

Evidence Act 1851

1851 CHAPTER 99 14 and 15 Vict

16 Court, &c. may administer oaths.

Every court, judge, justice, officer, commissioner, arbitrator, or other person, now or hereafter having by law or by consent of parties authority to hear, receive, and examine evidence, is hereby empowered to administer an oath to all such witnesses as are legally called before them respectively.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Evidence Act 1851, Section 16.