

Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847

1847 CHAPTER 34 10 and 11 Vict

An Act for consolidating in One Act certain Provisions usually contained in Acts for paving, draining, cleansing, lighting, and improving Towns. [21st June 1847]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Preamble omitted under authority of Statute Law Revision Act 1891 \(c. 67\)
- C2 References to Ireland to be construed as exclusive of Republic of Ireland: S. R. & O. 1923/405 (Rev. X, p. 298; 1923, p. 400), art. 2
- C3 This Act is not necessarily in the form in which it has effect in Northern Ireland

[1.] Extent of Act.

This Act shall extend only to such towns or districts in England or Ireland as shall be comprised in any Act of Parliament hereafter to be passed which shall declare that this Act shall be incorporated therewith; and all the clauses of this Act, save so far as they shall be expressly varied or excepted by any such Act, shall apply to the town or district which shall be comprised in such Act, and to the commissioners appointed for improving and regulating the same, so far as such clauses shall be applicable thereto respectively, and shall, with the clauses of every other Act which shall be incorporated therewith, form part of such Act, and be construed therewith as forming one Act.

Interpretations in this Act

And with respect to the construction of this Act, whether incorporated in whole or in part with any other Act, and of any Act incorporated therewith, be it enacted as follows:

2 “the special Act:” “prescribed:” “the commissioners.”

The expression “the special Act” used in this Act shall be construed to mean any Act which shall be hereafter passed for the improvement or regulation of any town or district, or of any class of towns or districts, defined or comprised therein, and with which this Act shall be incorporated; and the word “prescribed” used in this Act in reference to any matter herein stated shall be construed to refer to such matter as

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847. (See end of Document for details) the same shall be prescribed or provided for in the special Act, and the sentence in which such word shall occur shall be construed as if instead of the word “prescribed” the expression “prescribed for that purpose in the special Act” had been used; and the expression “the commissioners” shall mean the commissioners, trustees, or other persons or body corporate intrusted by the special Act with powers for executing the purposes thereof.

3 Interpretations in this and the special Act. Number: Gender: “Person:” “Lands:” “Street:” “Month:” “Superior Courts:” “County:” “Justice:” “Two Justices:” “Owner:” “Cattle:”

The following words and expressions in both this and the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say,)

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number:

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females:

The word “person” shall include a corporation, whether aggregate or sole:

The word “lands” shall include messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, of any tenure:

The word “street” shall extend to and include any road, square, court, alley, and thoroughfare, within the limits of the special Act:

The word “month” shall mean a calendar month:

The expression “superior courts” shall mean her Majesty’s superior courts of record at [^{F1}the Royal Courts of Justice or Belfast] as the case may require . . . ^{F2}

.....^{F3}
The word “county” shall include riding or other division of a county having a separate commission of the peace, and shall also include county of a city or county of a town:

The word “justice” shall mean justice of the peace acting for the place where the matter requiring the cognizance of any justice arises; and where any matter is authorized or required to be done by two justices, the expression “two justices” shall be understood to mean two or more justices met and acting together:

.....^{F4}
The word “owner,” used with reference to any lands or buildings in respect of which any work is required to be done, or any rate to be paid, under this or the special Act shall mean the person for the time being entitled to receive, or who, if such lands or buildings were let to a tenant at rackrent, would be entitled to receive, the rackrent from the occupier thereof:

The word “cattle” shall include horses, asses, mules, sheep, goats, and swine.

Citing the Act

And with respect to citing this Act or any part thereof, be it enacted as follows:

4 Short title of this Act.

In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal instruments, it shall be enough to use the expression “The Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847.”

5 Form in which portions of this Act may be incorporated with other Acts.

For the purposes of incorporating part only of this Act with any Act hereafter to be passed, it shall be enough to describe the clauses of this Act with respect to any matter in the words introductory to the enactment with respect to such matter, and to enact that the clauses so described, or that this Act, with the exception of the clauses so described, shall be incorporated with such Act; and thereupon all the clauses of this Act so incorporated shall, save so far as they are expressly varied or excepted by such Act, form part of such Act, and such Act shall be construed as if such clauses were set forth therein with reference to the matter to which such Act relates.

Officers

And with respect to the officers to be appointed by the commissioners or under any general town improvement Act, be it enacted as follows:

6 Until an inspector is appointed under some general Act, execution of works may be proceeded with without his approval.

When by this or the special Act any matter is required to be submitted to, or to be done with the approval of, the inspector, such inspector shall be understood to mean an inspector appointed under any general Act passed in this or any future session of Parliament authorizing the appointment of inspectors for inspecting or superintending works connected with paving, draining, or improving towns or populous districts; and until such an officer is appointed under any such general Act the commissioners, unless it be otherwise provided by the special Act, may proceed in the execution of this and the special Act without the approval of such officer, and as if no such officer had been mentioned in this or the special Act.

Surveys and plans

And with respect to plans of the district within the limits of the special Act, and of the works to be executed under the powers of this and the special Act, be it enacted as follows:

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847. (See end of Document for details)

13 Commissioners to cause a map of the district within the limits of the special Act to be made, and to be open to inspection.

The commissioners shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of the special Act, procure or cause to be made a survey and map of the district within the limits of the special Act, on a scale of not less than sixty inches to a mile, and shall cause to be marked thereon the course of all the existing sewers and drains belonging to them or under their care or management, and, as far as can be ascertained, the lines of pipes or conduits for the collection and distribution of water, the course of the pipes for the distribution of gas, and such other works, with such other particulars as may be necessary in order to show the underground works within the said district, and shall cause the said map to be from time to time corrected, and such additions to be made thereto as may show the sewers and drains for the time being belonging to the commissioners, and such other pipes and underground works as aforesaid; and such map and plan, or a copy thereof, with the date expressed thereon of the last time when it was so corrected, shall be kept in the office of the commissioners, and shall be open at all seasonable hours to the inspection of the owners or occupiers of any lands within such district.

14 Ordnance may furnish commissioners with maps, or cause surveys to be made.

The principal officers of her Majesty's Ordnance may, if they think fit, on the application of the commissioners, and at their expence, furnish for the use of the said commissioners one or more copies of any map of such district, or any part thereof, which shall have been made under the direction of the said Ordnance Officers, or may cause a survey to be made of the said district on a scale of not less than sixty inches to the mile by surveying officers appointed by them, for such remuneration as shall previously be agreed upon between the said principal officers and the commissioners.

15 Level lines to be marked on map, and bench marks to be made for denoting the same.

The Commissioners shall cause to be marked on the map so procured or caused to be made by them a series of marks and figures at convenient distances on the said map, denoting the height of the ground at every such mark above or below the level of a particular spot within the limits of the special Act, which may be easily found and identified, the position of which spot shall be described on the map, and shall also cause to be drawn, wherever practicable, lines of equal altitude at every four feet of elevation, or at such other intervals as may appear, upon due inquiry, to be the best adapted for the guidance of works of sewerage and drainage, for the collection and distribution of water, and for other purposes within such district for which a knowledge of the levels of the district may be necessary, and shall also cause proper bench marks for denoting the levels to be inscribed and marked at convenient distances and places, at the corners of streets, on posts, houses, or other prominent objects within such district.

16 Commissioners may cause maps to be engraved, &c., and pay expences out of rates.

The commissioners may cause every such plan to be copied, engraved, or printed and coloured in such manner as appears to them most convenient, and may defray the costs of any surveys and maps made under their direction, and any costs incurred by them

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847. (See end of Document for details) in regard to any such ordnance map, out of the rates authorized to be levied under this and the special Act.

17 Commissioners to cause plans to be prepared of alterations of new works or alterations of existing works.

The commissioners shall cause their surveyor to prepare plans of any new works, and additions to or alterations of existing works, that may be required for the effectual drainage of the houses and streets within such district, including provision for properly trapped drains or channels for the removal of all waste water and refuse from the houses and from the surface of the streets, and also to draw on such plans the lines that appear to him most advantageous for main sewers, and the best outfalls for clearing the whole district of surface moisture, and effecting the drainage of the subsoil, and to point out the most appropriate means and sites for the collection and sale of filth and refuse for agricultural or other purposes, and also to set forth any other matters which may assist the commissioners in carrying into execution, in an economical and effective manner, the several works required to be carried into execution under the provisions of this and the special Act, or which appears to be necessary for the health and convenience of the inhabitants of such district.

