SCHEDULES

FIRST SCHEDULE

LOCAL ADMINISTRATION

PART I

JOINT EDUCATION BOARDS

- 1 Where it appears to the [^{F1}Secretary of State for Education and Science] that the establishment of a joint board as the local education authority for the areas of two or more councils to whom this Part of this Schedule applies would tend to diminish expense or to increase efficiency or would otherwise be of public advantage, the [^{F1}Secretary of State for Education and Science] may by order constitute a joint board (in this Act referred to as a “joint education board”), consisting of members appointed by those councils, and direct that the board shall be the local education authority for the areas of those councils:

Provided that the [^{F1}Secretary of State for Education and Science] shall not make such an order except after a local inquiry, unless all the councils for the areas of which the board are to be the local education authority have consented to the making of the order.

F41 Sch. 5 paras. 12 and 13 substituted for Sch. 5 para. 12 by Education Reform Act 1988 (c. 40, SIF 41:1), ss. 9, 231(7), 235(6), Sch. 1 para. 7(3)

- 12 Whenever a local education authority are of opinion (whether upon representations made to them or otherwise) that any agreed syllabus for the time being adopted by them ought to be reconsidered, the authority shall cause to be convened for that purpose a conference constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule.
- 13 (1) The following provisions of this paragraph apply where a local education authority cause such a conference to be convened for the purpose of reconsidering any agreed syllabus, whether under paragraph 12 of this Schedule or under section 11(8) of the Education Reform Act 1988 (obligation of authority to cause such a conference to be convened if required to do so by representative groups on standing advisory council for religious education).
- (2) If the conference unanimously recommend that the existing syllabus should continue to be the agreed syllabus, the authority may give effect to the recommendation.
- (3) If—
- (a) the conference unanimously recommend a new syllabus to be adopted in substitution for the existing syllabus; and
 - (b) it appears to the authority that the new syllabus complies with section 8(3) of that Act (new agreed syllabus to reflect mainly Christian religious traditions);
- the authority may give effect to the recommendation.
- (4) If either—
- (a) the authority report to the Secretary of State that the conference are unable to reach unanimous agreement; or
 - (b) it appears to the Secretary of State that the authority have failed to exercise their power under sub-paragraph (2) or (3) above to give effect to the unanimous recommendation of the conference;
- the Secretary of State shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 10 of this Schedule, and paragraph 11 of this Schedule shall apply accordingly.

SIXTH SCHEDULE

CONSTITUTION OF INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS TRIBUNALS

- 1 For the purpose of enabling Independent Schools Tribunals to be constituted as occasion may require there shall be appointed two panels, that is to say—
- (a) a panel (hereinafter referred to as the “legal panel”) appointed by the Lord Chancellor, of persons who will be available to act when required as chairman of any such tribunal; and
 - (b) a panel (hereinafter referred to as the “educational panel”) appointed by the Lord President of the Council, of persons who will be available to act when required as members of any such tribunal.
- 2 No person shall be qualified to be appointed to the legal panel unless he possesses such legal qualifications as the Lord Chancellor considers suitable, and no person shall be qualified to be appointed to the educational panel unless he has had such experience in teaching or in the conduct management or administration of schools as the Lord President of the Council considers suitable. An officer of any government department and a person employed by a local education authority otherwise than as a teacher shall be disqualified from being appointed to either of the said panels.
- 3 Any person appointed to be a member of either of the said panels shall hold office as such subject to such conditions as to the period of his membership and otherwise as may be determined by the Lord Chancellor or the Lord President of the Council, as the case may be.

VALID FROM 31/03/1995

[^{F42}3A No appointment of a person to be a member of the legal panel shall be such as to extend beyond the day on which he attains the age of seventy years; but this paragraph is subject to section 26(4) to (6) of the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993 (power to authorise continuance in office up to the age of seventy-five years).]
