

Army Chaplains Act 1868

CHAPTER 83

ARMY CHAPLAINS ACT 1868

- 1 Short title.
- 2 Interpretation of terms.
- 3 Extent of Act.
- 4 Power to Her Majesty, with consent, &c., to set out the precinct, and declare the same to be an extra-parochial district.
- 5 Map describing metes and bounds shall be annexed to scheme and registered.
- 6 Power to Secretary of State to appoint any army chaplain to perform functions in extra-parochial district.
- 7 Chapel erected and consecrated in extra-parochial district to be the chapel thereof.
- 8 Where building certified to the bishop, Secretary of State may appoint a chaplain to officiate therein.
- 9 Power to declare extra-parochial districts to be under jurisdiction of such archbishop or bishop named in Order.
- 10 Act not to affect chaplains, &c. in connexion with the Church of Scotland.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Army Chaplains Act 1868.