18 Before giving notice of construction of works, plans to be prepared and deposited in the office of the commissioners.

Before giving notice of their intention to construct any work of which by this or the special Act they are required to give notice, the commissioners shall cause plans of the intended work to be made, under the direction of their surveyor, on a scale not less for a horizontal plan than one inch to eighty-eight feet, and for a vertical section not less than one inch to two feet, and, in the case of a sewer, showing the depth of such sewer below the surface of the ground; and such plans shall be deposited in the office of the commissioners, or some other convenient place appointed for that purpose, and shall be open at all reasonable hours for the inspection of all persons interested therein, during the time for which such notice is required to be given.

Lands

And with respect to taking lands, and the compensation to be made by the commissioners for damage done by them on execution of the powers of this and the special Act, be it enacted as follows:

19 The taking of lands to be subject to the provisions of this Act and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845.

Where by this or the special Act the commissioners shall be empowered to take or use for the purposes thereof any lands otherwise than with the consent of the owners and occupiers thereof, they shall, in exercising the powers so given, be subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in this Act and in the ^{M1}Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845; and the commissioners shall make to the owners and occupiers of and all other parties interested in any such lands taken or used for the purposes of this or the special Act full compensation for the value of the lands so taken or used, and for all damage sustained by such owners, occupiers, and other parties, by reason of the exercise, as regards such lands, of the powers vested in the commissioners by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847. (See end of Document for details) and, except where otherwise provided by this or the special Act, the amount of such compensation shall be determined in the manner provided by the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act for determining questions of compensation with regard to lands purchased or taken under the provisions thereof; and all the provisions of the last-mentioned Act shall be applicable to determine the amount of any such compensation, and to enforce the payment or other satisfaction thereof.

20 Errors and omissions in plans, &c. may be corrected by justices, who shall certify the same. Certificate to be deposited.

If any omission, mis-statement, or wrong description shall have been made of any lands, or of the owners, lessees, or occupiers of any lands, mentioned in any schedule to the special Act, the commissioners, after giving ten days notice to the owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands affected by such proposed correction, may apply to two justices for the correction thereof; and if it appear to such justices that such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description arose from mistake, they shall certify the same accordingly, and they shall in such certificate state the particulars of any such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description; and such certificate, with the other documents to which it relates, shall be deposited with the clerk of the peace of the county in which the lands affected thereby are situated, and such certificate shall be kept by such clerk of the peace with the other documents to which it relates, and thereupon such schedule shall be deemed to be corrected according to such certificate; and the commissioners may take any lands in accordance with such certificate, as if such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description had not been made.

21 Commissioners to make compensation for damage done. If parties cannot agree as to compensation, the same to be determined in manner provided by 7 & 8 Vict. c. 18.

The commissioners shall make good all damage to any buildings or land by reason of altering the level of any street, or otherwise carrying into execution any of the powers of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, and shall pay to the owners, lessees, and occupiers of any such buildings or lands respectively such amount of compensation for such injury as shall be agreed upon between such owners, lessees, and occupiers, and the commissioners; and if such owners, lessees, and occupiers and the commissioners cannot agree as to the amount of such compensation, and the proportions thereof to be paid to such owners, lessees, and occupiers respectively, then the amount of such compensation, and also the proportions which the persons claiming the same are entitled to, shall be determined in the manner provided by the ^{M2}Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 for determining questions of compensation with regard to land purchased or taken under the provisions thereof; and all the provisions

Sewers

And with respect to making and maintaining the public sewers, be it enacted as follows:

22 Management of sewers and other works vested in the commissioners.

All public sewers and drains within the limits of the special Act, and all sewers and drains in and under the streets, with all the works and materials thereunto belonging, whether made at the time of the passing of the special Act, or at any time thereafter, and whether made at the cost of the commissioners or otherwise, and the entire management of the same, shall vest in and belong to the commissioners.

23 Drainage districts to be formed, subject to approval of inspector.

The commissioners shall from time to time, subject to the approval of the inspector, divide the whole town or district within the limits of the special Act, if and as occasion shall require, into separate drainage districts, having regard in such division to the nature of the ground, to the main lines of sewers by which such separate drainage districts are or shall be drained, and to the equal benefit, as far as may be, of all the lands and buildings to be comprised in any such drainage district, and shall cause their surveyor to define and describe the several drainage districts on a plan of the town or district within the limits of the special Act, to be made as aforesaid.

24 Power to commissioners to construct sewers where none exist, making compensation to owners of property.

The commissioners shall from time to time, subject to the restrictions herein contained as to the notice to be given, and the plans and estimates to be prepared, cause to be made under the streets such main and other sewers as shall be necessary for the effectual draining of the town or district within the limits of the special Act, and also all such reservoirs, sluices, engines, and other works as shall be necessary for cleansing such sewers, and, if needful, they may carry such sewers through and across all underground cellars and vaults under any of the streets, doing as little damage as may be, and making full compensation for any damage done; and if for completing any of the aforesaid works it be found necessary to carry them into or through any inclosed or other lands, the commissioners may carry the same into or through such lands accordingly, making full compensation to the owners and occupiers thereof, and they may also cause such sewers to communicate with and empty themselves into the sea, or any public river, or they may cause the refuse from such sewers to be conveyed by a proper channel to the most convenient site for its collection and sale for agricultural or other purposes, as may be deemed most expedient, but so that the same shall in no case become a nuisance.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847. (See end of Document for details)

25 Commissioners may alter sewers from time to time.

The commissioners may from time to time, as they see fit, enlarge, alter, arch over, and otherwise improve all or any of the sewers vested in them, and if any of such sewers at any time appear to them to have become useless, the commissioners, if they think fit to do so, may demolish and discontinue such sewer, provided that it be so done as not to create a nuisance.

26 Commissioners not to destroy existing sewers, &c. without providing others. Penalty for neglect.

If any person, by means of any enlargement, alteration, or discontinuance of any sewer, or other proceeding of the commissioners, be deprived of the use of any sewer or drain which such person was theretofore lawfully entitled to use, the commissioners shall provide some other sewer or drain equally effectual for such purpose; and if the commissioners refuse or do not within seven days next after notice in writing served upon them begin and thereupon diligently proceed to restore to its former effective state such drain or sewer, the use whereof has been affected by the acts of the commissioners, or to provide such other sewer or drain as aforesaid, they shall forfeit to the person aggrieved any sum not exceeding [^{F6}£2] for every day after the expiration of such seven days during which he is deprived of the use of the drain or sewer to which he was so entitled, and is not provided with such other drain or sewer as aforesaid.

Textual Amendments

F6 Words substituted by virtue of Decimal Currency Act 1969 \(c. 19\), s. 10\(1\)

27 Commissioners to cause estimates to be prepared and submitted to the inspector.

Before entering into any contract for executing any such work as aforesaid the commissioners shall procure from their surveyor an estimate of the probable expence of constructing the same in a substantial manner, and of the yearly expence of maintaining the same in repair, and each surveyor shall accompany such estimate with a report as to the most advantageous mode of constructing such work, whether under a contract for constructing the same merely, or a contract for constructing the same and maintaining it in repair during a given term of years; and the commissioners shall submit the plan and estimate of every such work, together with the report of their surveyor, to the inspector, who shall make in writing such observations or suggestions thereupon as may seem to him to be expedient; and if the commissioners do not regard or do not act in conformity with such observations or suggestions, they shall enter upon the minutes of their proceedings their reasons for not so doing.

28 As to the expence of making new sewers. Where lands, &c. were sufficiently drained before making new sewer, occupier to have a reduction made in his rates.

The expence of making any new sewer shall be defrayed as herein-after provided, by special sewer rates to be levied on the occupiers of all lands and buildings within the drainage district in which such sewer is situated: Provided always, that where, in the judgment of the commissioners, and by allowance of the inspector, any lands or buildings were sufficiently drained before the making of such new sewer, the occupiers thereof shall be entitled to have such deduction made from the special sewer rates to which they would otherwise be liable in respect of the making of such new sewer, and for such time, as the commissioners, with the approval of the inspector, shall deem to be just, having regard to the cost of making such new sewer, and to the value and efficiency of such old sewer; and whenever any old sewer is enlarged, or open sewer closed, the expence of such enlargement, or of closing such open sewer, shall be defrayed in like manner as if it had been incurred in making a new sewer.

