

Queen Anne's Bounty Act 1838

CHAPTER 20

QUEEN ANNE'S BOUNTY ACT 1838

- Abolishing Offices of First Fruits and Tenths.
- II Books, &c. belonging to abolished Offices to be delivered up to the Treasurer of Queen Anne's Bounty.
  - III The Treasurer of Queen Anne's Bounty to be the sole Collector of the First Fruits and Tenths.
  - IV Alteration in the Mode-of collecting First Fruits and Tenths not to affect the Remedies for compelling Payment.
  - V Duties of abolished Offices to be performed by Treasurer of Queen Anne's Bounty.
  - VI Searches to be made and Copies of Documents to be obtained as heretofore.
  - VII Fees for Searches, &c. to be paid to the Treasurer of Queen Anne's Bounty.
  - VIII Account of First Fruits and Tenths payable to be sent to Clerks on Institution.
  - IX Notice of Arrears to be sent to the Party omitting to pay.
  - X Provisions of former Acts relating to First Fruits and Tenths to continue in force, except where altered by this Act.
  - XI Compensation to the Remembrancer of First Fruits and Tenths.
  - XII Compensation to other Officers.
  - XIII Title to be shown to the Office of Remembrancer.
  - XIV In case of not making out a good Title, Purchase Money to be paid into Court of Exchequer.
  - XV Persons in Possession of Office of Remembrancer to be deemed rightfully entitled thereto until contrary is proved.
  - XVI Bishop of Ripon and Bishops of any future new Sees to be Governors.
  - XVII General Meeting of Governors to be held yearly.

- XVIII Account to be annually laid before Her Majesty in Council and both Houses of Parliament.
- XIX Governors empowered to make Rules and Orders.
- XX Deeds for Purchases, &c, to be made in the following Form.
- XXI Deed for granting Stipends, &c. to be in the following Form.
- XXII Definition of the Word " grant " in Conveyances, &c.
- XXIII Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty to cause Deeds to be enrolled.
- XXIV Powers of Acts now in force respecting Forms of Deeds, &c. not to be affected.
- XXV Act may be altered, &c. this Session.

---

The SCHEDULE —
referred to by this Act