1 Short title.

This Act may be cited for all purposes as The Entail Amendment (Scotland) Act, 1868.

2 Interpretation of terms.

The following words occurring in this Act shall, except where the nature of the provision shall be repugnant to such construction, be construed as follows; that is to say, the words “Court of Session,” or “the Court,” shall be construed to mean either division of the Court of Session, or the Junior Lord Ordinary, or the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, as the case may be; the word “sheriff” shall include “sheriff substitute;” the words “heir of entail” shall include “institute;” the word “lands” shall extend to and comprehend all heritages; the words “entailed estate” shall extend to and comprehend all heritages which by the law of Scotland may be made the subject of entail; and the words “feu charter” shall comprehend a feu contract, a feu disposition, and every other grant of a like kind.

3 Power to grant feus, building leases, &c.

It shall be lawful for any heir in possession of an entailed estate, notwithstanding any prohibitions of limitations in the deed of entail or in any Act of Parliament, in the manner and subject to the conditions herein-after mentioned, to grant leases for the purpose of building for any number of years not exceeding ninety-nine years, or feus of any part of such estate (but reserving the minerals therein and the right of working the same), except the garden, orchards, policies, or inclosures adjacent to or in connexion with the manor place, in so far as such garden, orchards, policies, or inclosures are necessary to the amenity of the manor place, or, if the estate be held by burgage tenure, to dispone any part thereof, reserving and excepting as aforesaid, subject to a ground annual: Provided always, that the feu duty, rent, or ground annual to be stipulated for shall not be less than the amount ascertained as herein-after provided: Provided also, that it shall not be lawful for such heir to take any grassum or fine or valuable consideration other than the feu duty, rent, or ground annual for granting any such charter, lease, or disposition; and in case any such grassum, fine, or consideration shall be taken, such charter, lease, or disposition shall be null and void; but nothing herein contained shall prevent any heir of entail in possession from exercising any power of granting feu charters, leases, or other grants which may be contained in the entail under which he possesses, more extensive than the powers hereby conferred.

4 Procedure in granting feus, building leases, &c.

For ascertaining whether the land so proposed to be feued, leased, or disposed may be feued, leased, or disposed in terms of the provisions of the preceding section, and the value of the same, an application shall be made by the heir in possession of the entailed estate to the sheriff of the county within which the entailed estate, or the portion thereof proposed to be feued, leased, or disposed, is situated, who thereupon shall direct notice to be given to the next heir of entail entitled to succeed to the entailed estate in such manner as shall seem proper (and in the event of such next heir of entail being under age or subject to any legal incapacity, the sheriff shall appoint a tutor ad litem or curator ad litem to such heir), and shall appoint one or more skilful persons to inquire and report as to the value of the lands proposed to be feued, leased, or disposed, and whether from their position or otherwise they may or ought to be feued, leased, or disposed in terms of the preceding section either in whole or in lots; and upon such person or persons reporting that the feu duty, rent, or ground annual offered is in their opinion, having regard to all the circumstances, fair and adequate, and that such land may, from its position, be feued, leased, or disposed in terms of the preceding section, either in whole or in lots, the sheriff, on consideration of the whole circumstances, may and is hereby empowered to authorize such heir in possession or his successor in the entailed estate at any time within ten years from the date of such deliverance to feu, lease, or dispone the said land in one or more lots at such rate of feu duty, rent, or ground annual as he can obtain for the same, not being less than the rate fixed by the said skilled persons, subject to such conditions as the sheriff may think essential to secure such feu duty, rent, or ground annual, and any other conditions he may see fit, and also subject to a nominal taxed sum of one penny sterling in lieu of all casualties on the entry of heirs and singular successors, and to grant the necessary feu charter, lease, or disposition, and which being executed and recorded in the register of sasines shall be effectual to all intents and purposes; and the lands so feued, leased, or disposed shall, from the date of recording the feu charter, lease, or disposition in the register of sasines, and so long as such feu charter, lease, or disposition shall remain in force, be held as out of the entail, and be liberated from all the prohibitory, irritant, and resolute clauses or clause of registration thereof: Provided always, that the superiority of the lands so feued, leased, or disposed, and the feu duties, rents, and ground annuals thereof, shall be and shall remain subject to the said entail in the same manner as the lands themselves were subject thereto previous to the granting of such feu charter, lease, or disposition; and it is hereby provided, that the decree of the sheriff pronounced on such

5 Feu charters, &c. to be void unless buildings of certain value erected and kept in repair.

Provided always, that every such feu charter, lease, or disposition shall contain a condition that the same shall be void, and the same is hereby declared void, if buildings of the annual value of, at the least, double the feu duty, rent, or ground annual therein stipulated shall not be built within the space of five years from the date of such grant upon the ground comprehended therein, and that the said buildings shall be kept in good, tenantable, and sufficient repair, and that such grant shall be void whenever there shall not be buildings of the value foresaid, kept in such repair as aforesaid, standing upon the ground so feued, leased, or disposed.

