

Common Law Procedure Act 1852

1852 CHAPTER 76

Ejectment

CXCV Proceedings upon Death of One of several joint Defendants.

In case of the Death, before or after Judgment, of One of several Defendants in Ejectment, who defend jointly, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Action may proceed against the surviving Defendant to Judgment and Execution.