29 As to the expence of maintaining sewers, &c.

The expence of maintaining and cleaning all sewers vested in the commissioners, and all other expences connected with such sewers not herein-before provided for, or which may not be fully defrayed by the special sewer rates, shall be defrayed by general sewer rates to be levied as herein-after provided on the occupiers of all lands and buildings within the drainage district in which such sewers are severally situated.

30 Penalty for making unauthorized drains.

Every person not being employed for that purpose by the commissioners, who shall make any drain into any of the sewers or drains so vested in the commissioners shall forfeit . . . ^{F7} a sum not exceeding [^{F8}£25][^{F8}level 1 on the standard scale] and the commissioners may cause such branch drain to be re-made as they think fit, and all the expence incurred thereby shall be paid by the person making such branch drain, and shall be recoverable by the commissioners as damages.

31 Vaults and cellars under streets not to be made without the consent of the commissioners.

No building shall be erected over any sewer belonging to the commissioners, and no vault, arch, or cellar shall be made under the carriageway of any street, without the consent of the commissioners first obtained in writing, and all such vaults, arches, and cellars shall be substantially made, and so as not to interfere or communicate with any sewers belonging to the commissioners; and if after the passing of the special Act any building be erected, or any vault, arch, or cellar be made, contrary to the provisions herein contained, the commissioners may demolish or fill up the same, and the expences incurred thereby shall be paid by the person erecting such building, or making such vault, arch, or cellar, and shall be recoverable as damages.

32 Streets may be stopped for repairs.

The commissioners may stop any street, and prevent all persons from passing along and using the same, for a reasonable time during the construction, alteration, repair, or demolition of any sewer or drain in or under such street.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847. (See end of Document for details)

33 All sewers, &c. to be covered with traps.

All sewers and drains within the limits of the special Act, whether public or private, shall be provided by the commissioners or other persons to whom they severally belong with proper traps or other coverings or means of ventilation so as to prevent stench.

34 Sewers may be used by owners and occupiers of land beyond limits of town or district.

Any person, being the owner or occupier of any lands beyond the limits of the special Act, and in respect of which he would not be liable to the payment of the rates authorized to be levied under this and the special Act, may, with the consent of the commissioners first obtained in writing, upon payment to them of a reasonable sum of money to be agreed upon between them, at his own expence, and under the superintendence of the surveyor of the commissioners, cause to branch into and to communicate with any of the sewers belonging to the commissioners any sewer or drain in respect of the said property which may be lawfully made therefrom, of such size and in such manner and form of communication as the commissioners approve of: Provided always, that nothing in this or the special Act contained shall effect any right theretofore acquired by such owner or occupier to use any of the sewers or drains belonging to the commissioners under the provisions of this or the special Act.

House drains

And with respect to the drainage of houses, be it enacted as follows:—

35 Commissioners empowered to construct drains from houses, charging owner, &c. with the expence.

If any house or building within the limits of the special Act be at any time not drained by a sufficient drain or pipe communicating with some sewer, or with the sea or some public river, to the satisfaction of the commissioners, and if there shall be such means of drainage within one hundred feet of any part of such house or building, the commissioners shall construct or lay from such house or building a covered drain or pipe, of such materials, of such size, at such level, and with such fall, as they think necessary for the drainage of such house or buildings, its areas, waterclosets, privies, and offices; provided that the cost of executing such work shall not, without the written consent of the owner, exceed one year's rackrent of such house or building; and the expences incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof, if not forthwith paid by the owner or occupier, shall be defrayed by the drainage rates herein-after mentioned.

36 No house to be hereafter built without drains being constructed.

No house or building within the limits of the special Act shall be built upon a lower level than will allow of the drainage of the wash and refuse of such house or building into some sewer belonging to the commissioners either then existing or marked out upon the map herein-before directed to be made by them, or into the sea, or some public river into which the commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers; and if there be such means of drainage existing within one hundred feet of such intended house or building, the commissioners shall cause a drain leading thereunto from the intended site of such house to be made, of such materials, of such size, at such level, and with such fall, as they think fit, or if there be no such means of drainage within one hundred feet of any part of the said intended site of such house or building, then such drain shall be made so as to lead into such covered cesspool or other place as the commissioners direct, not being under any dwelling house, and constructed to the satisfaction of the commissioners, so as effectually to prevent the escape of the contents thereof, until such sewer as aforesaid is made by the commissioners, when they shall make a drain to communicate with such new-made sewer, and shall demolish and fill up any such cesspool.

37 Where houses are rebuilt, the level shall be sufficient to allow a drain to be constructed.

Whenever any house is rebuilt within the limits of the special Act, the level of the cellar or other lowest floor of such house shall be raised sufficiently to allow of the construction of such a drain as is herein-before provided in the case of houses to be built after the passing of the special Act; and whenever any house is taken down as low as the floor of the first story for the purpose of being built up again, such building shall be deemed a rebuilding within the meaning of this Act.

38 Notice of buildings and rebuildings to be given to the commissioners.

Before beginning to build any new house, or to rebuild any existing house, within the limits of the special Act, the person intending to build or rebuild such house shall give to the commissioners notice thereof in writing, and shall accompany such notice with a plan showing the level at which the foundation of such house is proposed to be laid, by reference to some level ascertained under the direction of the commissioners.

39 Commissioners may signify disapproval within fourteen days.

Within fourteen days after receiving such notice the commissioners may signify their disapproval of the level at which it is proposed to lay the foundations of any such house, and in case of such disapproval may within the said fourteen days fix the level at which the same is to be laid, subject to such right of appeal as is herein-after mentioned.

40 Houses built without notice, or contrary to provisions of this or the special Act, may be altered.

In default of sending such notice and plan, or if such building be begun or made at any level different from that fixed by the commissioners within the said fourteen days, or determined on appeal as after mentioned, or in any other respect contrary to the provisions of this or the special Act, the commissioners may, if necessary, cause such building to be altered or demolished, as the case requires, and the expence incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall be repaid to them by the person failing to comply with the provision aforesaid, and shall be recoverable as damages.

41 If commissioners fail to signify their approval, &c. within fourteen days, parties may proceed without.

Provided always that if the commissioners fail to signify in writing their approval or disapproval of the level shown on such plan as aforesaid within fourteen days after receiving such notice and plan as aforesaid, the person giving such notice may, notwithstanding anything herein-before contained, proceed to build or rebuild the house therein referred to according to the level shown on such plan, provided that such building or rebuilding be otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this and the special Act.

42 Commissioners may require owners of houses to provide privies and ashpits for the same.

The commissioners shall require the owner of every house within the said limits, to which no sufficient privy and ashpit, with proper doors and coverings, is attached, to provide, where it appears to them that there is room enough for the purpose, such privy and ashpit in such situation, not disturbing any building then already erected, as the commissioners deem necessary for the use of the inmates and occupiers thereof; and every such privy and ashpit shall be constructed to the satisfaction of the commissioners, so as effectually to prevent the escape of the contents thereof: Provided always that where a privy and ashpit is used in common by the inmates and occupiers of two or more of such houses, the commissioners may, if they think fit, dispense with the provision of a privy and ashpit for each such house.

43 Penalty for neglecting to provide privy, &c.

The owner of any such house shall provide the same with a privy, with such door and covering to the same, and with such ashpit as aforesaid, to the satisfaction of the commissioners, within one month next after notice in writing for that purpose given by the commissioners to him or to the occupier of such house, and in default thereof the commissioners shall cause such privy and ashpit to be provided, so nevertheless that the cost of executing such work shall not, without the written consent of the owner, exceed one year's rackrent of such house or building; and the expence incurred thereby shall be defrayed by the drainage rates herein-after mentioned.

44 Drains, privies, and cesspools to be kept in good order by owners. If owners neglect, commissioners may cause the same to be done, and charge the owners with the expence.

