishment during any period during which he is satisfied that suitable arrangements are in force for the inspection of that establishment otherwise than in accordance with this subsection.
- (3) Any local education authority may cause an inspection to be made of any educational establishment maintained by the authority, and such inspections shall be made by officers appointed by the local education authority.
- (4) If any person obstructs any person authorised to make an inspection in pursuance of the provisions of this section in the execution of his duty, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F158}level 4 on the standard scale], or, in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine not exceeding [^{F158}level 4 on the standard scale] or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such imprisonment and such fine.

94 Certificates of birth and registrars' returns.

- (1) Where the age of any person is required to be proved for the purposes of this Act or of any enactment relating to the employment of children or young persons, the registrar having the custody of the register of births and deaths containing the entry relating to the birth of that person shall, upon being presented by any person with a written requisition in such form and containing such particulars as may be determined by regulations made by the [^{F195}Secretary of State for Social Services], and upon payment of a fee of [^{F196}£1.50], supply that person with a copy of the entry certified under his hand.

Every registrar shall, upon being requested so to do, supply free of charge a form of requisition for the purposes of this subsection.

- (2) Every registrar shall supply to a local education authority such particulars of the entries contained in any register of births and deaths in his custody, and in such form, as, subject to any regulations made by the [^{F195}Secretary of State for Social Services], the authority may from time to time require; . . . ^{F197}
- (3) In this section, the expression “register of births and deaths” means a register of births and deaths kept in pursuance of the [^{F198M10M11}Births and Deaths Registration Act 1953 and the Registration Service Act 1953], and the expression “registrar” includes a registrar of births and deaths and a superintendent registrar.

95 Provisions as to evidence.

- (1) Where in any proceedings under this Act the person by whom the proceedings are brought alleges that any person whose age is material to the proceedings is under, of, or over, any age, and satisfies the court that having used all reasonable diligence to obtain evidence as to the age of that person he has been unable to do so, then, unless the contrary is proved, the court may presume that person to be under, of, or over, the age alleged.
- (2) In any legal proceedings any document purporting to be—
- (a) a document issued by a local education authority, and to be signed by the clerk of that authority or by the chief education officer of that authority or by any other officer of the authority authorised to sign it;
 - (b) an extract from the minutes of the proceedings of the . . . ^{F199} governors of any county school or voluntary school, and to be signed by the chairman of the . . . ^{F199} governors or by their clerk;
 - (c) a certificate giving particulars of the attendance of a child or young person at a school or at a county college, and to be signed by the head teacher of the school or college; or
 - (d) a certificate issued by a medical officer of a local education authority and to be signed by such an officer; shall be received in evidence and shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be the document which it purports to be, and to have been signed by the person by whom it purports to have been signed, without proof of his identity, signature, or official capacity, and any such extract or certificate as is mentioned in paragraph (b) (c) or (d) of this subsection shall be evidence of the matters therein stated.

- (2) Where any question arises as to whether any officers, property, rights, or liabilities, have been transferred by virtue of this Act from a former authority to a local education authority, that question shall be determined by the Minister.
- (3) Where any officers, property, rights, or liabilities, have been transferred by virtue of this Act from a former authority to a local education authority, the local education authority and the former authority may by agreement provide for the making of such adjustments in relation to their respective property, rights, and liabilities, as appear to the authorities to be desirable having regard to the transfer, and any such agreements may, in particular, provide for the making of payments by either party thereto.
- (4) Where it appears to the Minister that having regard to any such transfer it is desirable that any such adjustment as aforesaid (including any payment by either of the authorities concerned) should be made, he may, subject to any agreement made under the last foregoing subsection, by directions make provision for that adjustment.
- (5) Where at the commencement of Part II of this Act any former authority were parties to any proceedings pending with respect to any property, rights, or liabilities, which by virtue of this Act are transferred from the former authority to a local education authority, the proceedings may be carried on thereafter with the substitution of the local education authority for the former authority as parties thereto.

“Young person” means a person over compulsory school age who has not attained the age of eighteen years.

[^{F265}(1A) References in this Act to an institution within the PCFC funding sector are references to any institution which falls to be treated as within that sector for the purposes of the Education Reform Act 1988 by virtue of section 132 of that Act (which establishes the Polytechnics and Colleges Funding Council).

(1B) For the purposes of this Act, an institution which provides part-time senior education or post-school age education shall be regarded as providing such education to a significant extent if the provision of such education by the institution is not merely incidental to the provision of education which is not part-time senior education or post-school age education.

(1C) For the purpose of determining whether an institution is a school as defined by subsection (1) of this section, the provision by the institution of part-time senior education or post-school age education shall be disregarded if the institution does not provide such education to a significant extent.]

[^{F266}(1D) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, ‘parent’, in relation to a child or young person, includes any person-

- (a) who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him, or
- (b) who has care of him,

except for the purposes of the enactments mentioned in subsection (1E) of this section, where it only includes such a person if he is an individual.

(1E) The enactments are—

- (a) sections 5(4), 15(2) and (6), 31 and 65(1) of, and paragraph 7(6) of Schedule 2 to, the Education (No. 2) Act 1986; and
- (b) sections 53(8), 54(2), 58(5)(k), 60 and 61 of the Education Reform Act 1988.

(1F) For the purposes of subsection (1D) of this section—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Education Act 1944 (repealed 1.11.1996). (See end of Document for details)

- (a) “parental responsibility” has the same meaning as in the Children Act 1989; and
 - (b) in determining whether an individual has care of a child or young person any absence of the child or young person at a hospital or boarding school and any other temporary absence shall be disregarded.]
- (2) [^{F267}Subject to subsection (2A) of this section] for the purposes of this Act:—
- (a) the duty of a local education authority to maintain a school . . . ^{F268} shall include the duty of defraying all the expenses of maintaining the school . . . ^{F268} except, in the case of an aided school or a special agreement school, any expenses that by virtue of any provision of this Act or of any special agreement made thereunder are payable by the . . . ^{F269} governors of the school, and the expression “maintain” shall be construed accordingly; and
 - (b) where a local education authority make to the proprietor of any school which is not maintained by the authority, or to the persons responsible for the maintenance of any [^{F270}institution other than a school], any grant in respect of the school . . . ^{F271} or institution or any payment in consideration of the provision of educational facilities thereat, the school . . . ^{F271} or institution shall be deemed to be assisted by the authority.
- [^{F272}(2A) Neither a university nor any institution within the PCFC funding sector shall be deemed under subsection (2)(b) of this section to be assisted by a local education authority by virtue of the making by that authority to the persons responsible for the maintenance of that university or institution of any such grant or payment as is there mentioned.]
- (3) ^{F273}
 - (4) ^{F274}
 - (5) ^{F275}
 - (6) ^{F276}
- (7) Where at any time before the date of the commencement of Part II of this Act the premises of any school which was for the time being a public elementary school within the meaning of the enactments repealed by this Act have ceased by reason of war damage, or by reason of any action taken in contemplation or in consequence of war, to be used for the purposes of a school, then, for the purposes of this Act, the school, unless it has been closed in accordance with those enactments, shall be deemed to have been a public elementary school within the meaning of those enactments immediately before that date and, if it was maintained by a former authority immediately before the premises ceased to be used for the purposes of a school, to have been maintained by such an authority immediately before that date.
- (8) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, references to any enactment or any provision of any enactment shall be construed as references to that enactment or provision as amended by any subsequent enactment, including this Act.