6 Power to grant provisions to wife and children of heir apparent.

It shall be lawful for the heir apparent to any entailed estate, with the consent of the heir in possession of such estate, to grant provisions in favour of his wife, and of the lawful child or children of such heir apparent who shall not succeed to such entailed estate, to the same extent, in the same manner, and subject to the same conditions to, in, or under which it is now competent for the heir in possession of such entailed estate to grant such provisions, either under the ^{M1}Entail Provisions Act, 1824, or under the powers of the entail: Provided that such provisions shall not exceed in any case the amount authorized to be charged on the entailed estate and rents thereof, either under the said Act or under the entail of the said estate, and that the same shall become payable at the death of such heir apparent; and provided also, that such provisions to be granted by such heir apparent shall not interfere with or affect any provisions which have been granted by the heir in possession of such estate, and shall be postponed to the provisions granted by such heir in possession; and that the provisions to be granted by such heir apparent shall be calculated under the said Act, or under the provisions of the entail on the footing of the rental of such entailed estate, after deducting the burdens and provisions directed to be deducted by the said Act or by the deed of entail, and also after deducting the burdens and provisions granted by the heir in possession to his or her wife or husband and child or children, so far as chargeable on such entailed estate, or on the rents thereof.

the estate, on a petition to be presented by the heir of entail in possession of such estate, to approve of an agreement to sell by private bargain the whole or any portion of such estate for payment of the whole or any part of such debt; and the Court may authorize such sale under such agreement where they are satisfied, after making such inquiry as they consider necessary, that the sale is advantageous and beneficial for the heir of entail in possession of such estate, and not detrimental to the interests of the succeeding heirs of entail; and the said Court may authorize such sale even though the price to be paid under such agreement is considerably above the total amount of the debt affecting such entailed estate as aforesaid, provided they are satisfied of the advantage and benefit likely to accrue from such sale as aforesaid; and in the event of such sale being effected as aforesaid, and of any surplus remaining after paying off the said debts and the expenses attending the sale, such surplus, if less than two hundred pounds, shall belong to the heir of entail in possession, and if more than two hundred pounds, shall be applied under the authority of the Court in buying other lands in the neighbourhood of the remainder of the entailed estate, if the whole estate is not sold, or, if the whole estate is sold, in buying lands in Scotland, to be approved of by the Court; and until a suitable purchase of land is found, such surplus may be invested by trustees, to be appointed by the Court, on the application of the petitioner in the course of the proceedings, or in any application to be presented by him for the purpose, on heritable security in Scotland, to the satisfaction of the said trustees, or may be applied otherwise under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament relating to entails in Scotland; and the form of petitions to be presented under this section and the procedure thereon shall, as nearly as may be, be similar to the form and procedure prescribed with reference to petitions presented to the Court under the said Acts; and until such surplus is invested in the purchase of land for the purpose of being entailed, the free annual proceeds thereof shall be paid to the person who would be the heir in possession if such land were purchased and entailed; and it is hereby provided, that it shall be competent to any heir of entail in possession of an entailed estate in Scotland who has or whose predecessors have sold the whole or part of the entailed estate, and where the price or the balance of the price is available for the purchase of land, to apply to the Court in like manner for the appointment of trustees by whom the said price or balance thereof may be invested on heritable security in Scotland, or may be applied otherwise under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament relating to entails in the same manner till the same event and to the same effect in all respects as is hereinbefore provided with reference to the price or the balance of the price of lands sold under the provisions of this section.

10 Provisions as to sale by public roup.

When the upset price of any entailed lands, the sale of which has been authorized by the Court shall have been fixed, the Court may authorize the lands to be exposed by the heir of entail in possession, in presence of the judge of the roup appointed by the Court, at such time and at such upset price, not being under the said fixed upset price, as the heir of entail in possession may arrange, and in the event of the lands not being sold at such upset price, then the heir of entail in possession may re-expose the lands at a reduced upset price, not being under the said fixed upset price, in presence of the judge of the roup, and so on thereafter if the said lands shall not be sold at such re-exposure: Provided always, that such heir of entail in possession shall advertise the land in the first and subsequent exposures, if any, in terms of the interlocutor which shall have been pronounced by the Court on authorizing the sale, and upon the heir of entail effecting a sale in virtue hereof, the Court shall approve of such sale according to the existing law and practice.