All branch drains, as well within as without the lands or buildings to which they belong, and all privies, ashpits, and cesspools within the limits of the special Act, shall be under the survey and control of the commissioners, and shall be altered, repaired, and kept in proper order at the costs and charges of the owners of the lands and buildings to which the same belong, or for the use of which they are constructed or continued; and if the owner and occupier of any land or buildings to which any such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool belongs neglect, during fourteen days after notice in writing for that purpose, to alter, repair, and to put the same into good order, in the manner required by the commissioners, the commissioners may cause such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool to be altered, repaired, covered, and put in good order; and the expence incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall be repaid to them by the owners by whom the same ought to have been done, and shall be recoverable as damages.

45 As to the inspection of drains, privies, and cesspools.

The surveyor of the commissioners may inspect any drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool within the limits of the special Act, and for that purpose, at all reasonable times in the daytime, after twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the occupier of the premises to which such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool is attached, may enter upon any lands and buildings, with such assistants and workmen as are necessary, and cause the ground to be opened where he thinks fit, doing as little damage as may be; and if such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool is found to be in proper order and condition, he shall cause the ground to be closed and made good as soon as may be; and the expences of opening, closing, and making good such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool shall in that case be defrayed by the commissioners.

46 Penalty on persons making or altering drains, &c. contrary to the orders of the commissioners.

If any such drain, privy, or cesspool be on inspection found to have been constructed, after the passing of the special Act, contrary to the directions and regulations of the commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this or the special Act, or if any person, without the consent of the commissioners, construct, rebuild, or unstop any drain, privy, or cesspool which has been ordered by them to be demolished or stopped up or not to be made, every person so doing shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ^[F10]£25^[F11] level 1 on the standard scale; and the commissioners may cause such amendment or alteration to be made in any such drain, privy, or cesspool as they think fit; and the expence attending any such amendment or alteration shall be paid by the person by whom such sewer was improperly constructed, rebuilt, or altered, and shall be recoverable from him as damages.

51 Power for the commissioners to pave public streets.

The commissioners may from time to time cause all or any of the streets under their management, or any part thereof respectively, to be paved, flagged, or otherwise made good, and the ground or soil thereof to be raised, lowered, or altered, in such manner and with such materials as they think fit; and they may also pave or make, with such materials as they think fit, any footways for the use of passengers in any such street, and cause such streets and footways to be repaired from time to time.

52 Commissioners may place fences to footways.

The commissioners shall from time to time place such fences and posts on the side of the footways of the streets under their management as may be needed for the protection of passengers on such footways, and they may place posts in the carriageways of such streets, so as to make the crossing thereof less dangerous for foot passengers; and they shall from time to time repair any such fences or posts, or remove the same, or any obstruction to any such carriageway or footway, as they think fit.

53 Where public streets have not heretofore been paved, commissioners may cause them to be paved, at the expence of the occupiers of adjoining lands.

If any street, although a public highway at the passing of the special Act, have not theretofore been well and sufficiently paved and flagged or otherwise made good, the commissioners may cause such street, or the parts thereof not so paved and flagged or otherwise made good, to be paved and flagged or otherwise made good in such manner as they think fit, and the expences incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall be repaid to them by the occupiers of the lands abutting on such street, or such parts thereof as have not been theretofore well and sufficiently paved and flagged or otherwise made good, and such expences shall be recoverable from such occupiers respectively as herein-after provided with respect to private improvement expences, and thereafter such street shall be repaired by the commissioners out of the rates levied under this or the special Act.

54 Future streets may be declared highways.

If any street, not being a public highway at the passing of the special Act, be then or thereafter paved, flagged, or otherwise made good, to the satisfaction of the commissioners, then, on the application of the greater part in value of the occupiers of the houses and lands in such street, the commissioners shall, by writing under their common seal, if they be incorporated, or if they be not incorporated, then under the hands of five of the commissioners, declare the same to be a public highway, and thereupon the said street shall become a public highway, and shall be thereafter repaired by the commissioners out of the rates levied under this and the special Act; and such declaration shall be entered among the proceedings of the commissioners, and notice of such declaration shall be put up in some conspicuous place in or near such street.

55 Commissioners, upon completion of two thirds of any street, may upon application require remaining one third to be completed by owners of houses.

If any street, not being a public highway at the passing of the special Act, be thereafter to the extent of two third parts thereof paved and flagged or otherwise made good to the satisfaction of the commissioners, then, on the application of the owners of the lands abutting on such parts of the said street as have been so made good, the commissioners may require the owners of the buildings or lands abutting on the remainder of the said street to pave and flag or otherwise make good to the satisfaction of the commissioners such remainder of the said street, or such parts thereof as front such last-mentioned buildings and lands, within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the commissioners; and if such remainder of the said street, or any such part thereof as aforesaid, be not made good as aforesaid within the time so fixed, the commissioners may cause the part not so made good to be made good, and the expences which shall be incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall be repaid to them by the owners by whom such paving ought to have been done respectively; and such expences, if not forthwith repaid by such owners, shall be recoverable from the occupiers of such buildings and lands as hereinafter provided with respect to private improvement expences; and when the whole of the said street is paved and made good to the satisfaction of the commissioners, they shall, by writing under their common seal, if they be incorporated, or if they be not incorporated, then under the hands of five of the commissioners, declare the same to be a public highway, and thereupon the said street shall become a public highway, and shall for ever afterwards be repaired by the commissioners; and such declaration shall be entered among the proceedings of the commissioners.

56 Penalty on persons altering pavements without the consent of the commissioners.

Every person who wilfully displaces, takes up, or makes any alteration in the pavement, flags, or other materials of any street under the management of the commissioners, without their consent in writing, or without other lawful authority, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding [F14[F15£25]] [F14]level 1 on the standard scale], and also a further sum not exceeding [F16]25p] for every square foot of the pavement, flags, or other materials of the street, exceeding one square foot, so displaced, taken up, or altered.

New streets

And with respect to laying out new streets, be it enacted as follows:

57 Notice of intention to lay out new streets to be given to commissioners.

Every person who intends to make or lay out any new street shall give notice thereof to the commissioners, in order that the level of such street may be fixed by the commissioners.

58 Levels to be fixed by the surveyor to the commissioners.

The level of every new street shall be fixed under the direction of the surveyor of the commissioners, subject to such right of appeal as hereafter mentioned; and the level so fixed, if not altered on appeal, shall be kept thereafter by every person raising any house or other building in such street.

59 If the commissioners fail to fix the level, the party may proceed without.

If the commissioners do not fix such level within six weeks from the time of the delivery of such notice as aforesaid, unless the fixing of such level be delayed by the appeal herein-after provided, the person giving such notice may proceed to lay out the street at any level which will allow of compliance with the other provisions of this and the special Act, as if such level had been fixed by the commissioners; and in such case every change of the level which the commissioners afterwards deem requisite, and the works consequent thereon, shall be made by the commissioners, and the expence thereof, and any damage which any person sustains in consequence of such alteration, shall be defrayed by them.

60 Persons laying out streets without notice to be liable to the expences of subsequent alterations of levels.

Every person who makes or lays out any such new street as aforesaid, without causing such notice to be given to the commissioners as aforesaid, shall be liable to defray all the expences consequent upon any change of the level of the said street deemed requisite by the commissioners; and every person who in building any house or other building in such street does not keep the level fixed by the commissioners shall be liable to defray all the expences consequent upon any change of the level of that part of the street on which such house or building abuts which the commissioners deem requisite.

61 Situation of gas and water pipes to be altered at the expence of the commissioners.

For the purposes of this or the special Act, if the commissioners deem it necessary to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the situation of any water pipe or gas pipe, or other waterworks or gasworks laid in any of the streets, they may from time to time, by notice in writing, require the person to whom any such pipes or works belong to cause forthwith, as soon as conveniently may be, any such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or otherwise altered in position, in such manner as the commissioners direct; provided that such alteration be not such as permanently to injure such works, or to prevent the water or gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as before; and the expences attending such raising, sinking, or altering, and full compensation for every damage done thereby, shall be paid by the commissioners, as well to the persons to whom such pipes or works belong as to all other persons.

