

Cemeteries Clauses Act 1847

1847 CHAPTER 65 10 and 11 Vict

Payments to incumbents of parishes

53 Company shall keep account of interments.

For ascertaining the amount of the payments, if any, to be made to the incumbents of the several parishes or districts aforesaid, the company shall cause books to be kept, and entries to be made therein of the names of all persons whose bodies are buried within the consecrated part of the cemetery, and the names of the parishes or districts from which such bodies respectively have been removed, and the manner of their burial within the cemetery, (distinguishing whether in a place of exclusive burial or otherwise,) with the date of such burial; and such books shall be at all reasonable times open to the inspection of the incumbents for the time being of the said several parishes or districts, or any person employed by them, without fee or reward.
