

Representation of the People (Scotland) Act 1868

1868 CHAPTER 48 31 and 32 Vict

34 Quorum of University Court for purposes of Act.

For the purpose of performing any duty required by this Act, the presence of a quorum of three shall be sufficient to constitute a meeting of the University Court.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Representation of the People (Scotland) Act 1868, Section 34.