

Representation of the People (Scotland) Act 1868

1868 CHAPTER 48 31 and 32 Vict

33 Appeal against omissions.

If any person whose name is not inserted in the register so authenticated as aforesaid shall consider himself aggrieved by its omission, it shall be competent to him, within the said period of ten days after the day on or before which the register is hereby required to be authenticated, to appeal and apply to the University Court to have it so inserted; and the court shall meet to consider such appeal not later than thirty days after the last day allowed for the authentication of the register, and after hearing the appellant for his interest, either personally or by substitute, and the registrar in explanation of the reasons for the omission of the appellant's name, shall give judgment in the appeal; and such judgment shall be final, and not subject to any process of review; and the register shall, if necessary, be altered by or at the sight of the president of the said court in conformity with such judgment.