62 If gas or water company neglect to make the alteration, the commissioners may cause the same to be done.

If the person to whom any such pipes or works belong do not proceed forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt of such notice, to cause the same to be raised, sunk, or altered, in such manner as the commissioners require, the commissioners may themselves cause such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or altered as they think fit; provided that such works be not permanently injured thereby, or the water or gas prevented from flowing as freely and conveniently as before.

63 As to the width of new streets.

It shall not be lawful to make or lay out any new street unless the same be of the prescribed width, or, where no width is prescribed, unless the same, being a carriage road, be at least thirty feet wide, or, not being a carriage road, be at least twenty feet wide.

Naming streets

And with respect to naming the streets and numbering the houses, be it enacted as follows:

64 Houses to be numbered and streets named.

The commissioners shall from time to time cause the houses and buildings in all or any of the streets to be marked with numbers as they think fit, and shall cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of some house, building, or place, at or near each end, corner, or entrance of every such street, the name by which such street is to be known; and every person who destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such number or name, or puts up any number or name different from the number or name put up by the commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding [^{F17} [^{F18} £25]] [^{F17} level 1 on the standard scale] for every such offence.

84 Commissioners to give notice of new levels of sewers.

Twenty-eight days at the least before fixing the level of any street which has not become a public highway, or any street which has not been theretofore levelled or paved, and before making any sewer where none was before, or altering the course or level of or abandoning or stopping any sewer, the commissioners shall give notice of their intention by posting a printed or written notice in a conspicuous place at each end of every such street through or in which such work is to be undertaken, which notice shall set forth the name or situation of the street intended to be levelled or paved, and the names of the places through or near which it is intended that the new sewer shall pass, or the existing sewer be altered or stopped up, and also the places of the beginning and the end thereof, and shall refer to plans of such intended work, and shall specify a place where such plans may be seen, and a time when and place where all persons interested in such intended work may be heard thereupon; and they shall at the same time give to the inspector notice of the said intended work, and of the time and place appointed for hearing objections thereto.

85 Meeting of commissioners to hear objections in the presence of the inspector.

The commissioners shall meet at the time and place mentioned in the said notice, to consider, in the presence of the inspector, or of the surveyor of the commissioners, any objections made against such intended work, and all persons interested therein, or likely to be aggrieved thereby, shall be entitled to be heard before the commissioners at such meeting; and thereupon the commissioners may, with the concurrence of the inspector, if any inspector has been appointed and is present at such meeting, or in the absence of the inspector, or if no inspector have been appointed, then in their discretion, abandon or make such alterations in the said intended work as they judge fit; and no such work to which any objection is made at such meeting at which any such inspector shall be present shall be executed unless the inspector, or if no inspector has been appointed, then unless the surveyor of the commissioners, after the person making such objection or his agent has been heard, certify that the work in his judgment ought to be executed, nor shall such work be begun until the end of seven days after an order for the execution thereof has been duly made by the commissioners, and entered in their books.

Cleansing streets

And with respect to cleansing the streets, be it enacted as follows:

87 Commissioners to cause streets to be cleansed, and dust and ashes to be removed from the houses.

The commissioners shall cause all the streets, together with the foot pavements, from time to time to be properly swept and cleansed, and all dust and filth of every sort found thereon to be collected and removed, and shall cause all the dust, ashes, and rubbish to be carried away from the houses and tenements of the inhabitants of the town or district within the limits of the special Act, at convenient hours and times, and shall cause the privies and cesspools within the said town or district to be from time to time emptied and cleansed in a sufficient and proper manner: Provided always, that the occupier of any house or tenement within the limits of the special Act may keep and remove any such soil, ashes, or rubbish as shall be made on his own premises, and shall be kept for manure, so that the same be not a nuisance to the inhabitants residing near such premises, and that the same be removed at such times and in such manner as shall be approved of by the commissioners.

88 Occupiers to cause footways to be swept. Penalty for neglect.

The occupiers of buildings and lands within or adjoining the streets shall once in every day, (Sundays excepted,) before eight of the clock in the forenoon of each day, cause to be swept and cleansed the footways and pavements in front or at the side of their respective buildings and lands; and every such occupier making default herein shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding [^{F25}£25]; and for the purpose aforesaid, when any house shall be let in separate apartments, the person letting such apartments shall be deemed the occupier.

be made before two justices; and any justice may summon before any two justices the person by or on whose behalf the work complained of is carried on, and such justices shall inquire into such complaint, and they may, by an order in writing under their hands, order such persons to discontinue or remedy the nuisance within such time as to them shall appear expedient: Provided always, that if it appear to such justices that in carrying on any business complained of the best means then known to be available for mitigating the nuisance or the injurious effects of such business have not been adopted, they may suspend their final determination, upon condition that the person so complained against shall undertake to adopt within a reasonable time such means as the said justices shall judge to be practicable, and order to be carried into effect, for mitigating or preventing the injurious effects of such business.

105 Penalty for disobedience of orders of justices.

If any such nuisance, or the cause of any such injurious effects as aforesaid, be not discontinued or remedied within such time as shall be ordered by the said justices, the person by or on whose behalf the business causing such nuisance is carried on shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which such nuisance shall be continued or unremedied after the expiration of such time as aforesaid: Provided always, that when any person who thinks himself aggrieved by any such order shall, according to the provisions of this or the special Act, appeal against any such order, such person shall not be liable to discontinue or remedy the nuisance or cause of the injurious effects mentioned therein, or to pay any penalty, until after the expiration of five days after the determination of such appeal and the confirmation of such order, unless such appeal cease to be prosecuted.

106 Commissioners to order costs of prosecutions to be paid out of the rates.

The commissioners may direct any prosecution for any public nuisance whatsoever created, permitted, or suffered within the limits of the special Act, and may order proceedings to be taken for the recovery of any penalties, and for the punishment of any persons offending against the provisions of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, and may order the expences of such prosecution or other proceedings to be paid out of the rates authorized to be imposed under the provisions of this and the special Act.

107 Act not to affect nuisances at common law.

Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render lawful any act or omission on the part of any person which is, or but for this Act would be, deemed to be a nuisance at common law, nor to exempt any person guilty of nuisance at common law from prosecution or action in respect thereof, according to the forms of proceeding at common law, nor from the consequences upon being convicted thereof.

Fire

And with respect to the construction of houses for prevention of fire, be it enacted as follows:

109 Party walls to be carried up through the roof. Walls of buildings and coverings of roofs to be made of incombustible materials.

The party walls of all buildings erected after the passing of the special Act within the limits thereof shall be carried through and above the roof, to form a parapet of not less than twelve inches in height, measured at right angles with the slope of the roof, above the covering of the roof of the highest building to which such party walls belong; and all such party walls, and the external walls of all buildings erected after the passing of the special Act in or near any street, or within the curtilage of any house adjoining any street, shall be constructed of incombustible materials, and the coverings of the roofs thereof shall not, without the previous consent in writing of the commissioners, be constructed of combustible materials; and it shall not be lawful for the owner of any building within the limits of the special Act, having at the passing of the special Act a roof covered with thatch or other combustible material, and contiguous to or adjoining to any other building, to suffer such covering to such roof to remain for a longer period than seven years after the passing of the special Act, unless with the consent in writing of the commissioners; and every person who shall erect any building, or cover any roof, or suffer the covering of any roof to continue, contrary to the provision herein contained, and who shall not remove or alter the same within one month after notice given to him for that purpose by the commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one pound for every day that such building or covering to such roof shall so continue.

Ventilation

And with respect to supplying buildings with fresh air, be it enacted as follows:

110 Regulating construction of buildings intended as places for public meetings. No person to begin to build until plan has been approved by commissioners.

