

Metropolitan Commons Act 1866

1866 CHAPTER 122 29 and 30 Vict

1 Short title.

This Act may be cited as “The Metropolitan Commons Act 1866.”

2 Definition of local authority and local rate.

For the purposes of this Act the local authority in relation to each metropolitan common shall be the authority described as such in connexion therewith in the first schedule to this Act; and for the purposes of this Act the local rate in relation to each metropolitan common shall be the rate described in connexion therewith in the same schedule.

3 Interpretation of terms.

In this Act—

The term “common” means land subject at the passing of this Act to any right of common, [^{F1}and any land subject to be included under the provisions of the ^{M1}Inclosure Act 1845]; the term “commoner” means a person having any such right of common; the term “manor” includes reputed manor; and those terms as used in this Act respectively refer to any particular common to which this Act applies, and to every person having a right of common in, over, or affecting that common, and to the manor of the wastes whereof that common is part:

The term “the Commissioners” means the Inclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, and the term “assistant commissioner” means the assistant commissioner appointed by the Inclosure Commissioners.

6 Memorial for scheme as to common.

A scheme for the establishment of local management with a view to the expenditure of money on the drainage, levelling, and improvement of a metropolitan common, and to the making of byelaws and regulations for the prevention of nuisances and the preservation of order thereon, may be made under this Act on a memorial in that behalf presented to the Commissioners by the lord of the manor or by any commoners, or by the local authority, or in case of a common extending into the districts of two or more of the bodies described in the first schedule to this Act, then by any one or more of such bodies.

7 Inquiry into memorial.

On the presentation of any memorial under this Act the Commissioners (if on consideration of the memorial they think fit) may make such examination and inquiry as they think necessary or proper in relation to the subject matter of the memorial.

8 Preparation of draft scheme.

On such examination and inquiry the Commissioners may, if they think fit, prepare the draft of a scheme respecting the common or any part thereof.

9 Printing and publication of draft scheme.

Where the Commissioners prepare the draft of a scheme, they shall cause it to be printed, and printed copies of it to be delivered to the memorialists and to the lord of the manor and to the local authority, and shall also cause it, or a proper abstract of it, to be published and circulated in such manner as they think sufficient for giving information to all parties interested.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Metropolitan Commons Act 1866. (See end of Document for details)

10 Objections and suggestions respecting scheme.

During two months after the first publication of the draft of a scheme the Commissioners shall receive any objections or suggestions made to them in writing respecting the scheme.

11 Inquiry into scheme by public sittings.

At any time after the expiration of those two months the Commissioners, if they think fit, may refer the draft of the scheme to an assistant commissioner.

On any such reference the assistant commissioner shall proceed to make an inquiry concerning the subject matter of the scheme, and for that purpose to hold a sitting or sittings in some convenient place in the neighbourhood of the common, and thereat to take and receive any evidence and information offered, and hear and inquire into any objections or suggestions made or to be made during the sitting or sittings, respecting the scheme or the common, with power from time to time to adjourn any sitting.

Notice shall be published, in such manner as the Commissioners direct, of every such sitting (except an adjourned sitting), fourteen days at least before the holding thereof.

12 Report of assistant commissioner.

The assistant commissioner to whom the draft of a scheme is referred shall make a report in writing to the Commissioners, setting forth the result of the inquiry, and whether in his opinion the draft of the scheme should be approved with or without alteration, and if with any, then with what alteration, and his reasons for the same, and the objection and suggestions, if any, made on the inquiry, and his opinion thereon.

13 Final settlement and approval of scheme.

As soon as may be after the expiration of the said two months, or the receipt by the Commissioners of the report of the assistant commissioner (as the case may be), the Commissioners shall proceed to consider any objections or suggestions made to them in writing respecting the scheme, and the report (if any), and thereupon they shall, if they think fit, finally settle and approve of the scheme in such form as they think expedient.

14 Scheme to state rights affected.

Every scheme shall state what rights (if any) claimed by any person or class of persons are affected by the scheme, and in what manner and to what extent they are affected thereby, and whether or not the scheme has been in relation thereto consented to by that person or class of persons, or any of them.

15 Provision for compensation.

No estate, interest, or right of a profitable or beneficial nature in, over, or affecting a common shall, except with the consent of the person entitled thereto, be taken away or injuriously affected by any scheme, without compensation being made or provided for the same; and such compensation shall, in case of difference, be ascertained and provided in the same manner as if the same compensation were for the compulsory purchase and taking or the injurious affecting of lands under the provisions of the 17 Printing and sale of scheme.

Every scheme shall contain a provision for the sale at all times of printed copies thereof to all persons desiring to buy the same, at a price not exceeding a reasonable sum to be fixed by the scheme.

18 Scheme when approved to be certified.

Every scheme, when approved by the Commissioners, shall be certified by them, and sealed with their common seal.

19 Printing and publication of scheme.

Where the Commissioners certify a scheme they shall cause printed copies of it to be delivered to the memorialists and to the lord of the manor and to the local authority, and shall also cause it, or a proper abstract of it, to be published and circulated in such manner as they think sufficient for giving information to all parties interested.

22 Confirmation of scheme by Act of Parliament.

A scheme certified by the Commissioners shall not of itself have any operation, but the same shall have full operation when and as confirmed by Act of Parliament, with such modifications, if any, as to Parliament seem fit.

23 Reference of scheme to select committee if opposed.

If in the progress through Parliament of a Bill confirming any scheme certified by the Commissioners a petition is presented to either House of Parliament against the scheme, the Bill, as far as it relates to the scheme petitioned against, may be referred to a select committee, and the petitioner shall be allowed to appear and oppose as in case of a private Bill.

24 Expenses of scheme to be defrayed by memorialists, &c.

All expenses incurred by the Commissioners in relation to any memorial, or to any scheme consequent thereon, shall be defrayed by the memorialists, or by any ratepayers or inhabitants of the parish or district in or near to which the common is situate, or of the Metropolis, willing and offering to defray those expenses, or by the local authority if willing and offering to defray the same; and the Commissioners may, if they think fit, on or at any time after the presentation of the memorial, require the memorialists or those ratepayers or inhabitants, or any of them, or the local authority having offered as aforesaid (as the case may be), to pay to the Commissioners such sum as the Commissioners think requisite for or on account of those expenses, or to give security to the satisfaction of the Commissioners for the payment of those expenses on demand.

25 Power for local authority to contribute for purposes of scheme.

The local authority may in relation to any metropolitan common for which they are the local authority . . . ^{F6}contribute such amount as they think fit (in a gross sum or by annual payments or otherwise) towards the expenses of executing any scheme under this Act when confirmed by Act of Parliament, including the payment of the compensation (if any) to be paid in pursuance thereof.

30 Power for lord of manor, &c. to appoint agent.

Any lord of a manor, commoner, or other person having any estate, interest, or right in, over, or affecting a common may, by a power of attorney in writing under his hand (which shall be exempt from stamp duty), appoint an agent to act for him for the purposes of any memorial or scheme under this Act.

All things by this Act directed or authorized to be done by or with relation to any lord of a manor, commoner, or other person as aforesaid may be lawfully done by or with relation to his agent so appointed.

Every such agent may, in the name and on behalf of his principal, sign, concur in, and execute any memorial or act, or signify consent or dissent on any matter arising out of the execution of this Act.

Every person shall be bound by the acts of any such agent according to the authority committed to him as fully as if the principal had himself acted.

Every such power of attorney, or a copy thereof examined and authenticated as a true copy by the signature of a witness or witnesses, shall be deposited with the Commissioners.

Any such power of attorney may be in the form given in the second schedule to this Act or to the like effect.
