

Pluralities Act 1838

1838 CHAPTER 106

XLVIII Licences not to be void by the Death or Removal of the Grantor

And be it enacted, That no Licence of Non-residence shall become void by the Death or Removal of the Bishop granting the same, but the same shall be and remain valid, notwithstanding any such Death or Removal, unless the same shall be revoked as hereinafter mentioned.