Before beginning to build any building intended to be used as a church, chapel, or school, or a place of public amusement or entertainment, or for holding large numbers of people for any purpose whatsoever, within the limits of the special Act, the person intending to build the same shall give fourteen days notice in writing to the commissioners, and shall accompany such notice with a plan and description of the manner proposed for its construction, with respect to the means of supplying fresh air to such building; and no person shall begin to build such building until the manner proposed for its construction, with respect to the means for supplying fresh air, have been approved of by the commissioners; and in default of sending such notice, or if any such building be erected without such approval, the commissioners may cause such building, or such part of it as they consider necessary, to be pulled down or altered, at the expence of the owner, and any expence incurred by the commissioners in so doing may be recovered as herein-before provided with respect to ruinous or dangerous buildings taken down or repaired by the commissioners.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847. (See end of Document for details)

111 If commissioners fail to signify their approval of plan within fourteen days, party may proceed to build.

Provided always, that if the commissioners fail to signify in writing their approval or disapproval of the manner of construction of such building, with respect to the means of supplying fresh air, shown on such plan and description as aforesaid, within fourteen days after receiving such notice, accompanied by such plan and description, the person giving such notice may, notwithstanding anything herein contained, proceed to build the building therein referred to in the manner shown on such plan and description; provided that such building be otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this and the special Act.

112 Persons may appeal against determination of commissioners.

Provided also, that if the person so intending to build be dissatisfied with the determination of the commissioners as to the said proposed manner of construction, he shall have the same right of appeal against the determination of the commissioners, and such appeal shall be followed by the same incidents, as herein-before provided in the case of appeals against any order of the commissioners with respect to works to be constructed by or subject to the approval of the commissioners.

113 Cellars in courts not to be occupied as dwellings, after letting prohibited.

It shall not be lawful to let separately, except as a warehouse or storehouse, or to suffer to be occupied as a dwelling place, any cellar under any house in any court within the limits of the special Act, after the commissioners have given notice to the owners thereof that the letting of cellars as dwelling places in such court is prohibited from that time forth; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners to issue such notices from time to time, as soon as is convenient, until such notice has been given with respect to every court within the limits of the special Act.

114 No cellars under the height of seven feet from the floor to the ceiling to be let as dwellings.

It shall not be lawful to let separately, except as a warehouse or storehouse, or to suffer to be occupied as a dwelling place, any cellar or room under any house within the said limits, although not situated in a court, which cellar or room shall be less in height from the floor to the ceiling than seven feet, or which shall be less than one third of its height above the level of the street or ground adjoining the same, or otherwise shall not have two feet at least of its height from the floor to the ceiling above the said level, with an open area of two feet wide from the level of the floor of such cellar or room up to the level of the said street or ground, or which shall not have appurtenant thereto the use of a watercloset or privy and ashpit, according to the enactment herein contained, or which shall not also have a glazed window made to open to the full extent of the half thereof, the area of which is not less than six feet clear of the frame, and a fireplace with a chimney or flue, or which cellar, being an inner or back cellar let or occupied along with a front cellar as part of the same letting or occupation, has not a ventilating flue, (unless such inner or back cellar shall be part of a house built before the passing of the special Act,) or which shall not be well and effectually drained by means of a drain the bottom of which is one foot at least below the level of the floor of such cellar or room.

Special order

And with respect to things to be done by the commissioners by special order only, be it enacted as follows:

132 As to certain matters authorized to be done by the commissioners by special order only.

Where by this or the special Act the commissioners are empowered to do anything by special order only, it shall not be lawful for them to do such things unless the resolution to do the same have been agreed to by the commissioners in some meeting whereof special notice has been given, and has been confirmed in a subsequent meeting held not sooner than four weeks after the preceding meeting, and which subsequent meeting has been advertised once at least in each of the weeks intervening between the two meetings in some newspaper circulating within the limits of the special Act, and of which special notice in writing has been given to each of the commissioners.

133 Final resolution not to be carried into effect for one month, nor then if a majority of the ratepayers remonstrate against the same.

Provided always, that after any resolution has been confirmed in a subsequent meeting as aforesaid, the commissioners shall not proceed to carry the same into effect until after the expiration of one month from the date of such second meeting, and during such month such resolution shall be advertised once at least in each week in some newspaper circulating within the limits of the special Act, and public notice thereof shall also be given by means of placards posted in public places within the said limits, and reference shall in such advertisement and notice be made to some place, provided by the commissioners, where the plan or particulars of the work or matter to which such resolution relates may be gratuitously seen by the ratepayers; and if before the expiration of such month a remonstrance in writing against carrying into effect such resolution or any part thereof, signed by a majority of the ratepayers having votes in the election of the commissioners (such majority being computed with reference to the number of votes to which in such election each ratepayer is entitled under the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith,) be presented to the commissioners, such resolution, or such part thereof as such remonstrance applies to, shall not be carried into effect; and where any such remonstrance applies to part only of any such resolution, the commissioners may either carry into effect the remainder of such resolution, or rescind the same, as they think fit.

134 Commissioners may purchase slaughter-houses, &c.

The commissioners may from time to time, with the concurrence in writing of the inspector, and by special order as herein defined, but not otherwise, purchase, rent, build, or otherwise provide such slaughter-houses and knacker’s yards as they think proper for slaughtering cattle within the limits of the special Act.

Provided always, that the number of baths for the use of the working classes in any building provided by the commissioners shall not be less than twice the number of the other baths of any higher class.

138 Charges for the use of baths.

The commissioners may from time to time make such reasonable charges for the use of such baths, bathing places, wash-houses, and drying grounds, as they think fit, but, as regards the working classes, not exceeding the charges, if any, mentioned in the special Act, unless for the use of any washing tub or trough for more than two hours in any one day, in which case any charge may be made which the commissioners deem reasonable.

139 Recovery of charges for the use of baths, &c.

For the recovery of the charges at such wash-houses and drying grounds the officers, servants, and others having the management thereof may, at the period of using the same, or at any subsequent time, detain the clothes or other goods and chattels in or upon any such wash-house or drying ground of any person refusing to pay the charge to which such person may be liable, or any part thereof, till full payment thereof be made; and in case such payment be not made within seven days, the commissioners may sell such clothes, goods, and chattels, or any of them, returning the surplus proceeds of 141 Sale of baths, &c. on discontinuing them.

Whenever any of such public baths, bathing places, wash-houses, or drying grounds are deemed by the commissioners to be unnecessary or too expensive to be kept up, the commissioners may, by special order as herein defined, but not otherwise, discontinue the same, and sell the lands, buildings, and materials for the best price that can reasonably be obtained, and convey the same accordingly; and the purchase money shall be paid to the treasurer of the commissioners, and be disposed of as the commissioners direct.

142 Application to be made to Parliament if additional powers necessary.

If it appear that any works which the commissioners deem necessary for promoting the health or convenience of the inhabitants of the district within the limit of the special Act cannot lawfully be carried into effect by the commissioners, under the powers vested in them by this or the special Act, by reason either that the monies authorized to be raised by them are insufficient for the purpose, or that any lands are required which the commissioners are not by this or the special Act authorized to take or use, or for any other reason, the commissioners may, by special order as herein defined, but not otherwise, cause application to be made to Parliament for an Act to enable them to execute such works, and may defray the expenses of such application out of the rates authorized to be levied by them under this and the special Act

147 Commissioners, in default of owner or occupier, may execute works and recover expences.

Whenever, under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, any work of any kind is required to be executed by the owner or occupier of any house or lands, and default is made in the execution of such work, the commissioners may cause such work to be executed, and the expence incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall, except in the case in which such expences are herein-before directed to be defrayed by drainage rates, be repaid to them by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed.

148 Occupier, in default of owner, may execute works, and deduct expences from his rent.

Whenever default is made by the owner of any buildings or lands in the execution of any work by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, required to be executed by him, the occupier of such buildings or lands may, with the approval of the commissioners, cause such works to be executed, and the expence thereof shall be repaid to such occupier by the owner of the buildings or lands, and such occupier may deduct the amount of such expence out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner.

149 How expences are to be recovered from owner.

If the owner of any buildings or lands made liable by this or the special Act for the repayment to the commissioners of any expences incurred by them do not, as soon as the same become due and payable from him, repay all such expences to the commissioners, the commissioners may recover the same from such owner in the same manner as damages, or in an action of debt in any of the superior courts, or in any other court having jurisdiction.

