Textual Amendments

- F1 Ss. 1, 12 repealed by Statute Law Revision Act 1875 \(c. 66\)

2 Parliamentary agent, attorney, or solicitor not to sue for costs until one month after delivery of his bill. Evidence of delivery of bill. Power to judge to authorize action before expiration of one month.

No parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F2</sup> or solicitor, nor any executor, administrator, or assignee of any parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F2</sup> or solicitor, shall commence or maintain any action or suit for the recovery of any costs, charges, or expences in respect of any proceedings in the House of Commons in any future session of Parliament relating to any petition for a private bill, or private bill, or in respect of complying with the standing orders of the said House relative thereto, or in preparing, bringing in, and carrying the same through, or opposing the same in, the House of Commons, until the expiration of one month after such parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F2</sup> or solicitor, or executor, administrator, or assignee of such parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F2</sup> or solicitor, has delivered unto the party to be charged therewith, or sent by post to or left for him at his counting-house, office of business, dwelling house, or last known place of abode, a bill of such costs, charges, and expences, and which bill shall either be subscribed with the proper hand of such parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F2</sup> or solicitor, or in the case of a partnership by any of the partners, either with his own name or with the name of such partnership, or of the executor, administrator, or assignee of such parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F2</sup> or solicitor, or be enclosed in or accompanied by a letter subscribed in like manner referring to such bill:

Provided always, that it shall not in any case be necessary, in the first instance, for such parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F2</sup> or solicitor, or the executor, administrator, or assignee of such parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F2</sup> or solicitor, in proving a compliance with this Act, to prove the contents of the bill delivered, sent, or left by him, but it shall be sufficient to prove that a bill of costs, charges, and expences, subscribed in manner aforesaid, or inclosed in or accompanied by such letter as aforesaid, was delivered, sent, or left, in manner aforesaid; but nevertheless it shall be competent for the other party to show that the bill so delivered, sent, or left was not such a bill as constituted a bonâ fide compliance with this Act: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any judge of [<sup>F3</sup>the High Court in England or Northern Ireland], or of the Court of Session in Scotland, to authorize a parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F2</sup> or solicitor to commence an action or suit for the recovery of his costs, charges, and expences against the party chargeable therewith, although one month has not expired from the delivery of a bill as aforesaid, on proof to the satisfaction of the said judge that there is probable cause for believing that such party is about to quit that part of the United Kingdom in which such judge hath jurisdiction.

- F2 Words repealed by Statute Law Revision Act 1894 \(c. 56\)
- F3 Words substituted by virtue of Supreme Court of Judicature \(Consolidation\) Act 1925 \(c. 49\), ss. 18, 224(1) and Judicature \(Northern Ireland\) Act 1978 \(c. 30\), Sch. 5 Pt. I para. 1(1)

3 Taxing officer to be appointed by the Speaker.

The Speaker of the House of Commons shall appoint a fit person to be the taxing officer of the House of Commons, and every person so appointed shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Speaker, and shall execute the duties of his office conformably to such directions as he may from time to time receive from the Speaker.

4 The Speaker to prepare list of charges henceforth to be allowed.

The Speaker may from time to time prepare a list of such charges as it shall appear to him that, after the present session of Parliament, parliamentary agents, . . . . .<sup>F4</sup> solicitors, and others may justly make with reference to the several matters comprised in such list; and the several charges therein specified shall be the utmost charges thenceforth to be allowed upon the taxation of any such bill of costs, charges, and expences in respect of the several matters therein specified: Provided always, that the said taxing officer may allow all fair and reasonable costs, charges, and expences in respect of any matters not included in such list.

F5 Words repealed (E.W.) by Perjury Act 1911 \(c. 6\), Sch.

6 Taxing officer empowered to call for books and papers.

The said taxing officer shall be empowered to call for the production of any books or writings in the hands of any party to such taxation relating to the matters of such taxation: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize such taxing officer to determine the amount of fees which may have been payable to the House of Commons in respect of the proceedings upon any private bill.

7 Taxing officer to take such fees as may be allowed by House of Commons.
Application of fees.

It shall be lawful for the said taxing officer to demand and receive for any such taxation such fees as the House of Commons may from time to time by any standing order authorize and direct, and to charge the said fees, and also to award costs of such taxation, against either party to such taxation, or in such proportion against each party as he may think fit, and he shall pay and apply the fees so received by him in such manner as shall be directed by any such standing order as aforesaid.

8 On application of party chargeable, or on application of parliamentary agent, attorney, or solicitor, the taxing officer to tax the bill. No application to be entertained by taxing officer after verdict obtained.

If any person upon whom any demand shall be made by any parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F6</sup> or solicitor, or executor, administrator, or assignee of such parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F6</sup> or solicitor, or other person, for any costs, charges, or expences in respect of any proceedings in the House of Commons in any future session of Parliament relating to any petition for a private bill, or private bill, or in respect of complying with the standing orders of the said House relative thereto, or in preparing, bringing in, or carrying the same through, or in opposing the same in, the House of Commons, or if any parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F6</sup> or solicitor, or the executor, administrator, or assignee of such parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F6</sup> or solicitor, or other person, who shall be aggrieved by the non-payment of any costs, charges, and expences incurred or charged by him in respect of any such proceedings as aforesaid, shall make application to the said taxing officer at his office for the taxation of such costs, charges, and expences, the said taxing officer, on receiving a true copy of the bill of such costs, charges, and expences which shall have been duly delivered as aforesaid to the party charged therewith, shall in due course proceed to tax and settle the same; and upon every such taxation, if either the parliamentary agent . . . . .<sup>F6</sup> or solicitor, or the executor,

9 Taxing officer to report to the Speaker. If either party complain of report, they may deposit a memorial, and the Speaker may require a further report. If no memorial deposited, Speaker may issue certificate of the amount found due. Certificate to have the effect of a warrant to confess judgment.

The said taxing officer shall, if required by either party report his taxation to the Speaker, and in such report shall state the amount fairly chargeable in respect of such costs, charges, and expences, together with the amount of costs and fees payable in respect of such taxation as aforesaid; and within twenty-one clear days after any such report shall have been made either party may deposit in the office of the said taxing officer a memorial addressed to the Speaker, complaining of such report or any part thereof, and the Speaker may, if he shall so think fit, refer the same, together with such report, to the said taxing officer, and may require a further report in relation thereto, and on receiving such further report may direct the said taxing officer, if necessary, to amend his report; and if no such memorial be deposited as aforesaid, or so soon as the matters complained of in any such memorial shall have been finally disposed of, the Speaker shall, upon application made to him, deliver to the party concerned therein, and requiring the same, a certificate of the amount so ascertained, which certificate shall be binding and conclusive on the parties as to the matters comprised in such taxation, and as to the amount of such costs, charges, and expences, and of the costs and fees payable in respect of such taxation, in all proceedings at law or in equity or otherwise; and in any action or other proceeding brought for the recovery of the amount so certified such certificate shall have the effect of a warrant of attorney to confess judgment; and the court in which such action shall be commenced, or any judge thereof, shall, on production of such certificate, order judgment to be entered up for the sum specified in such certificate, in like manner as if the defendant in any such action had signed a warrant to confess judgment in such action to that amount: Provided always, that if such defendant shall have pleaded that he is not liable to the payment of such costs, charges, and expences, such certificate shall be conclusive only
