

Cemeteries Clauses Act 1847

1847 CHAPTER 65 10 and 11 Vict

Burials

35 As to burial of persons not members of the Church of England.

The company may set apart the whole or a portion of that part of the cemetery which is not set apart for burials according to the rites of the Established Church as a place of burial for the bodies of persons not being members of the Established Church, and may allow such bodies to be buried therein, under such regulations as the company appoint.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Cemeteries Clauses Act 1847, Section 35.