150 Power to levy charges on occupier who may deduct the same from his rent.

The commissioners may, by way of additional remedy, whether any such action or proceeding has been brought or taken against any such owner or not, require the payment of all or any part of the expences payable by the owner for the time being from the person who then or at any time thereafter occupies any such buildings or lands under such owner; and in default of payment thereof by such occupier, on demand, the same may be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such occupier, in the same manner as any rate may be recovered from him under this or the special Act; and every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord so much as is so paid by or recovered from him in respect of any such expences.

151 Occupier not to be liable for more than the amount of rent due.

Provided always, that no occupier of any buildings or lands shall be liable to pay more money in respect of any expences charged by this or the special Act on the owner thereof than the amount of rent due from him for the premises in respect of which such expences are payable at the time of the demand made upon him, or which at any time after such demand, and notice not to pay the same to his landlord, have accrued and become payable by him, unless he neglect or refuse, upon application made to him for 152 Commissioners may allow time for repayment by owners of improvement expences.

Where any such expences payable to the commissioners by any owner of any such building or lands amount to more than half the amount of the net annual value of such building or lands, the commissioners may, if they think fit, at the request of any such owner, allow time for the repayment of such expences, and receive the same by such instalments as they, under the circumstances of the case, consider reasonable, but so that the same be repaid by annual instalments of not less than one seventh part of the whole sum originally due, with interest for the principal money from time to time remaining unpaid after the yearly rate of five pounds in the hundred during the period of forbearance; but all such sums remaining due, notwithstanding the commissioners have agreed to allow any time for the repayment thereof as aforesaid, shall from time to time, at the expiration of the several times so allowed for repayment thereof, be recoverable in like manner as such respective amounts would have been recoverable if no such time had been allowed for repayment thereof.

153 Proceedings in case of tenants opposing the execution of this Act.

If the occupier of any buildings or lands within the limits of the special Act prevent the owner thereof from carrying into effect in respect of such buildings or lands any of the provisions of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, after notice of his intention so to do has been given by the owner to such occupier, any justice upon proof thereof, may make an order in writing requiring such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works with respect to such buildings or lands as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this and the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith; and if, after the expiration of ten days from the date of such order such occupier continue to refuse to permit such owner to execute such works, such occupier shall for every day during which he so continues to refuse be liable to a penalty not exceeding [^{F66}£25][^{F66}level 1 on the standard scale]; and every such owner during the continuance of such refusal shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default in executing such works.

commissioners from time to time may order assessments to be made in respect of the rates authorized to be so levied upon separate and distinct districts, and in such case the commissioners shall cause their surveyor to describe and define in the plan of the town or district within the limits of the special Act every such separate and distinct district for the purposes of separate rating as aforesaid, and so from time to time as occasion shall require.

162 Rates to be levied on separate and distinct districts.

The commissioners may in such case, instead of making one assessment for the whole town or district within the limits of the special Act, make separate and distinct assessments, as occasion shall require, for every such separate and distinct district respectively, and may appoint, if they see fit, surveyors, collectors, and other officers for every such district, and they shall cause separate and distinct accounts to be kept of all monies collected and received under any rate in each distinct district, and of all payments and disbursements in respect thereof, and they shall, unless otherwise provided by the special Act, apply the monies to be collected and received from each distinct district under any such rate as aforesaid for the several purposes to which the same may be lawfully applied under the authority of this and the special Act, but so nevertheless that each district shall, as near as may-be, bear its own expences; and in case any such expences shall apply to or be incurred in respect of two or more districts, the same shall be apportioned and divided between such districts in a fair and equitable manner.

163 Drainage rates.

In all cases when the commissioners have paid or become liable to the payment of any expences in constructing or laying any drain or pipe from any house or building, or in providing any privy, ashpit, or cesspool for the use of the occupiers thereof, and when neither the owner nor occupier of such house or building is willing to defray the said expences forthwith, the commissioners shall lay drainage rates on the occupiers of such houses and buildings respectively, to be continued for six successive years and no longer; and the sum to be annually levied by every such drainage rate shall be one fifth part of the whole expence incurred in constructing, laying, or providing such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool as aforesaid, and shall be applied in satisfaction thereof; and the amount of any such drainage rate may be added to any other rate levied from the occupiers of such houses and buildings, and recovered therewith by the like ways and means.

164 Occupiers may deduct a proportion of drainage rate from their rent.

Every occupier of any such house or building at a rent not less than the rackrent who has paid any such drainage rate shall be entitled to deduct three-fourths of the rate so paid by him from the rent payable by him to his landlord: Every occupier at a rent less than the rackrent who has paid any such drainage rate shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord such proportion of three-fourths of the rate so paid by him as the rent payable by him bears to the rackrent.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847. (See end of Document for details)

165 Landlords being also tenants, may deduct proportion of drainage rate from their rent.

Every landlord from whom any part of his rent has been deducted on account of such drainage rate, and who is himself liable to the payment of rent, shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him such proportion of the sum so deducted from the rent payable to him as the rent payable by him bears to the rent payable to him, and so in succession with respect to every landlord receiving rent, and also liable to pay rent on account of such house or building; provided that no landlord, being also a tenant, shall be entitled under this provision to deduct from the rent payable by him more than the whole sum deducted from the rent payable to him.

166 Limitation of expenditure for house drains, &c.

Without the written consent of the owner of any such house or building, the commissioners shall not be empowered to expend during any term of six successive years more in the whole than one year's rackrent thereof in constructing or laying any such pipe or drain, or in providing any such privy, cesspool, or ashpit.

And with respect to the manner of making rates authorized by this or the special Act, be it enacted as follows:

167 Rates to be levied on persons holding, using, or occupying houses, &c. Proportion to be paid by holders of lands, nursery grounds, &c.

Every rate which the commissioners are by this or the special Act authorized to make or levy shall be made and levied by them at yearly, half-yearly, or such other periods as they think fit, upon every person who occupies any of the prescribed kinds of property, or (if no property be prescribed) any house, shop, warehouse, counting-house, coach-house, stable, cellar, vault, building, workshop, manufactory, garden, land, or tenement whatsoever, (except as herein-after is excepted,) within the limits of the special Act, or of the district where such rate is assessed on the occupiers of lands and buildings of a separate district, as herein-before provided, according to the full net annual value thereof respectively; and the said rates shall be vested in the commissioners, and shall be payable at such times as they appoint: Provided always, that every person occupying lands used as arable, meadow, or pasture ground only, or as woodlands or market gardens or nursery grounds, shall be rated in respect of the same in the prescribed proportion only, if no proportion be prescribed, in the proportion of one third part only of such net annual value thereof as aforesaid.

168 Exemptions from rates.

Provided also, that no person shall be rated to any rate made in pursuance of this or the special Act in respect of tithes, or of any church, chapel, meeting house, or other building exclusively used for public worship, or any building exclusively used for the purposes of gratuitous education of the poor or of public charity, or any building or land belonging to the commissioners.

169 Rates may be made prospective or retrospective.

The commissioners may make any such rate as aforesaid prospectively, in order to raise money to pay charges and expenses to be incurred thereafter, or retrospectively, in order to raise money to pay charges and expences already incurred.

170 Commissioners to cause estimates to be prepared before making a rate.

The commissioners from time to time, before proceeding to make any rate which by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, they are authorized to levy, shall cause an estimate to be prepared of the money required for the several purposes in respect of which they are authorized to levy such rate, showing the several sums required, the rateable value of the property assessable, and the rate on each pound of such value necessary to raise the money required, which estimate, after the same has been approved of by the commissioners, shall be forthwith entered on the rate book to be kept by the commissioners as hereinafter provided.

171 Notice of rate to be given.

Notice of the intention of making every rate authorized to be made under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, and of the time at which the same is intended to be made, and of a place where a statement of the proposed rate is deposited for inspection by the ratepayers, shall be given by the commissioners by placards posted up in public places, and shall be advertised in some newspaper circulating within the limits of the special Act, in the week immediately previous to such rate being made, or as nearly so as may be.

172 Form of rate.

Every such rate shall be fairly transcribed in a book to be kept for that purpose, and may be in the form given in the schedule (A.) annexed to this Act, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit of; and every such rate shall contain an account of every particular set forth at the head of the respective columns, so far as the same can be ascertained; and every such rate shall be signed by not less than six of the commissioners.

