

Common Law Procedure Act 1852

1852 CHAPTER 76

Questions by Consent without pleading

XLVI Questions of Law may be raised after Writ issued, by Consent, &c., without Pleading.

The Parties may, after Writ issued, and before Judgment, by Consent, and Order of a Judge, state any Question or Questions of Law in a Special Case for the Opinion of the Court, without any Pleadings.