

Japanese Treaty of Peace Act 1951

1951 CHAPTER 6

An Act to provide for carrying into effect the Treaty of Peace with Japan and Protocol thereto. [7th December 1951]

BE IT ENACTED by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Power of His Majesty to give effect to Peace Treaty and Protocol.

- (1) His Majesty may make such appointments, establish such offices, make such Orders in Council, and do such things as appear to Him to be necessary for carrying out the said Treaty and Protocol, and for giving effect to any of the provisions thereof.
- (2) Any Order in Council made under this section may provide that persons contravening or failing to comply with provisions of the Order shall be guilty of offences against this section, and (except in so far as any such Order may provide for less penalties) any person guilty of an offence against this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such imprisonment and such fine, or on conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding five hundred pounds or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such imprisonment and such fine.
- (3) Any statutory instrument containing as Order in Council made under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (4) Any Order in Council made under this section may be varied or revoked by a subsequent Order made thereunder.
- (5) The expenses of any Minister incurred in carrying out the said Treaty and Protocol shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Short Title.

- 2 This Act may be cited as the Japanese Treaty of Peace Act, 1951.