173 Rate to be open to inspection of ratepayers, who may take copies, &c.

The statement of the proposed rate, and the rate immediately after the same is made, shall be open to the inspection of any person interested or rated in such rate at all reasonable times, and any such person may take copies or extracts from such statement or rate without paying anything for the same; and any person having the custody of such statement or rate who refuses or does not permit any person so interested or rated as aforesaid to take copies or extracts from such statement or rate shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding [^{F70} [^{F71} £25]] [^{F70} level 1 on the standard scale].

179 Owner of property unoccupied to be assessed to the sewer rate.

When any property in respect of which the occupier would be liable to be rated to any sewer rate made under the provisions of this or the special Act is unoccupied at the time of making such rate, the commissioners shall rate and assess the owner of such unoccupied premises to such rate, and every such owner shall pay the amount of such rate: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the right herein reserved to recover any arrears of such rates from any future occupier of such premises.

180 Unoccupied premises to be included in the rates; and if the premises are afterwards occupied, a portion of rates to be paid.

When any property in respect of which any person is liable to be assessed as occupier to any rate under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, other than the sewer rate, is unoccupied at the time of making any such rate, the commissioners shall in every such case include such property in the said rate, describing it in the column appropriated to the name of the occupier as being “empty”; and if any person afterwards occupy such property during any part of the period for which such rate was made, the commissioners shall insert in such rate the name of such occupier, and collect from such occupier, or from the owner, if he be liable to pay the same, a portion of the said rate proportioned to the time during which such person occupies such property, and every such person shall thereupon be deemed to all intents and purposes to be properly rated; and all such rates may be collected and recovered from the person liable to pay the same under the provisions of this or the special Act in the same manner as other rates made payable thereunder: Provided always, that any person whose name is so inserted in such rate, and such owner as last aforesaid, may appeal against such rate to the justices at special sessions, or to [^{F75}the Crown Court] after such insertion of his name as aforesaid admitting of such appeal, in the same manner as he might have appealed if named in the rate: Provided also, that, except as aforesaid, no rate other than the sewer rate shall be payable by any person in respect of unoccupied premises.

181 Owners of property not exceeding 10% per annum net annual value to pay rates instead of occupier.

The owners of all rateable property of which the full net annual value does not exceed the prescribed sum, or (where no sum is prescribed) the sum of ten pounds, or which are let to weekly or monthly tenants, or in separate apartments, shall be rated to and pay the rates by this or the special Act directed to be made, instead of the occupiers thereof.

182 Not necessary to name the owner where unknown.

Whenever the name of any owner liable to be rated under the provisions of this or the special Act is not known to the commissioners, or to the person making the rates, it shall be sufficient to rate such owner in the rate book of the commissioners as the owner of the property to be rated by the designation of “the owner,” without stating his name.

183 Tenants under existing leases to repay the owner.

Provided always, that when any owner is rated in respect of any rateable property in the occupation of any tenant under any lease or agreement made prior to the passing of the special Act, such tenant shall repay to the owner all sums paid by him during the continuance of such lease on account of any rates under this or the special Act payable by the occupier, unless it have been agreed that the owner shall pay all rates in respect of such property; and every sum so payable by the tenant to the owner may be recovered, if not paid upon demand, as arrears of rent could be recovered from the occupier by the said owner.

184 Occupiers may be rated if they think fit.

Provided also, that the occupiers of any rateable property, being tenants thereof from year to year, may demand to be assessed for the same, and to pay the rates in respect thereof made under the authority of this or the special Act, and the commissioners shall assess every such occupier so long as he duly pays the said rates.

Appeal

And with respect to the appeal to be made against any rate, be it enacted as follows:

185 Persons aggrieved may appeal to petty sessions on the ground of incorrectness, &c. of valuation. Their decision to be final unless appealed from to quarter sessions.

If any person think himself aggrieved by any rate, on the ground of inequality, unfairness, or incorrectness in the valuation of any rateable property included therein, or in the amount assessed thereon, he may, at any time within one month after such rate is made, appeal to the justices at any special sessions . . . ^{F76} or in Ireland may appeal to the justices of the petty sessions of the district, or to the justices acting for the district, within which the rateable property is situated; . . . ^{F76}

Recovery of rates

And with respect to the recovery of rates, be it enacted as follows:

191 Rates to be recovered by distress.

If any person rated under the authority of this or the special Act fail to pay any of the said rates due from him for the space of fourteen days after demand thereof in writing by the commissioners or their collector, any justice, on the application of the commissioners or their collector, may summon such person to appear before him at a time to be mentioned in the summons, to show cause why the rates due from him should not be paid; and in case no sufficient cause for the nonpayment of such rate be shown, the same shall be levied by distress, and such justice shall issue his warrant accordingly, or the commissioners may recover the same by action of debt; provided that if no sufficient distress whereon to levy the amount due in respect of such rates can be found within the jurisdiction of the said justice, then, upon oath thereof made before any justice of any other county or jurisdiction in which any goods or chattels of the person not paying the said rates may be found, such justice shall certify the said oath by endorsing the said warrant, and thereupon the amount due in respect of the said rates, and unpaid by the said person, may be levied by distress of the goods and chattels of such person as assessed in the last-mentioned county or jurisdiction.

192 Form of warrant of distress. Constables to assist in making distress.

The warrant of distress for the recovery of any rate made payable by this or the special Act may be in the form or to the effect mentioned in schedule (B.) to this Act annexed; and in all cases where a distress is hereby authorized to be made, every constable authorized by the warrant to levy any sum mentioned therein shall, upon being required by a collector of the rates, aid in making a distress or sale pursuant to such warrant; and every constable who refuses to do so shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding [^{F84} [^{F85} £25]] [^{F84} level 1 on the standard scale].

194 Remedy against persons quitting before payment of rates.

If any person quit or be about to quit any rateable property before he has paid the rates then payable by him in respect thereof, and do not pay the same to the commissioners or their collector, on demand, any justice having jurisdiction where such person resides or his goods are found may summon such person to appear before him at a time mentioned in the summons, to show cause why the rates should not be paid, and if no sufficient cause for the nonpayment of such rates be shown accordingly, the same shall be levied by distress, and such justice shall issue his warrant accordingly.

195 Rates to be apportioned on holder quitting.

When any rate has been made for a particular period, and the owner or occupier who is rated to such rate ceases to be the owner or occupier of the property in respect whereof he is rated before the end of such period, such owner or occupier shall be liable to pay a portion only of the rate payable for the whole of such period, proportionate to the time during which he continued to be owner or occupier; and in every such case, if any person, after the making of such rate, become the owner or occupier of any property so rated as aforesaid during part of the period for which such rate was made, such person shall pay a portion of such rate, proportioned to the time during which he held or occupied the property so rated, and the same shall be recovered from him in the same manner as if he had been originally rated for such property.

196 Rates due from owner may be recovered from occupier.

When the owner of any rateable property is rated in respect thereof under the authority of this or the special Act, and the rate remains unpaid for three months, the commissioners or their collector may demand the amount of such rate from the occupier for the time being of such rateable property, and on nonpayment thereof may recover the same by distress and sale of his goods and chattels in like manner as rates may be recovered from the occupier of any property liable to be rated; and every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to such owner so much as was so paid by or recovered from him.

197 Occupier not to be required to pay more than the amount of rent owing by him.

Provided always, that no such occupier shall be required to pay, nor shall his goods and chattels be distrained for, any further sum than the amount of rent due from him at the time of the demand made upon him for such amount or rate, or which after such demand, and after notice not to pay the same to his landlord, at any time accrues and becomes payable by him, unless he refuse, on application being made to him for that purpose by or on behalf of the commissioners, truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and address of the person to whom such rent is payable; but the burden of proof that the sum demanded from any such occupier is greater than the rent due by him at the time of such notice, or which has since accrued, shall lie upon such occupier.

198 Occupier refusing to give name of owner liable to a penalty.

If, on the request of the commissioners, or of the collector of the said rates, the occupier of any property refuses or wilfully omits to disclose, or wilfully mis-states to the commissioners or collector making such request, the name of the owner of such property, or of the person receiving or authorized to receive the rents of the same, any
